TWELFTH GENERAL REPORT

FROM

THE CHURCH ESTATES COMMISSIONERS.

Sir, 10, Whitehall Place, 26th February 1863.

We, the Church Estates Commissioners, have the honour to make our Annual Report of our proceedings under the Act passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and four, intituled "An Act to facilitate the "Management and Improvement of Episcopal and Capitular Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and sixteen, intituled "An Act to continue and amend an Act to facilitate "the Management and Improvement of Episcopal and Capitular Estates in England,' and under the Act passed in the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-four, intituled "An Act to continue the Act to facilitate the Management and "Improvement of Episcopal and Capitular Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-four, intituled "An Act to continue the Act concerning the Management of Episcopal and "Capitular Estates in England," and under the Act passed in the twenty-second and twenty-third years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-six, intituled "An Act to continue "and amend the Act concerning the Management of Episcopal and Capitular Estates in "England," and under the Act passed in the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth yars of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirty-one, intituled "An Act to continue the Act "concerning the Management of Episcopal and Capitular Estates in England, and "further to amend certain Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for "England."

We annex to this Report an Abstract of the Accounts for the ten years from the commencement of our proceedings to the 31st of December, 1861, with Schedules showing the number of enfranchisements effected by each corporation during that period, as well as other particulars, and also a general statement in explanation of the results afforded by the whole of the transactions.

We have, under the provisions of the 6th and 7th sections of the Act secondly abovementioned, transferred to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England during the past year a sum of £200,000 cash, and a sum of stock equivalent to £100,000 cash, in respect of the surplus proceeds of Enfranchisements completed. The aggregate amount which has been paid over or transferred to the account of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners is now £1,000,207 2*s.* 2*d.*, in addition to £100,000 in respect of interest which has accrued on the surplus.

We last year reported that the transactions approved by us, between August 1851 and March 1862, were 2,273 in number, and that the value in fee of the Estates so agreed to be dealt with was more than 8,600,000*l.* The exact number of transactions was however 2,274, and the fee-simple value of the property dealt with was approximately £8,840,000.

We have during this year approved the terms agreed upon in 143 cases; 126 being cases of sales of reversions, and 17 cases of purchases of leasehold interests, and the value in fee of the Estates so agreed to be dealt with is approximately £700,000. The aggregate number of cases approved by us is therefore 2,417, and the value of the property dealt with amounts to about £9,540,000. In 13 cases we declined to approve the terms proposed; but in 7 of these the terms have been modified so as to meet with our sanction, and they have been included in the number above stated to have been approved.

We set forth in Schedule A. all the cases in which during the past year we have approved sales of reversions or purchases of leasehold interests; and in Schedule B. the proposed sales of reversions and purchases of leasehold interests which we have declined to sanction.

In Schedule A. are also set forth 16 cases of enfranchisement of copyholds of inheritance effected under the above-mentioned Acts.

The transactions continue to be effected with facility, and the Commissioners have reason to believe that the terms are generally satisfactory to the Lessees as well as beneficial to the Church.

We have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servants,

CHICHESTER.
E. P. BOUVERIE.
SPENCER H. WALPOLE.

The Right Honourable
The Secretary of State for the Home Department.

General Statement in explanation of the Transactions comprised in the foregoing Accounts.

Up to the 31st of December 1861 the number of cases of enfranchisements of leaseholds for lives and years and of copyhold grants for lives which the Church Estates Commissioners had approved, was 2,247, involving property estimated to be worth in fee simple about 8,605,000*l.* Whilst some of these cases were in progress, however, the property comprised in them, either by the commutations of the Estates of the Ecclesiastical Corporations which had submitted them for approval, or by the operation of the Act 23rd and 24th Victoria, cap. 124., as regards the Estates of certain Bishopricks, became vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under whom such cases were completed or were in course of completion. Other cases, though in progress, were uncompleted on the 31st of December 1861, and thus the number actually completed by the Church Estates Commissioners up to that date was 1,998, involving property estimated to be worth in fee simple about 7,357,000*l.* as shown in the following Abstract :—

Total			£	1,242,788	5	11

With regard to the costs of the transactions it appears that the aggregate amount paid by the Commissioners up to 31st December 1861 was 106,815*l.* 8*s.* 4*d.*, as stated above. But in this amount are comprised the costs in respect of sales of land at Blackburn, building leases granted by the Archbishop of Canterbury, of property purchased by him under the Episcopal and Capitular Estates Management Acts, copyhold enfranchisements under the powers of those Acts, copyhold enfranchisements under the powers of the Copyhold Acts, and portions of the costs in respect of part of the 119 cases of leasehold enfranchisements investigated and approved by the Church Estates Commissioners, but which were not completed under the Episcopal and Capitular Estates Management Acts, in consequence of the estates of the corporations having become vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England either by commutation or by the operation of the Act 23 & 24 Vict. cap. 124. whilst the cases were in progress. The costs in respect of these matters may be taken to amount in the aggregate to about 5,000*l.*, leaving about 101,800*l.* as the amount of the costs disbursed by the Church Estates Commissioners up to the 31st December 1861 in respect of enfranchisements of leaseholds for lives and years and copyhold grants for lives. But up to that date the costs had only been paid in 1,881 out of the 1,998 cases then completed. Assuming therefore that the costs in the additional 117 cases will amount to 6,000*l.* it follows that the aggregate amount of the costs arising in respect of the enfranchisement of leaseholds for lives and years and copyhold grants for lives will be about 107,800*l.* This amount, however, includes a sum of 558*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* part of the legal expenses incurred in respect of the important case, in the Court of Exchequer, of Wright v. The Dean and Chapter of Worcester and the Church Estates Commissioners, as to the right of renewal of copyholds for lives held under the Chapter of Worcester. It also includes expenses incurred by corporations in negotiations with lessees respecting enfranchisements of various properties, which cases have never come before the Church Estates Commissioners for approval, the negotiations not having resulted in agreements, and also expenses incurred by the Corporations and the Commissioners in cases which have come before the Church Estates Commissioners for approval, but have not been approved by them. And it is larger than it otherwise would have been from the circumstance that either by exchange or purchase freehold and copyhold property to the value of about 301,000*l.* not forming part of the 7,357,000*l.* enfranchised has been acquired by the Corporations, the area of the property to be valued having been thereby extended, and the legal expenses from the additional investigations of title considerably increased. Neglecting, however, these items, and taking the aggregate amount of the costs paid or due, namely 107,800*l.*, and comparing such amount with the fee simple value of the property enfranchised, namely 7,357,000*l.*, it will be found to be about 1*l.* 9*s.* 4*d.* per cent. upon such fee simple value, and if the amount of 2,270*l.* 7*s.* 4*d.* appearing in the Surplus Account as general expenditure be included with it, the two amounts together will correspond to about 1*l.* 10*s.* per cent. upon such fee simple value. It appears, therefore, that the costs incurred in respect of the enfranchisement under the provisions of the Episcopal and Capitular Estates Management Acts of property demised by leases for lives and years, and granted by copies of Court Roll for lives, including stamp duty upon the conveyances of property purchased or acquired by the Corporations, expenses attending negotiations which have not resulted in agreements, expenses attending transactions which the Commissioners have declined to approve, additional expenses attending the re-investment of part of the consideration moneys in freehold property, and all other expenses incidentally arising or connected therewith, are covered by 1½ per cent. upon the fee simple value of the property enfranchised. And, therefore, since the proportion of such fee simple value, which, subject to expenses, has been obtained for the interest of the Church in the property, is about 48 per cent., it follows, that the proportion which has been obtained for the interest of the Church in the property, clear of all expenses, about is 46½ per cent.

FIFTEENTH GENERAL REPORT

FROM

THE ECCLESIASTICAL COMMISSIONERS FOR ENGLAND.

TO THE RIGHT HON. HER MAJESTY'S PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT, &c. &c. &c.

THE Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England submit, in accordance with the 26th section of the Act 13 & 14 Vict. c. 94., and the 10th section of the Act 17 & 18 Vict. c. 116., a Report of their proceedings for the year preceding the 1st of November 1862.

An Abstract of the Accounts of the Commissioners for the same period is annexed in compliance with the directions of the firstly-named Act. See Appendix, No. 1, pp. 10 to 38. The report of the Auditor of the Accounts will be found at p. 38.

The Commissioners have also annexed an Abstract of the Accounts for the whole period from the formation of the Commission up to the 1st of November 1862. See Appendix No. 2, pp. 40 to 57. And with the view to show in a simple form the nature of the various disbursements which have been made out of the Common Fund up to that date, they have added a further Abstract of the Common Fund Account, in which all disbursements of a similar character are classified together. This will be found in Appendix No. 2, page 58.

During the year to which this Report relates, the estates of the see of Canterbury have become vested in the Commissioners, under the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 124.

The agreement with the Dean and Chapter of York, referred to in the last Report, by which certain real estates have been assigned to that Chapter in lieu of the income paid to them by the Commissioners, has been carried out by a Scheme, the particulars of which appear in the Appendix, No. 30, p. 162.

In the course of the year to which this Report relates, the Deans and Chapters of Bristol, Canterbury, and Exeter have, in consideration of money payments, transferred to the Commissioners (with certain exceptions) the property belonging to them respectively; and certain portions of the estates of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster have in like manner been transferred. The Schemes by which these several transactions were accomplished appear in the Appendix, No. 30, pp. 138, 169, 197, and 128.

In continuation of the statements contained in former Reports relating to the endowment of the University of Durham under the provisions of the Act 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113, the Commissioners have to report that certain estates which have become vested in them in right of the third Canonry in the Cathedral Church of Durham have been transferred to the University, in lieu of the remaining portion of the annual money payment to which it was entitled out of the Common Fund. By this assignment, the endowment of the University with real estates is completed. The Scheme for effecting this arrangement will be found in the Appendix, No. 30, p. 90.

Authority has been obtained for the payment by the Commissioners to the Dean of Exeter of a proportionate part of the sum named by Parliament as the minimum average annual income of Deans in England, calculated in respect of the period between the date of his appointment and Lady Day last. The Scheme authorizing this arrangement is in the Appendix, No. 30, p. 108.

The incomes of the Archdeaconry of Coventry in the Diocese of Worcester, the Archdeaconry of Essex in the Diocese of Rochester, and the Archdeaconry of Dorset in the Diocese of Salisbury, have been augmented by Grants out of the Common Fund. The estates belonging to the two last-mentioned Archdeaconries have been transferred to the Commissioners. The schemes and particulars relating to these transactions will be found in the Appendix No. 30, pp. 150, 136, and 120, and No. 3, p. 60.

A Scheme has been passed in accordance with "The Stanhope and Wolsingham Rectories Act, 1858," for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the Rectory of Wolsingham, in the county and diocese of Durham. See Appendix, No. 30, p. 151.

Each of the two medieties or portions of the Benefice and Rectory of Westbury, in the county of Salop and diocese of Hereford (known respectively as Westbury in Dextrâ Parte and Westbury in Sinistrâ Parte), has been constituted into a separate Benefice and Rectory, under the provisions of the Act 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113. The scheme relating to this transaction appears in the Appendix, No. 30, p. 143.

In accordance with the provisions of the Acts 18 & 19 Vict. c. 127., 19 & 20 Vict. c. 55., and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 142., a Scheme has also been passed for uniting the two parishes of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds, with a view to making better provision for the spiritual duties of those parishes. See Appendix, No. 30, p. 88.

The preferments vacated during the year to which this Report has reference are enumerated in the Appendix, No. 4, p. 60.

The Commissioners have continued to effect enfranchisements of estates vested in them, on the principles stated in their Twelfth Report, and the instances continue extremely few in which the price required by the Commissioners has been the subject of prolonged discussion and of ultimate refusal.

In pursuance of the provisions of the Act 17 & 18 Vict. c. 116., a Schedule is annexed of all sales of reversions and purchases of leasehold interests effected during the year preceding the 1st November last, and also of all cases of refusal, with the special reasons for the same. See Appendix, Nos. 5 and 6, pp. 60 to 67.

A Schedule of the cases in which local claims on estates which have been enfranchised are created by the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113., and 17 & 18 Vict. c. 116., in compliance with the directions of the secondly-mentioned Act, is annexed to this Report. The same Schedule shows the period at which it was estimated that the previously subsisting lease or grant, under which such estates were held, would in each case have expired. See Appendix, No. 7, p. 67.

In the course of the year to which this Report has reference, a sum of £200,000 cash, and a sum of stock equivalent to 100,000*l.* cash, have been transferred to the Commissioners by the Church Estates Commissioners, in respect of the surplus arising from transactions effected under the provisions of "The Episcopal and Capitular Estates Management Acts" and of "The Copyhold Acts." (See Abstract of Accounts in Appendix, No. 1, p. 11.) The aggregate amount which has been transferred to the Common Fund on this account is now 1,000,207*l.* 2*s.* 2*d.*, in addition to 100,000*l.* in respect of interest which has accrued on the surplus. (See Abstract of Accounts in Appendix, No. 2, pp. 41 and 59.)

Under the provisions of the Acts 16 & 17 Vict. c. 50., and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 124., exchanges of the patronage of certain Benefices have been made, and the Schemes and particulars relating thereto appear in the Appendix, No. 30, pp. 87, 100, and 126, and No. 8, p. 68.

Assignments of the patronage of certain Benefices have also been effected under the provisions of the Acts 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113., 4 & 5 Vict. c. 39., and 6 & 7 Vict. c. 37., in consideration of the augmentation of the incomes of such Benefices. The Schemes and particulars relating to these transactions will be found in the Appendix, No. 30, pp. 103, 105, 177, and 182, and No. 9, p. 68.

The Commissioners have during the past year made temporary grants to certain Benefices within the Parish of Manchester, under the provisions of "The Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850." The particulars of these grants, together with the Scheme for confirming them, are contained in the Appendix, No. 30, p. 202, and No. 10, p. 69.

The grants which have been made to benefices and districts out of the Common Fund to meet benefactions secured during the past year, and ratified by Order in Council, are enumerated in the Appendix, No. 11, p 69. The Schemes for confirming such grants appear in the Appendix, No 30, pp. 156, 195, and 199.

During the year to which this Report relates the Commissioners have made the grants set forth in the Appendix No. 12, p. 72, and No. 13, p. 73, in respect of local claims of the places, where property is now actually in their possession without having been purchased by them. They have also taken steps for dealing with the cases falling within the rule laid down by them in their Report of last year for the appropriation of the 20,000*l.* per annum proposed in such Report to be applied to meet the local claims of other places. These claims, under the previous practice of the Board, would not have been dealt with until the expiration of the leasehold terms for which the estates situate in such places have been demised: the grants made in these cases will not be specifically reported until next year.

With a view to the further relief of spiritual destitution, the Commissioners have determined during the current year,—

I. To appropriate a capital sum of 100,000*l.* to meet benefactions already offered in accordance with their published Rules dated February 1862;

II. To discharge those of the local claims proposed in the last Report to be immediately dealt with, which the 20,000*l.* per annum then voted will not suffice to meet;

III. To augment unconditionally to 300*l.* per annum the incomes of all benefices in public patronage, the population of which is not less than 10,000 (except certain benefices which are subject to special legislative provisions); and

IV. To augment the incomes of all benefices in private patronage having a like population of 10,000 to a like amount of 300*l.* per annum, upon condition that one half of the sum required to effect such augmentation shall be provided from non-ecclesiastical sources.

The increase of charge to be thus imposed on the Common Fund will amount to about 20,000*l.* per annum, in addition to the capital sum of 100,000*l.*

The number of benefices permanently augmented by the Commissioners, exclusive of new districts, mentioned below, amounted on the 1st November last to 1,145.

Under "The New Parishes Acts" Five districts have been constituted since the last Report. In these cases the endowments have been provided either from private sources or by the Commissioners in consideration of local claims upon property vested in them, and situate or arising within the parish from which the districts so endowed were respectively taken. The particulars of the districts are set forth in the Appendix, No. 15, p. 74, and the Schemes for constituting them will also be found in the Appendix, No. 30, pp. 83, 161, 166, 168, and 201.

The number of districts constituted by the Commissioners under "The New Parishes Acts" up to the 1st November last amounted to 293; and of those districts, 266 have been already provided with churches and have become "New Parishes" under the 15th section of the Act 6 & 7 Vict. c. 37., and the Incumbents thereof respectively entitled to an annual income of not less than 150*l.* per annum, besides the surplice fees and dues arising within their several parishes.

The total number, therefore, of benefices and districts augmented and endowed by the Commissioners amounts to 1,438, and the total permanent charge upon the "Common Fund," inclusive of grants in respect of benefactions paid to them, exceeds the sum of 107,700*l.* per annum. In addition to these charges upon the "Common Fund," the Commissioners have annexed, in certain cases, land and tithe rentcharge, the value of which may be estimated at 11,000*l.* per annum.

The Commissioners have also made certain grants to meet benefactions in accordance with the 15th section of the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 124., with a view to making temporary provision for the cure of souls in districts in which large masses of population are collected for the purpose of working mines. The particulars of these grants will be found in the Appendix, No. 14, p. 73.

A list of benefices to the incumbents of which grants have been made during the past year, by way of compensation for loss of fees transferred to the incumbents of new parishes formed under "The New Parishes Acts," is given in the Appendix, No. 16, p. 74, and the Schemes for confirming such grants are also in the Appendix, No. 30, pp. 123 and 130.

Orders under the 11th section of the Act 19 & 20 Vict. c. 104., authorizing the performance, in eleven churches or chapels to which districts belong, of the offices contemplated by that section, have been issued by the Commissioners during the same period. A list of the cases in which such orders have been made will be found in the Appendix, No. 17, p. 74.

Under "The Church Building Acts" the following arrangements have been made by the Commissioners, during the past year, viz.:—

Forty-eight districts have been constituted or assigned under the designation of either —

1. District Chapelries. See Appendix, No. 18, p. 75, and No. 30, pp. 86, 89, 90, 92, 94, 96 to 98, 103, 104, 106, 129, 133, 134, 137, 141, 142, 145, 149, 157, 160, 167, 178, 182, 191 to 194, 196, 199, and 200.
2. Consolidated Chapelries. See Appendix, No. 19, p. 75, and No. 30, pp. 14, 82, 84, 91, 93, 99, 101, 108, 119, 135, 152, and 180.
3. Particular Districts. See Appendix, No. 20, p. 76.
4. Districts under "The Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850." See Appendix, No. 21, pp. 76, and No. 30, pp. 81, 159, and 203.

Declarations of the patronage of two churches have been also issued. See Appendix, No. 22, p. 76.

In three cases a new church has been substituted for the existing parish church. See Appendix, No. 23, p. 76.

Scales of pew rents have been fixed for four churches. See Appendix, No. 24, p. 76

One hundred and ninety-seven conveyances of sites for churches, burial grounds, and parsonage houses respectively have been accepted. See Appendix, No. 25, p. 77.

The particulars of the several grants made from the "Maltby Fund" since the last Report will be found in the Appendix, No. 26, p. 78. There is still a balance of this Fund exceeding £2,000, which, however, is subject to certain temporary annual grants set forth in the Appendix.

Grants from the "Gally Knight Fund," which have been made during the past year are set forth in the Appendix, No. 27, p. 79.

A list of the sales effected and of the building and mining leases granted with the sanction of the Commissioners, under the authority of "The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts," during the past year, is inserted in the Appendix, Nos. 28 and 29, p. 79 and 80.

Copies of all Schemes and Representations prepared by the Commissioners, and sanctioned and approved by Her Majesty in Council during the same year, will be found in the Appendix, No. 30, pp. 81 to 212.

All which is reported by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

In witness whereof, the said Commissioners have hereunto set their Common Seal, this Twenty-sixth day of February in the year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

REPORT FROM THE AUDITOR TO THE COMMISSIONERS.

Treasury, Feb. 26th, 1863.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

I have examined the cash account of the Commission for the year ended the 31st October 1862, and, subject to further detailed investigation of the solicitors' and surveyors' charges, I am enabled to certify to the correctness of the balances of cash and stock as stated in the foregoing balance sheet, subject to the deduction of 4*l.* 6*s.* 1*d.* on the debit side of the account, in respect of disallowances, and to the future adjustment of a claim of 20*l.* 13*s.* 8*d.*, omitted to be brought to the credit of the Commission. The disallowances adverted to in my report of last year have been adjusted or removed.

The examination of the rentals is proceeding satisfactorily.

Owing to the heavy duty imposed on the officers of the account branch in compiling the abstract of the accounts from the formation of the Commission to the 31st October 1862, which will be appended to your Report, it has not been practicable to close the books in time to enable me to verify all the details of the accounts; but from the state to which the books have now been brought, I trust that in future I shall be enabled to certify to the balance sheet to be presented to Parliament, without reservation.

I have, &c.,

G. ARBUTHNOT,

The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

No. 30.

Schemes and Representations sanctioned and approved by Her Majesty in Council during the Year preceding the 1st November 1862.

No. 1289.

For setting out and constituting a District for spiritual Purposes, and annexing such District to the Church of Saint Philip, Hulme, in the Parish of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 22d November 1861.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of November 1861,

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Philip, Hulme, situate within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for, and annexed to, the consecrated church of Saint Philip, Hulme, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all those several parts of the new parishes of the Holy Trinity, Hulme, and All Saints, Chorlton-on-Medlock (which new parishes were heretofore part of the said parish of Manchester), which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are also delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said new parishes of the Holy Trinity, Hulme, and All Saints, Chorlton-on-Medlock, respectively, and shall be set out and constituted for, and annexed to, the said church of Saint Philip, Hulme, aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and be named 'The District of Saint Philip, Hulme.'

No. 1291.

For constituting the District of Saint John the Evangelist, Sandbach Heath, out of the Parish of Sandbach, in the County and Diocese of Chester.

Gazetted 22d November 1861.

At the Court at Windsor, the 20th day of November 1861,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, out of the parish of Sandbach, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Sandbach hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas Sarah Sibson, of Sandbach aforesaid, spinster, deceased, in and by her last will and testament, bearing date the sixteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, gave and bequeathed unto us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, the sum of twelve thousand pounds sterling, to the intent that the same might be applied by us for the purposes specified in the said will, and herein-after mentioned, or as near thereto as the same could consistently with law be applied; (that is to say,) the said Sarah Sibson desired that with the sanction of the vicar for the time being of the said parish of Sandbach a portion of such parish should be constituted a separate district, under the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, as soon as conveniently might be after her decease, and that a piece or pieces of ground should be purchased for the building of a church and parsonage-house, and for a churchyard, and that a church and parsonage-house should be built, with all suitable appurtenances, on the said ground, and that the church, when built, should be consecrated and styled the church of Saint John the Evangelist, and that the right of patronage of the said church should be vested in the vicar of the parish church of Sandbach for the time being, and the said testatrix desired that the said sum of twelve thousand pounds should be appropriated by us in certain proportions for the purposes aforesaid, and also for the endowment of the minister of the said church.

"And whereas a church has been erected on a site duly conveyed to us for such purpose, and situate within the limits of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted to be appropriated and used as and for the church of the said district, and the said church has been approved by us, and consecrated by the name of Saint John the Evangelist, Sandbach Heath.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that in consideration of such bequest as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, and to the church thereof, should, as desired by the said Sarah Sibson, be assigned to the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Sandbach, in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the proceeds of the said bequest applicable to the purpose of endowing the said church of Saint John the Evangelist are sufficient to enable us immediately to provide the income for the minister thereof, which is herein-after mentioned and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Chester, and of the Reverend John Armitstead, the present vicar or incumbent of the parish church of Sandbach, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Sandbach which is described in the schedule hereunto annexed (all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed) shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be constituted and become and be a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Sandbach Heath.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that the church which has been so approved by us, and consecrated by the name of Saint John the Evangelist, Sandbach Heath, as aforesaid, shall be, and be deemed to be, the parish church of the said district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the incumbent of such district, when duly licensed, the annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May, or the first day of November, as the case may be, which shall happen next after the day of the date of the licence of such incumbent as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the incumbency of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the incumbent making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to such district: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such incumbent and his successors in fee, nothing herein, or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, and to the church thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish church of Sandbach.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Sandbach Heath, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Sandbach, in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish from the parish of Church Lawton, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the turnpike-road leading from Newcastle to Sandbach, and extending thence first north-westward, and then northward, and then again north-westward along the middle of such turnpike-road as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'S. St. J.E.D., 1861, No. 1,' and placed on the northern side of the said turnpike-road at its point of junction with a certain bye-road leading to Sandbach Heath, and extending thence in a straight line due north to such boundary stone, and continuing thence in the last-mentioned direction and still in a straight line (crossing the River Wheelock) to another boundary stone inscribed 'S. St. J.E.D., 1861, No. 2,' and placed on the northern side of the turnpike-road leading from Sandbach to Congleton, and extending thence in the same direction and in a straight line to a third boundary stone inscribed 'S. St. J.E.D., 1861, No. 3,' and placed on the boundary which divides the township of Sandbach, in the said parish of Sandbach, from the township of Bradwall, also in the same parish, and extending thence in a direction generally north-eastward along such township boundary to the boundary which divides the said parish of Sandbach from the parish of Brereton-cum-Smethwick, in the same county and diocese."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and patron have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say,

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, and of the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bayswater, both in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirtieth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and duly published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of November in the same year, a portion of the parish of Saint James, Paddington, in the said county and diocese, was assigned as a district to the consecrated church called Trinity Church, situate in Bishop's Road, in the said parish, and such district was called 'The Chapelry District of the Holy Trinity, Paddington.'

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and in right of his see the patron of the said parish of Saint James, Paddington, and of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, of the Reverend Archibald Boyd, the incumbent of the said parish of Saint James, Paddington, of the Reverend John Miles, the incumbent of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, and of the Reverend Cornwall Smalley, the patron and incumbent of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Bayswater (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that, in our opinion, it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, and of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Bayswater, should be respectively altered, so as to dissever from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, and to include within the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Bayswater, all those parts of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, which are described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto also annexed, and are thereon coloured pink, and that the said parts of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, so dissevered therefrom as last mentioned, should be included within and form part of the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bayswater, aforesaid.

"And we humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The Schedule to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered from the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and to be included within the limits of the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bayswater, in the same county and diocese, being :—

"All that part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, which consists of a piece or parcel of ground whereon a National Charity School for the education of the poor of the parish of Paddington is erected, together with the appurtenances belonging to the said premises, all which piece or parcel of ground and premises are comprised within boundary walls ; and also all that part of the said new parish which consists of that portion of the footpath and roadway of Queen's Road which forms the western frontage of the before-mentioned piece or parcel of ground and premises ; and also all that part of the same new parish which consists of that portion of the footpath and roadway of the road called Porchester Gardens, which forms the southern frontage of the said before-mentioned piece or parcel of ground and premises."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed alteration of the boundaries of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, and of the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bayswater, both in the county of Middlesex, be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts ; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say,

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the spiritual duties of the parishes of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds, in the county of York and in the diocese of York, by uniting those benefices.

"Whereas the several requirements of the said firstly herein-before-mentioned Act in respect of matters preliminary to, and in furtherance of, a proposal for the union of contiguous benefices, have been and are duly complied with in the present case by the inhabitants of the aforesaid parishes of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds, and by the patrons of the same two benefices, and by the bishop of the diocese as appears by this scheme and by the statement and certificate set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

"And whereas proceedings for effecting the said proposed union had been commenced and were pending at the time of the passing of the said lastly-mentioned Act.

"And whereas the Right Honourable Beaumont Baron Hotham has, at his own expense, and upon land conveyed to us for that purpose, erected a new church in the said parish of South Dalton, capable of affording sufficient accommodation for the inhabitants of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds.

"And whereas the said new church was consecrated by the Archbishop of York on the sixth day of this instant month of August, and by an instrument under our common seal, dated the seventh day of the samemon th, and made in pursuance of the Act passed in that behalf, we (with such consents as by the same Act are required) declared that such new church should be substituted for the old and dilapidated church of South Dalton; and did transfer to such new church the endowments, emoluments, and rights of, or belonging to, such old church, whereby such new church became, and now is, the parish church of the said parish of South Dalton; and the same is the church to be left standing and remaining within the proposed united benefice of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds.

"And whereas the existing parish church at Holme-on-the-Wolds is in a dilapidated condition, and it is desirable to provide for the pulling down thereof upon the completion of the union of the said parishes as herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, having instituted inquiry concerning the facts set forth in the said statement and certificate, and seeing fit to propose this scheme, we do hereby certify and submit to Your Majesty in Council the statement and certificate aforesaid, which is hereto annexed and appended by way of schedule; and we do recommend and propose that the said two several parishes of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds be united for ecclesiastical purposes only by the name of the United Benefice of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds.

"And we further recommend and propose that it shall be lawful for us at any time, and from time to time, after the issuing of a duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, to order and direct and carry out the pulling down of the said parish church at Holme-on-the-Wolds, or of such part thereof as shall to us seem meet.

"SCHEDULE.

"To the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

"Whereas it was represented in writing to Thomas Lord Archbishop of York, my immediate predecessor in the see of York, by the inhabitants of the several parishes of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds, in the county and diocese of York, in their respective vestries assembled, that the benefices of the parishes of which they were inhabitants might with advantage to the interests of religion be united.

"And whereas I have inquired into the circumstances of the case, and it appears to me that such union may usefully be made; and that the patrons of the said benefices so proposed to be united are consenting thereto; such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patrons.

"Now I, Charles Thomas Lord Archbishop of York, do hereby certify to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England the following statement of the facts, to wit:—

"That the population of the parish of South Dalton, according to the census taken in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, was 299, and that of Holme-on-the-Wolds was 150.

"That the gross annual value of the said benefice of South Dalton is three hundred and ninety-seven pounds, or thereabouts, and that of the said benefice of Holme-on-the-Wolds sixty-five pounds, or there abouts.

"That the ancient parish church of Holme-on-the-Wolds is in a dilapidated condition, and that there is no other church in the parish of Holme-on-the-Wolds.

"That there is a parsonage house in and for the said parish of South Dalton, but none in or for the said parish of Holme-on-the-Wolds.

"That the said two parishes are contiguous, and that the present parish church of South Dalton is distant not more than half-a-mile from the said parish church of Holme-on-the-Wolds.

"That the Right Honourable Beaumont Lord Hotham is the patron in fee of the benefice of Holme-on-the-Wolds, and is also patron during his life of the benefice of South Dalton, and that Charles Hotham, a lieutenant in Her Majesty's 18th, or Royal Irish Regiment of Foot, is the next heir of full age, entitled to the patronage of the last-named benefice, after the decease of the said Beaumont Lord Hotham, and that both benefices are held by one and the same incumbent, to wit, the Reverend Thomas Frederick Simmons, Clerk.

"That the said Beaumont Lord Hotham and Charles Hotham, as such patrons as aforesaid, are consenting to such union of the said parishes as aforesaid.

"Given under my hand this seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

"C. T. EBOR."

And whereas a copy of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly herein-before mentioned Act, been affixed on or near to the principal outer door of each of the churches of the said parish of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds, so proposed to be united, and in the usual place of notice in such parishes, and copies of the same scheme have also been duly transmitted to the bishop of the diocese, and to the patrons, ministers, churchwardens, overseers, and vestry clerks of the benefices and parishes of South Dalton and Holme-on-the-Wolds respectively, together with such a notice to every person interested in the matter as is by the same Act required.

And whereas two months have elapsed since the date of the affixing of the said scheme, and the transmission of the said notices as aforesaid; and no cause has been shown against the proposed union of the said parishes and benefices, or as to any part or parts of the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

Gazetted 7th January 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 6th day of January 1862,

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as an endowment for the University of Durham.

" Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority therein provided, such arrangements shall be made with respect to the deanery and canonries in the cathedral church of Durham, and their revenues, as, upon due inquiry and consideration of an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to enable the Dean and Chapter of Durham to appropriate part of the property of their Church to the establishment of a University in connexion therewith for the advancement of learning,' and of the engagements entered into by William, late Bishop of Durham, and the Dean and Chapter of Durham, shall be determined on with a view to maintaining the said University in a state of respectability and efficiency.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, on behalf of the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars, that it would be advantageous to the said University that all our estate and interest in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, should be transferred to them in lieu of the before-mentioned money payment, and we have ascertained after due inquiry and calculation that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments are convenient to be held as part of the endowment of the said University, and are calculated to produce the net annual income requisite to complete the endowment of the said University, as contemplated by the herein-before mentioned Orders of Your Majesty in Council.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of said Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham, testified by their Common Seal being hereunto affixed, we humbly recommend and propose that immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, all our estate and interest in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments described in the Schedule hereunto annexed shall become, and be transferred to, and permanently vested in, the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the said University of Durham, and their successors for ever, in full substitution for the said annual sum of three hundred and fifteen pounds, and that they shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof as from the twenty-ninth day of September last, and that the said annual money payment shall as from the said twenty-ninth day of September cease and determine.

Gazetted 7th February 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church called Emmanuel Church, situate at Sidlow Bridge, in the parish of Horley, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Horley, and of the several parishes of Charlwood, Buckland, Leigh, and Reigate, in the said county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes of Horley, Charlwood, Buckland, Leigh, and Reigate, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Emmanuel, situate at Sidlow Bridge aforesaid.

"And whereas the major part in number of the patrons of the respective parishes out of which such consolidated chapelry is proposed to be formed as aforesaid, by virtue of the herein-before mentioned Acts, concur as to the formation of such consolidated chapelry, and as to the persons to whom the right of patronage of the church of such consolidated chapelry shall belong.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, in testimony whereof he hath signed and sealed this representation, and with the consents of Henry Christopher Wise of Woodcote, in the county of Warwick, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Charlwood; of Elizabeth Dendy, of Sandfels, near Reigate, in the said county of Surrey, widow; and of John Sanders, of Bansted, in the same county, Esquire; and of John Wood, of Bansted aforesaid, Esquire, the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Leigh; and of John Newman Harrison, of No. 7, Bolton Place, Upper Church Street, Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Reigate; the said Henry Christopher Wise, Elizabeth Dendy, John Sanders, John Wood, and John Newman Harrison, being the major part in number of the patrons of the respective parishes aforesaid (in testimony of which consent they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Horley, Charlwood, Buckland, Leigh, and Reigate, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Emmanuel, situate at Sidlow Bridge aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Emmanuel, Sidlow Bridge.'

"And we further represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said Henry Christopher Wise, Elizabeth Dendy, John Sanders, John Wood, and John Newman Harrison (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Emmanuel, Sidlow Bridge, shall be vested in and be exercised by Robert Clutton, of Hartswood, near Reigate aforesaid, Esquire, and James Corry Sherrard, of Kinnersley Manor, Reigate, in the said county of Surrey, Esquire, their heirs and assigns, as tenants in common, and not as joint tenants.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Emmanuel, Sidlow Bridge, being:—

"All those portions of the several parishes of Horley, Charlwood, Buckland, Leigh, and Reigate, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, wherein the respective incumbents of such parishes now possess the exclusive cure of souls, which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Horley from the said parish For making better provision for the Cure of Souls in the District of South Charlton, in the County of Northumberland and Diocese of Durham.

Gazetted 25th March 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the district of South Charlton, in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and duly published in the London Gazette of the thirtieth day of the same month, the said district of South Charlton was duly constituted, and the right of patronage of such district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, were assigned to and vested in the Most Noble Algernon, Duke of Northumberland, his heirs and assigns, and the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Durham, and their successors, in the manner in the said Order mentioned, and herein-after described; that is to say: so that the said Duke and his heirs and assigns should have and enjoy two nominations of a minister to the said district for every single nomination by the said dean and chapter, and their successors; and that the first two of every three nominations to such district should be vested in, and belong to, and should and might be exercised by the said Duke, his heirs and assigns; and whereas it has been agreed between the said dean and chapter, and the said Algernon, Duke of Northumberland, and it has been proposed to us by the said dean and chapter and the said Duke, and it appears to us to be expedient that the share of the patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, which now belongs to the said dean and chapter, should be assigned and transferred to the said Algernon, Duke of Northumberland, as herein-after recommended and proposed.

"And whereas it has been also agreed that the said Duke should transfer, and he has accordingly transferred, to our account and into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, a sum of seven hundred and seventy-five pounds, five shillings, and seven pence, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, upon the understanding that the income of the minister of the said district, when the entire patronage thereof shall have been transferred and assigned as herein-after set forth, should be augmented by an equivalent annual grant to be payable out of the common fund under our control, in manner herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and of the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Durham (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common or capitular seal), we humbly recommend and propose that the share of the patronage of the said district of South Charlton, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, which now belongs to the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Durham, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, be assigned and transferred to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Algernon Duke of Northumberland, his heirs and assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose that, in consideration of the transfer to us of the sum of seven hundred and seventy-five pounds, five shillings and seven pence, Three pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund aforesaid in each and every year by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, to the minister for the time being of the said district of South Charlton, the sum of twenty-four pounds, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Sneating, in the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, London.

Gazetted 25th March 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March 1862,

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Sneating, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the same Acts, and bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and duly published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments then belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid consist, to a considerable extent, of reversions expectant upon leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

No. 1316.

Relating to the Endowment of the Deanery of the Cathedral Church of Exeter.

Gazetted 25th March 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the endowment of the Deanery of the Cathedral Church of Exeter.

"Whereas it is by the above-recited Acts provided, that steps shall be taken for securing to the Dean of every cathedral church in England an average annual income of not less than one thousand pounds, and that it shall be lawful to carry such provisions into effect by any mode of payment, contribution, augmentation, or endowment which may be deemed fit.

"And whereas upon the vacancy of the deanery of the cathedral church of Exeter, which occurred on or about the seventeenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, by the decease of the Very Reverend Thomas Hill Lowe, the then dean, the representatives of the said Thomas Hill Lowe became entitled, in accordance with the ancient statutes, usages, and customs of the said cathedral church, to receive the share of the corporate revenues of the said cathedral church of Exeter, belonging to the deanery during the period intervening between the decease of the said Thomas Hill Lowe and the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"And whereas the Very Reverend Charles John Ellicott, the present dean of the said cathedral church, was appointed to such deanery on or about the twentieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, but by reason of the ancient statutes, usages, and customs above referred to he will not be entitled to receive any portion of the revenues of the said cathedral church during the period which will have elapsed between the date of his appointment and the twenty-fifth day of March next, the date at which the representatives of the said Thomas Henry Lowe will cease to be entitled to any portion of the said capitular revenues, and by reason of the alteration in the mode of appointing the dean, made by the firstly herein-before mentioned Act, the representatives of the present dean and his successors will not be entitled to any portion of the corporate revenues of the said chapter which may accrue after any avoidance of the deanery.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the present dean of the said cathedral church of Exeter, in respect of the period which will have elapsed between the date of his appointment to the said deanery as aforesaid and the said twenty-fifth day of March next, a sum calculated at and after the rate of one thousand pounds per annum.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Peter, Draycott, in the Parish of Cheddar, in the County of Somerset and Diocese of Bath and Wells.

Gazetted 25th March 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Draycott, in the parish of Cheddar, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Cheddar, and of the parish of Rodney Stoke, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, and also in the contiguous extra-parochial place called or known as Nyland and Batcombe, in the same county and diocese, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the respective churches of the said parishes of Cheddar and Rodney Stoke.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes of Cheddar and Rodney Stoke, and also the said contiguous extra-parochial place called or known as Nyland and Batcombe, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Draycott aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Robert John, Baron Auckland, Bishop of Bath and Wells, and in right of his see the patron of the rectory of the parish of Rodney Stoke aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), and also with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Wells, the patrons of the vicarage of the parish of Cheddar aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their common or capitular seal), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Cheddar and Rodney Stoke, and also the whole of the said contiguous extra-parochial place called or known by the name of Nyland and Batcombe, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions and place, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Peter, situate at Draycott aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Draycott.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Robert John, Baron Auckland, Bishop of Bath and Wells, and the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Wells (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Peter, Draycott, shall belong to, and be exercised alternately by, the vicar for the time being of the said parish of Cheddar, and the rector for the time being of the said parish of Rodney Stoke, respectively, and that the first turn thereof shall belong to and be exercised by the vicar for the time being of the parish of Cheddar aforesaid.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Peter, Draycott, being :—

"All those several portions of the respective parishes of Cheddar and Rodney Stoke, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, which are comprised within the tithing of Draycott.

"And also all that isolated portion of the said parish of Cheddar which is situate to the south of the before-mentioned tithing of Draycott, and which is comprised within the closes numbered 105 and 106 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Cheddar and upon the map hereunto annexed.

"And also all that the extra-parochial place (including an isolated portion thereof) which is called or known as Nyland and Batcombe, and which is situate in the county and diocese aforesaid."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint Peter, situate at Draycott, in the parish of Cheddar, in the county of Somerset, be accordingly formed; and that the agreement, mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to, and be exercised alternately by, the vicar for the time being of the said parish of Cheddar and the rector for the time being of the parish of Rodney Stoke, in the said county of Somerset, respectively, and that the first turn thereof shall belong to, and be exercised by, the vicar for the time being of the parish of Cheddar aforesaid; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bath and Wells.

such portions thereof as were by the said Order assigned as part of the endowment of the said Archbishoprick, and except all rights of patronage or presentation and the episcopal house of residence situate at Bishopthorpe), became by force of the said last-mentioned Act absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments so vested in us as aforesaid, consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates, vested in us, are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act power is given to lessees, holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, hereditaments, and endowments, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, hereditaments and endowments, heretofore belonging to the said Archbishoprick of York, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of another Act of the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the sixteenth day of April last, and duly published in the London Gazette on the same day, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the said dean and chapter of Winchester (excepting certain portions thereof in such order particularly excepted, and excepting also any rights of ecclesiastical patronage), became absolutely vested in us, for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, lately belonging to the said dean and chapter of Winchester (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said dean and chapter and their visitor, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, and as will secure a net annual income of three thousand and six hundred pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council of the sixteenth day of April last), and for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner, as shall appear to us advisable.

At the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of March 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property belonging to us in right of the fifth canonry in the cathedral church of Durham.

"Whereas, on the vacancy of the said canonry, which occurred on or about the twenty-first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, by the decease of the Honourable and Reverend Gerald Valerian Wellesley, Doctor in Divinity, the then holder thereof, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said canonry (except any rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas by an order of exchange, bearing date the thirtieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, made by the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, in accordance with the provisions of the Acts for the inclosure, exchange, and improvement of land, the lands and hereditaments described in the schedule hereunto annexed became vested in us in exchange for certain portions of the property formerly belonging to the said canonry.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant, but are in possession, but, on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, theretofore belonging to the said canonry, or which have been acquired by us as aforesaid, in exchange for the same or for some part thereof, and are now vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"And whereas the vicar of the said vicarage of Felpham has been placed in possession of the rents and profits of the land and premises above mentioned, as from the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the said grant of tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, herein-before recommended to be made

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the several grants which are herein-before recommended to be made to the benefices or churches enumerated in the said twelfth schedule hereunto annexed, shall commence and take effect in each case respectively as from the date so as aforesaid set opposite to the name of each of the said benefices.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed expedient, and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of any annual sum then in course of payment by us out of or chargeable upon our Common Fund to the incumbent of any of the said benefices or churches, or instead of any part of such annual sum, an investment of a sum in gross, or a grant or appropriation of land, or other hereditaments in fee, equivalent or superior thereto in point of net annual income, should be substituted for the benefit of the incumbent of such benefice or church and his successors (the incumbent for the time being in each case assenting to such substitution); nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said benefices or churches, or to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1324.

As to the Assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Church of Saint Anne, Bucks Mills, in the Parish of Woolfardisworthy, in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter.

Gazetted 29th April 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April 1862,

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Anne, situate at Bucks Mills, in the parish of Woolfardisworthy, in the hundred of Hartland, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Woolfardisworthy, and of the parish of Parkham, in the said county and diocese which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Woolfardisworthy, and of the said parish of Parkham, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Bucks Mills aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter ; of Lucy Elizabeth Hawkes, of Abbey Road, Saint John's Wood, in the county of Middlesex, widow, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Woolfardisworthy ; and of William Henry Stone, of Herne Hill, Dulwich, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Parkham (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Woolfardisworthy, and of the said parish of Parkham, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Anne, situate at Bucks Mills aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anne, Bucks Mills.'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Lucy Elizabeth Hawkes and the said William Henry Stone (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry shall belong to, and be exercised by, Jane Marianne Elwes, of Walland Cary, in the said county of Devon, widow, her heirs and assigns for ever.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anne, Bucks Mills, being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Woolfardisworthy, in the hundred of Hartland, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Woolfardisworthy from the parish of Clovelly, in the same county and diocese, at a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. No. 1325.

For augmenting the Income of the Archdeaconry of Essex, in the Diocese of Rochester.

Gazetted 29th April 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Essex, in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas by the first-recited Act it is enacted that any archdeaconry may, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, provided that no archdeacon shall be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation or other emolument as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless he shall be resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry is situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licences for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and the residence of the clergy in the same Act mentioned; and it is by the said first-recited Act further enacted, that upon the endowment of an archdeaconry being made under the provisions thereof, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage), belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment may, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of any archdeacon in possession at the time of the passing of the same Act, and by the authority therein provided, be vested in us for the purposes of the same Act.

"And whereas by the secondly-recited Act it is declared and enacted that in the case of any archdeaconry which shall no longer be held by the archdeacon who was, at the time of the passing of the said first-recited Act, in possession thereof, the provisions of the same Act, which relate to the transfer to us of the estates of any archdeaconry upon its endowment in either of the modes therein provided, shall be construed and held to authorize such transfer with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of the archdeacon in possession of the archdeaconry at the time.

"And whereas the said archdeaconry of Essex is endowed by the annexation thereto of the manor of Senables, situate in the parish of West Ham, in the said county of Essex, and the lands, tenements, and hereditamemts thereunto belonging, now demised upon a lease for lives, and it has been made to appear to us that the net average annual income of the archdeaconry arising from other sources does not exceed sixty pounds.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester, and of the Venerable Carew Anthony Saint John-Mildmay, the present archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Essex, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us out of the said common fund, to the said Carew Anthony Saint John-Mildmay and his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside in accordance with the provisions of the said first-recited Act, the annual sum of one hundred and forty pounds on the first day of January in every year, and every such whole yearly payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate under the hand of the bishop of the diocese for the time being that the said Carew Anthony Saint John-Mildmay, or his successor for the time being in the said archdeaconry, has duly resided as aforesaid during the preceding year, or on the production to us of a licence of non-residence, and that the first such yearly payment shall be made on the first day of January next.

"And we further recommend and propose that a proportionate part of one such yearly payment, calculated in respect of the period between the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and the first day of January last, shall be made immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and upon our being satisfied that for the last-mentioned period the said Carew Anthony Saint John-Mildmay has duly resided within the diocese of Rochester; and that all lands, tenements, and hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), now forming part of the endowment of the said archdeaconry of Essex, shall forthwith be disannexed therefrom and become and be absolutely transferred to and vested in us, subject to any existing lease or leases, grant or grants thereof, for the purposes of the said Acts, and that we shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from and after the first day of July now last past.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

No. 1326.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in the Parish of Dunham and Chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall, in the County of Nottingham and Diocese of Lincoln.

Gazetted 29th April 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Dunham and in the chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall, all in the county of Nottingham and diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the vicarage of the said parish of Dunham and the said chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall form one united benefice, and there is, in addition to the parish church of Dunham, a chapel for each of such chapelries.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that it is not expedient at present to create either of the said chapelries a separate and independent cure and benefice; but that it is desirable, in order to the due pastoral superintendence of the said parish and chapelries, that the income of the incumbent should be augmented, and that provision should be made for the maintenance of a duly licensed curate.

"And whereas in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, certain lands, tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithe, and other hereditaments and premises, situate or arising within the said parish of Dunham and chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall, became vested in us, under the authority and for the purposes of the herein firstly-mentioned Act, subject nevertheless to a beneficial lease thereof, which expired in the month of October one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the vicar or incumbent, for the time being, of the vicarage of the said parish of Dunham with the chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall annexed, the sum of eighteen pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that on the first day of May next there shall, in respect of the time which has elapsed since the determination of the herein-before mentioned lease, be paid by us, to such vicar or incumbent, three such half-yearly payments.

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall also be paid by us, out of the common fund aforesaid, in each and every year, to the said vicar or incumbent, the sum of one hundred pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year: provided always that the said half-yearly payment in respect of the last-mentioned sum of one hundred pounds shall be made only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November aforesaid, of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of the diocese, that a curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the said parish of Dunham, or within one or other of the said chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall, during the preceding half year.

"And we further recommend and propose that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum of eighteen pounds, herein-before recommended to be paid by us to the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Dunham with the chapelries of Darlton and Ragnall annexed, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditaments should be conveyed or assigned to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

No. 1327.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property in the Parish of Llanarth, County of Cardigan, and Fishguard, County of Pembroke.

Gazetted 29th April 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the twenty-third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend William Clement Bowen, perpetual curate of the perpetual curacy of Llanstinan, in the county of Pembroke, and in the diocese of Saint David's, of the first part; the Reverend James Propert Williams, Clerk, subchanter of the cathedral church of Saint David's, patron of the said perpetual curacy, of the second part; the Right Reverend Connop, Lord Bishop of Saint David's, ordinary of the said perpetual curacy, of the third part; and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part; certain lands and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Llanarth, in the county of Cardigan, and in the parish of Fishguard, in the county of Pembroke, and particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became, and are now, vested in us, in fee simple for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

Gazetted 29th April 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating the Reverend Francis Thompson, incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Saint Giles, in the city of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, whose fees, dues, or other emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the said Act.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said Francis Thompson, as such incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished by reason of the constitution under the provisions of the said Act, of the district of Belmont, which has since become a new parish, under the provisions of the same Act, and that the assignment to the said Francis Thompson of the annual sum hereinafter mentioned would be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the said Francis Thompson, incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Saint Giles, in the city of Durham aforesaid, so long as he shall remain such incumbent and no longer, the annual sum of ten pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, by way of compensation for the loss of fees, dues, or other emoluments, sustained by him by reason of the formation of the district of Belmont, which has since become a new parish, as before mentioned.

"And we further recommend and propose, that payment of the said annual sum of ten pounds shall be held to commence as from the fifteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, being the day upon which a church, provided for the said new parish of Belmont, was consecrated, and from which day the incumbent of the same new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof, various offices which had theretofore been performed at the church of the said parish of Saint Giles, Durham, and also became entitled to retain for his own benefit the fees accruing therefrom.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures, relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

"SCHEDULE.

"All that piece or parcel of land situate in the parish of Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, containing by admeasurement two acres two roods and five perches, more or less, which said piece or parcel of land is bounded on the north-west in part by the public highway leading from Wimbledon to Putney, and in part by a road leading from the same public highway to lands belonging to the said John Augustus Beaumont, on the north-east in part by lands belonging to the said John Augustus Beaumont, and in part by a piece of land belonging to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, on the south-east in part by Wimbledon Churchyard, and on other part and on the south-west by a parish road leading from the above-mentioned highway to Wimbledon Church."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, hereditaments, and premises, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, hereditaments, and premises, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable,

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, hereditaments, and premises so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

No. 1335.

For substituting a Money Payment for certain Property belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church at Westminster.

Gazetted 29th April 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of April 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following, that is to say;

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the dean and chapter of the collegiate church at Westminster.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Acts enacted that by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the same Acts, any arrangements might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter of Westminster are seized in fee of certain lands, tithes, and hereditaments, situate in the parish of Castle Morton, in the county of Worcester, and particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, subject, nevertheless, to a subsisting lease thereof, bearing date the thirteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, granted for three lives, then aged respectively fourteen, fifteen, and twelve years, of whom only two now survive, at an annual reserved rent of ten pounds and ten shillings.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter are now entitled to grant a renewal of the said lease by the insertion therein of a best life, and it has been represented to us by the said dean and chapter that the lessee is desirous of taking such renewal, but that it is not expedient to grant the same.

"And whereas, after full inquiry and calculation, we have estimated the fine which ought to be paid for such renewal at the sum of one thousand five hundred and twenty-five pounds, and the sums which, after full stating the existing lease, the dean and chapter might have expected to have derived from the before-mentioned annual reserved rent, and from future fines upon renewals, as equivalent to an annuity of fifty pounds.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce to the improvement of the said fund that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments should be transferred from the said dean and chapter to us, and that a money payment to the said dean and chapter should forthwith be substituted for their interest in the same.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter have consented to accept a money payment accordingly, and that the same shall be the sum of one thousand five hundred and twenty-five pounds, being the amount of such fine as aforesaid, and also a perpetual annual payment of fifty pounds in respect of the sums which they might have expected to have received from fines on future renewals, and from the reserved rent herein-before mentioned, and thereupon to relinquish all further benefit by renewal of the said lease, or otherwise, in respect of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said dean and chapter of the collegiate church of Westminster testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seal, that the lands, tithes, and hereditaments, situate at Castle Morton aforesaid, and particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, and all the estate and interest of the said dean and chapter therein, shall, immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, become and be transferred to, and absolutely vested in us and our successors, subject to the now subsisting lease thereof, for the purposes of the said herein-before recited Acts, and that we and they shall thereupon become and be absolutely seised of the same, in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"And we further recommend and propose, that as part consideration for the transfer to us of such lands, tithes, and hereditaments as aforesaid, there shall, at the same time, be paid by us to the said dean and chapter the aforesaid sum of one thousand five hundred and twenty-five pounds, and that there shall, as a further consideration, be paid by us to the said dean and chapter the said perpetual annual sum of fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, the first of such half-yearly payments to be made on the twenty-ninth day of September next ensuing.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"Schedule.

"All that part of the impropriate rectory or parsonage of Longdon, lying and being within the parish of Morton Castle, otherwise Castle Morton, in the county of Worcester, together with all such part or parts of the glebe lands thereto belonging as lie within such parish; and also all that the tithe commutation, rentcharge, or annual sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, six shillings, and eightpence, arising within the said parish of Morton Castle, otherwise Castle Morton, which on the commutation of the tithes within such parish was assigned and allotted in lieu of the tithes belonging to the said rectory or parsonage arising therein; all which said lands, tithes, and hereditaments are now in the possession of John Wedgwood, his heirs, undertenants, or assigns, by virtue of a lease thereof granted on the thirteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, by the dean and chapter of the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster, to the said John Wedgwood, for three lives, then aged respectively fourteen, fifteen, and twelve years, subject to an annual reserved rent of ten pounds and ten shillings, and to the covenants contained in the said lease."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said John William Grier, as such perpetual curate or incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished by reason of the constitution under the provisions of the said Act of the District of Wollaston, which has since become a new parish, under the provisions of the same Act, and that the assignment to the said John William Grier, of the annual sum herein-after mentioned, would be a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"And whereas the grant herein-before proposed to be made to the benefice or church of Saint Peter

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any of the said benefices or churches, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or that any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

No. 1342.

For augmenting the Income of the Archdeaconry of Dorset, in the Diocese of Salisbury.

Gazetted 10th June 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty's reign, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for augmenting the income of the archdeaconry of Dorset, in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas by the first-recited Act it is enacted, that any archdeaconry may, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation, out of the common fund, in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, provided that no archdeacon shall be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation, or other emolument as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless he shall be resident, for the space of eight months in every year, within the diocese in which his archdeaconry is situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licenses for non-residence, which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices, by the Act relating to pluralities and the residence of the clergy in the same Act mentioned; and it is by the said first-recited Act further enacted, that upon the endowment of an archdeaconry being made under the provisions thereof, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments (except any right of patronage), belonging to such archdeaconry at the time of such endowment, may, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of any archdeacon in possession at the time of the passing of the same Act, and by the authority therein provided, be vested in us for the purposes of the same Act.

"And whereas by the secondly recited Act it is declared and enacted, that in the case of any archdeaconry which shall no longer be held by the archdeacon who was, at the time of the passing of the said first-recited Act, in possession thereof, the provisions of the same Act, which relate to the transfer to us of the estates of any archdeaconry upon its endowment, in either of the modes therein provided, shall be construed and held to authorize such transfer, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, and of the archdeacon in possession of the archdeaconry at the time.

"And whereas the said archdeaconry of Dorset is endowed by the annexation thereto of the rectory or parsonage of All Saints, Gussage, in the county of Dorset, with the lands, tithes, and hereditaments thereunto belonging, now demised upon a lease for lives, and it has been made to appear to us, that the average annual income of the said archdeaconry, arising from other sources, does not exceed the sum of eighty-five pounds.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Walter Kerr, Bishop of Salisbury, and of the Venerable Anthony Huxtable, the present archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Dorset, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the said common fund, to the said Anthony Huxtable, and his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same, and shall duly reside in accordance with the provisions of the said first-recited Act, the annual sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds, on the first day of January in every year, and every such whole yearly payment shall be made only on production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the bishop of the diocese for the time being, that the said Anthony Huxtable, or his successor for the time being in the said archdeaconry, has duly resided as aforesaid, during the preceding year, or on the production to us of a licence of non-residence, and that the first such yearly payment shall be made on the first day of January next, and that all lands, tenements, and hereditaments, whatsoever (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), now forming part of the endowment of the said archdeaconry of Dorset, shall forthwith be disannexed therefrom, and become and be absolutely transferred to and vested in us, subject to any existing lease or leases, grant or grants thereof, for the purposes of the said Acts, and that we shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from and after the first day of January now last past.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

"And, with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of Worcester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church, for the time being; provided always that so long as the Reverend Henry Clarke, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Northfield, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which shall be payable in respect of the performance of the before-mentioned offices at the said church of Saint Mary, at Selly Oak, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said Henry Clarke.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Selly Oak, being:—

No. 1344.

For substituting a Money Payment for certain Property belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Bristol.

Gazetted 10th June 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend Two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the Law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend Two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the Law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence;" have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the dean and chapter of the Cathedral Church of Bristol.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted and declared, that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first-recited Act, any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds, or in any other security or securities, in trust for any ecclesiastical body, corporate, aggregate, or sole, might, upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, and in the case of any chapter with the consent of the visitor thereof, be directed to be sold, and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose and in such manner as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate, and also that for any like purpose any arrangement might be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals, for or to the credit of or in trust for any bishop, dean and chapter, dean, or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise.

"And whereas the said chapter now consists of a dean and four canons, two canonries having been suspended under the provisions of the said first-recited Act.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter are seised in fee of certain manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, forming the endowment of the said chapter, the greater part of which have been heretofore demised or granted, and are now held on lease or grants for years or lives at small annual reserved rents and upon payment of fines, and they are also beneficially interested or otherwise entitled to certain sums of stock and cash invested or held in trust as aforesaid, and particularly specified and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that by reason of the great antiquity of the said cathedral church, and of the want of due reparation in times past, it has become necessary for the sustentation thereof to expend thereon forthwith such a sum of money as cannot be wholly charged on the parties now entitled to the receipt and enjoyment of the divisible corporate revenues of the said dean and chapter.

"And whereas we have ascertained that the sum so required to be expended in such repairs, and in effecting improvements conducive to the permanent security of the fabric of the said cathedral church, amounts to six thousand pounds or thereabouts.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Act is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and the said dean and chapter have proposed to us, with the consent of their visitor, that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements and hereditaments, stock and cash (except as herein-after excepted) should be dealt with in manner herein-after mentioned. And we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund as to the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter that the same should be dealt with accordingly.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bristol, and of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, as visitor of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose that all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, which now belong either in possession or reversion to the said dean and chapter (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, the premises of the said cathedral church, and the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B.), subject nevertheless to the liabilities and claims upon or in respect of the same manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, of or to which the said dean and chapter are now liable, and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter, shall, upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any such duly published Order, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become absolutely seised of the same in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance we shall surrender all right and be excluded from all participation in respect of the said suspended canonries to and in the estates and property to be retained by the said dean and chapter, or to be hereafter transferred to them as their permanent endowment and in the rents and profits thereof, or in the money payments herein-after mentioned, and that there shall be paid by us on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year, to the said dean and chapter until they shall have been put into possession of real estates as hereinafter mentioned, in respect of the half year then last past, the sum of three thousand three hundred and ninety pounds, and that the first such half-yearly payment shall be made on the first day of July next, and that the receipt or receipts of the receiver for the time being of the said dean and chapter shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us under the authority of this scheme when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that as a further consideration for the said transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid and expended by us in effecting such repairs of the said cathedral church and improvements as aforesaid, under the superintendence of and according to plans and specifications to be prepared by the architect of the said dean and chapter, and to be approved by us, the said sum of six thousand pounds together with interest thereon at the rate of three pounds per centum per annum from the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, for which due allowance has been made in fixing the amount of the annuity to be paid to the said dean and chapter as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that none of the monies or estates to be received or acquired by us under the provisions of this scheme, shall be applicable to the purposes of our common fund (except only so far as it may be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of this scheme) until or unless, by and under the like authority, the said dean and chapter shall have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates (of which not more than one-third part shall consist of tithe rentcharges) sufficient to secure to the said dean and chapter a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including costs of management) of six thousand seven hundred and eighty pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said dean and chapter and of their visitor, that the said sums of stock and cash so described as aforesaid in the said schedule marked A, and also any other sums of cash or stock which may be now invested or held in trust for the said dean and chapter, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold out or transferred, and the same or the proceeds thereof be paid or carried to our account at the Bank of England, to be applied towards the objects of this scheme, and particularly to investment in the purchase of any interest in the estates herein proposed to be transferred to us or any or either of them, or of any other real estates.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the said Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Greetland, in the parochial chapelry of Elland, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Greetland aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Ripon, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parochial chapelry of Elland described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Greetland.'

"And with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of Ripon, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Greetland, being :—

"All that part of the parochial chapelry of Elland, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parochial chapelry from the chapelry district of Saint Andrew, Stainland (heretofore part of the said parish of Halifax), at a point in the middle of Black Brook, and extending thence in a direction generally north-eastward along the middle of such brook to its junction with the River Calder, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such river as far as a point under the centre of the bridge which carries the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway over the same river, and which said part of the parochial chapelry aforesaid is situate to the south-west of another imaginary line commencing at the last-mentioned point under the centre of the railway bridge aforesaid, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such railway for a distance of six hundred yards, or thereabouts, to the point where the branch railway leading to Halifax diverges from the main line near the North Dean station, and extending thence in a straight line westward across North Dean Wood to a point in the middle of the northern end of Collin Lane ; and extending thence in a direction generally westward along the fence which forms the southern boundary of North Dean Wood aforesaid to the boundary in the middle of Mapledean Clough which divides the said parochial chapelry of Elland from the parochial chapelry of Sowerby Bridge, in the said parish of Halifax, at a point distant two hundred yards, or thereabouts, to the north-east of the centre of Clough Moor Bridge."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Greetland, in the parochial chapelry of Elland, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Greetland," be accordingly made ; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts ; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

No. 1348.

For constituting each of the Two Medieties or Portions of the Benefice and Rectory of Westbury, in the County of Salop and Diocese of Hereford (known respectively as Westbury in Dextrâ Parte and Westbury in Sinistrâ Parte), into a separate Benefice and Rectory.

Gazetted 10th June 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June 1862,

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting each of the two medieties or portions of the benefice and rectory of Westbury, in the county of Salop and in the diocese of Hereford (known respectively as Westbury in Dextrâ Parte and Westbury in Sinistrâ Parte), into a separate benefice and rectory.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Renn Dickson, Bishop of Hereford, acting under the provisions of the said Act, has framed and submitted to us a plan which is herein-after contained, and which is set forth at length as part and parcel of this scheme, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" Whereas by an Act passed in the session of Par" liament held in the third and fourth years of the " reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to " 'carry into effect, with certain modifications, the " 'Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesias" 'tical Duties and Revenues,' it is enacted that, with " respect to any parish in which both the profits and
" the spiritual charge are divided between two or " more incumbents, each having a mediety or portion " of the benefice, a plan may be framed by the bishop " of the diocese, with the consent of the patron, and
" so as not to prejudice the interests of any existing " incumbent, for constituting any of such portions
" separate benefices, and for making such other " arrangements as he may judge likely to promote " the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in such " parishes, and any such plan may be carried into " effect by the authority in the said Act provided :
" And whereas the parish of Westbury, in the county
" of Salop and diocese of Hereford, is a parish in " which both the profits and the spiritual charge
" thereof are divided between two incumbents, each
" having a portion of the benefice within the intent
" and meaning of the said Act, there being two " rectors separately instituted, each to a portion of " the said benefice, such two portions being respec" tively commonly designated by the names of " 'Westbury in Dextrâ Parte' and 'Westbury in " 'Sinistrâ Parte,' and the spiritual charge of the " said parish is divided between the said two por-
" tionists, so as to be a charge upon them jointly and " equally : And whereas the said parish of Westbury
" comprises the townships following, that is to say ;
" the township of Westbury, containing a population
" of 291 ; the township of Westley, Winsley, Lake,
" Hurst, and Hem, containing a population of 262 ;
" the townships of Cause, Wallop, and Forest, con" taining together a population of 123 ; the township
" of Marsh and Wigmore, containing a population of " 154 ; the township of Vennington, containing a " population of 163 ; the township of Whitton, con" taining a population of 59 ; the township of " Minsterley (in which a church was sometime since
" erected and endowed, and whereunto a separate
" district for ecclesiastical purposes, comprising the " whole of such township, was assigned, and consti" tuted a separate benefice having a separate incum" bent, the portionists of the said two portions having " no ministerial duties to perform in such district),
" containing a population of 988 ; the township of " Yockleton, containing a population of 220 ; the " township of Stony Stretton, containing a population
" of 205 ; and the township of Newton, containing a " population of 20 ; the aggregate population of the " whole parish (according to the last census), exclu" sive of the said township of Minsterley, being

" 1,497. And whereas the profits of the said benefice " are now divided and enjoyed between and by the " said two portionists in manner following, that is to " say : the commuted tithe rentcharge in each of the " said townships herein-before mentioned is equally " divided between the said two rectors, except that " the rector of Westbury in Dextrâ Parte receives " twenty-five pounds per annum more from the said " township of Westbury than the rector of Westbury " in Sinistrâ Parte, and the said rector of Westbury " in Dextrâ Parte enjoys separately the rectory house " and offices at Westbury, and also the glebe land " there, and the said rector of Westbury in Sinistrâ " Parte, enjoys separately a house of residence with " its appurtenances, recently erected in the said " township of Yockleton. And whereas the emolu- " ments arising from the said benefice are derived " from the commuted tithe rentcharge of the whole " parish of Westbury, and are of the estimated yearly " amount of one thousand three hundred and eighteen " pounds one shilling and fourpence, and the yearly " tenths, synodals, and other ecclesiastical charges " payable out of the said benefices, are paid by the said " two portionists in equal shares. And whereas " besides the parish church of Westbury, situate in " the said township of Westbury, which affords " accommodation for four hundred and twenty-five " persons, there is a newly-erected and consecrated " church in the said township of Yockleton, affording " accommodation for two hundred and forty persons. " And whereas it appears to me to be expedient and " likely to promote the efficient discharge of the " pastoral duties in the said parish of Westbury, that " each of the said two portions of the said parish and " benefice should be constituted a separate rectory " and benefice, in conformity with the provisions of " the said recited Act ; and it also appears to me that " the most convenient division and arrangement of the " said parish and benefice for such purpose would be " such as is herein-after mentioned. Now, therefore, " I, Renn Dickson, Bishop of Hereford, with the con- " sent of Edward William Smythe Owen, of Condover " Hall, in the said county of Salop, Esquire, patron " of the said two portions of the said parish of West- " bury, in testimony whereof he hath hereunto set " his hand and seal, and also with the consent of the " Reverend George Augustus Salusbury, clerk, rector " of the said rectory of Westbury in Dextrâ Parte, " and of the Reverend James Baldwyn Pugh, clerk, " rector of the said rectory of Westbury in Sinistrâ " Parte, testified in like manner, do hereby recom- " mend and propose that, immediately from and " after the day on which an Order of Her Majesty " in Council, ratifying any scheme which may be " passed by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for " England, for carrying into effect this plan, " shall have been duly published in the London " Gazette, the said two several portions of the said " parish of Westbury shall respectively become and " be separate benefices and rectories in manner fol- " lowing, that is to say :—that the said rectory of " Westbury in Dextrâ Parte shall become and be a " separate benefice and rectory by the name of 'The " Rectory of Westbury,' and shall comprise and " consist of the said townships of Westbury, Westley, " Winsley, Lake, Hurst, and Hem-Cause, Wallop " and Forest, Marsh and Wigmore, Vennington, and " Whitton (which lie contiguous to each other, " having distinct and known boundaries), and shall " have for its church the present parish church of " Westbury, and for the house of residence of its " rector the house of residence now belonging to " the incumbent of Westbury in Dextrâ Parte ; and " that the said rectory of Westbury in Sinistrâ Parte, " shall become in like manner a separate benefice and " rectory by the name of 'The Rectory of Yockleton,' " and shall comprise and consist of the said townships " of Yockleton, Stoney Stretton, and Newton (having " distinct and known boundaries), and shall have for " its church the said newly erected church at Yock- " leton aforesaid, and for the house of residence of its " rector the said recently erected house of residence " now belonging to the incumbent of Westbury in " Sinistrâ Parte.

" And whereas, having regard to the relative cir- " cumstances of each of the said two rectories, when " so constituted as aforesaid, it appears to me just " that the endowments of the said existing parish and " benefice should be divided between the incumbents " of such rectories, in the manner and proportions " herein-after mentioned, I therefore further recom- " mend and propose with the like consents, testified " as aforesaid, that there be assigned to the rector of " the said rectory of Westbury, so to be constituted as " aforesaid, and his successors in perpetuity, the glebe " lands at present belonging to the said rectory of " Westbury in Dextrâ Parte, together with all the " tithes and tithe rentcharges and income arising " from tithes of or within the townships of Westbury, " and Westley, Winsley, Lake, Hurst, and Hem ; and " also all the tithes and rentcharges arising from " tithes or portions of tithes or tithe rentcharges of " or within the said townships of Cause, Wallop and " Forest, Marsh and Wigmore, Vennington, Whitton, " and Minsterley, which are specified and set forth in " the first part of the schedule hereto annexed.

" And that inasmuch as the area of the said rectory " of Westbury, so to be constituted as aforesaid, will " be of much larger extent, and the population thereof " greater than that of the said rectory of Yockleton, " so to be constituted as aforesaid, and such dispro- " portion being unavoidable from the central position " of Westbury Church, and as the income of the said " rectory of Westbury, so to be constituted as afore- " said, will exceed the income of the said rectory of " Yockleton, so also to be constituted, by about one " hundred pounds per annum, I recommend and " propose that it shall at all times be incumbent and " obligatory on the rector of the said rectory of " Westbury for the time being to employ a curate, " at a proper annual stipend, to assist such rector " in the due performance of the ecclesiastical duties " of his benefice.

" And further, that there be assigned to the rector " of the said rectory of Yockleton, so to be constituted " as aforesaid, and his successors, in perpetuity, all " tithes, tithe rentcharges, and income arising from " tithes of or within the said townships of Yockleton, " Stoney Stretton, and Newton ; and also all the " tithes and rentcharges arising from tithes or por- " tions of tithes and tithe rentcharges of or within " the said townships of Cause, Wallop and Forest, " Marsh and Wigmore, Vennington, Whitton, and " Minsterley, which are specified and set out in the " second part of the schedule hereto annexed.

" And I further recommend and propose that the " rector of the said rectory of Westbury shall bear " and pay the tenths and all other ecclesiastical " charges now appertaining to the rector of the said " rectory of Westbury in Dextrâ Parte, and also the " whole burden of repair of the chancel of the parish " church of Westbury (which by law may now belong " to the rectors of the said two portions of the said " benefice respectively) ; and that the rector of the " said rectory of Yockleton shall bear and pay the " yearly tenths and all other ecclesiastical charges " now appertaining to the rector of the said rectory " of Westbury in Sinistrâ Parte (except such portion " of the burden of repair of the chancel of the parish " church of Westbury as may now by law belong to " the rector of the last-named rectory) and also the " whole burden of repair of the chancel of the said " newly erected parish church of Yockleton.

" And further, that the income of the said rectory " of Yockleton, when so constituted as aforesaid, may " and shall be exclusively charged with the repay- " ment of all money borrowed by mortgage for the " purpose of building the said recently erected rec- " tory house and offices at Yockleton, and that the " income of the said rectory of Westbury, when so " constituted as aforesaid, may and shall be wholly " freed and discharged from all obligation in respect " of the repayment of such mortgage money and " every part thereof.

" In witness whereof, I, the said bishop, have here- " unto set my hand and seal this fifteenth day of " February, in the year one thousand eight hundred " and sixty-two.

" The SCHEDULE above referred to.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Hereford, and now vested in us.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any part or parts of the said tithe rentcharge, lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Slape, in the Cathedral Church of Salisbury.

Gazetted 10th June 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Slape, in the cathedral church of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the eleventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, and duly published in the London Gazette on the seventeenth day of the same month, all lands, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant, but are now in possession; but on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture of assignment bearing date the fifth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and made or expressed to be made between Arthur Pott, of Bentham Hill, near Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, Esquire, and Elizabeth his wife, of the first part; Charles Pott and William Pott, both of Bridge Street, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, Esquires, of the second part; and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the third part; all and singular the pieces or parcels of ground, messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and premises particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, became and are vested in us for the remainder of the terms for lives granted by two several indentures of lease, bearing date respectively the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and the thirteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty, subject to the rents, covenants, and conditions of such indentures of lease, and to numerous underleases granted to several persons, of different parts thereof, which said pieces or parcels of ground, messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and premises, are situate in the parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark, in the said county of Surrey.

"And whereas applications have been made to us for the purchase of our interest in portions of the said pieces or parcels of ground, messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and premises.

"And whereas the said premises are in some respects unsuitable and inconvenient to be appropriated to any of the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed, and it is expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said recited Act, all our estate and interest in all or any of the said pieces or parcels of ground, messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and premises, comprised in the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, with the consent of the parties respectively interested therein under the said subleases (if any), unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to acquire the same estate and interest, and his, her, or their heirs and assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1353.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church called Christ Church, Clapham, in the County of Surrey and Diocese of Winchester.

Gazetted 10th June 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in the parish of Clapham, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Clapham aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Clapham described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Clapham.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles Richard, Bishop of Winchester, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Clapham, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Clapham, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the east of the new parish of Saint Paul, Clapham, in the same county and diocese ; and also to the east of an imaginary line commencing near the southern extremity of the eastern boundary of the said new parish at a point in the middle of Larkhall Lane, opposite to the middle of the northern end of Manor Street, and extending thence southward to and along the middle of such street to the boundary dividing the said parish of Clapham from the new parish of Saint John, Clapham, in the same county and diocese."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof ; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate in the parish of Clapham, in the county of Surrey, to be called "The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Clapham," be accordingly made ; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners, with reference to the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts ; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

Relating to the Endowment of the Archdeaconry of Coventry, in the Diocese of Worcester.

Gazetted 10th June 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June 1862,

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the endowment of the archdeaconry of Coventry, in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted that so soon as conveniently might be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), any archdeaconry might, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed, amongst other modes, by augmentation out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, but not so as to raise the average annual income thereof to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds, with a proviso that no archdeacon should be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation or other emolument, as such archdeacon under the provisions of the same Act, unless resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry should be situate, but subject to the same provisions as to licenses for non-residence which are enacted with respect to incumbents of benefices by the Act relating to pluralities and residence in the same Act mentioned.

"And whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and duly gazetted in the London Gazette of the twenty-ninth day of the same month and year, it was provided that, until the next vacancy of a canonry in the cathedral church of Worcester, there should be paid by us, out of the common fund, to the Archdeacon of Coventry for the time being, provided that he should duly reside within the diocese of Worcester, according to law, or should obtain licence of non-residence, the annual sum of one hundred and forty-two pounds, on the first day of November in every year.

"And whereas a canonry in the said cathedral church of Worcester has, since the passing of the above-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council, become vacant, but such canonry has not been annexed to the said archdeaconry of Coventry, and the above-mentioned annual grant has therefore ceased to be payable under the provisions of the said recited Order.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Worcester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that until the annexation of a canonry in the said cathedral church of Worcester to the said archdeaconry of Coventry, there shall continue to be paid by us, out of the said common fund, to the Venerable John Sandford, the present archdeacon of Coventry, and to his successors in the said archdeaconry, so long as he and they shall respectively hold the same and shall duly reside within the diocese according to law, or shall obtain licence of non-residence, the said annual sum of one hundred and forty-two pounds, on the first day of November in every year.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said archdeaconry, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

No. 1355.

For substituting a Money Payment for certain Property belonging to the Rectory of Wolsingham, in in the County and Diocese of Durham.

Gazetted 10th June 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of June, 1862.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-eight, intituled "The Stanhope and Wolsingham Rectories Act, 1858," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-eight, intituled 'The Stanhope and Wolsingham Rectories Act, 1858,' have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment for certain property belonging to the rectory of Wolsingham, in the county and diocese of Durham.

"Whereas by the provisions of the above-recited Act, it was (inter alia) enacted, that immediately upon the next vacation of the rectory of Wolsingham, the tithe or tenth of lead ore, now belonging to the said rectory of Wolsingham, should become absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us; and that there should thereupon be paid by us, in perpetuity, out of our common fund, to the rector for the time being of the rectory of Wolsingham, such an annual sum as, together with the other then existing endowments of the said rectory at the time of the next vacancy thereof (except surplice fees), should make up an annual income of one thousand pounds; and that the amount of such existing annual endowments should be ascertained and determined by us with the concurrence of the Bishop of Durham for the time being, and a certificate of the amount thereof, under our common seal and the episcopal seal of the said bishop, should be registered in the registry of the see of Durham.

"And whereas it was by the same Act provided, that by the authority therein mentioned (that is to say by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and with the consent of the then rector of Wolsingham), an arrangement might be made at any time before the next avoidance of such rectory, for immediately carrying into effect the above-recited enactments.

"And whereas the Reverend Charles Duberly was appointed to the rectory of Wolsingham previously to the passing of the above-recited Act, and is still the rector thereof, and it has been agreed between us and the said Charles Duberly, and it appears to be desirable that the provisions of the above-recited Act, so far as they affect the rectory of Wolsingham, should be immediately carried into effect.

"And whereas a certificate, bearing date the eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, of the amount of the annual income arising from the existing endowments of the said rectory of Wolsingham (exclusive of the said tithe of lead ore and surplice fees), prepared in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act, has been sealed with the episcopal seal of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham, the bishop of the diocese wherein the rectory of Wolsingham is situate, and with the common seal of us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and has been duly registered in accordance with the provisions of the said recited Act in the registry of the see of Durham.

"And whereas the annual income of the said rectory of Wolsingham, as specified in such certificate, amounts to seven hundred pounds and no more.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Duberly, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all the tithe or tenth of lead ore now belonging to the said Charles Duberly as rector of the said rectory, or to or in which he has or ought to have, as such rector, any estate, right, title, or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest, be, and be held to be, for the consideration herein-after mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Charles Duberly and his successors in the said rectory to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the said Act, and that we shall be entitled to the profits and proceeds thereof as from the first day of January now last past; and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us to the said Charles Duberly and his successors in the said rectory an annual sum of three hundred pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first Day of November in every year, and that the first such half-yearly payment shall be made on the first day of November next, such annual payment of three hundred pounds making up, together with the income of seven hundred pounds specified in the certificate aforesaid, the annual income of one thousand pounds named in the said recited Act as the future income of the rector, for the time being, of the rectory of Wolsingham.

"And we further recommend and propose that a proportionate part of one such half-yearly payment, calculated in respect of the period which elapsed between the said first day of January last (from which day we are to be entitled to the receipt of the rents, profits, and other proceeds arising from the property to be transferred to us), and the first day of May last (from which day the half-yearly payment to be made by us on the first day of the month of November next will begin to accrue), shall be made immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-second day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at Bishopston, in the parish of Horfield, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Horfield, of the parish of Stapleton, in the same county and diocese, and of the new parish of Saint Andrew, Montpelier, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes and new parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Horfield, of the said parish of Stapleton, and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Montpelier, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at Bishopston aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, as bishop of the diocese, and as patron in right of his see of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Horfield, and of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Montpelier, and also with the consent of Sir John Henry Greville Smyth, of Ashton Court, in the county of Somerset, Baronet, patron of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Stapleton (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Horfield, of the said parish of Stapleton, and of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Montpelier, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at Bishopston aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bishopston,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said William, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors, bishops of the same see, for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bishopston, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Horfield, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Westbury-upon-Trym, in the same county and diocese, at a point opposite to a boundary stone, inscribed 'B. St. M. and A. A. C. C., 1862, No. 1,' and placed at the western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 33 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Horfield, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 34 upon the same maps, and extending thence north-eastward to such boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the said fence, and of the fence dividing the close numbered 37 upon the said maps from the close numbered 36 upon the same maps, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain lane leading from the said close numbered 36 to Horfield Common, and extending thence still in the same direction to and along the middle of such lane for a distance of four hundred and fifty-three yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. St. M. and A. A. C. C., 1862, No. 2,' and placed on the eastern side of the said lane, at the northern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 59 upon the said maps from the close numbered 55 upon the same maps, and extending thence southward to the last described boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the last described fence to its junction with the fence dividing the close numbered 56 upon the said maps from the close numbered 55 as aforesaid, and extending thence in a direction generally south-eastward along the middle of the last described fence, and of the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 44 and 45 upon the said maps from the close numbered 55 as aforesaid, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern extremity of the last-mentioned fence, in the middle of the occupation road which leads from the close numbered 24 upon the said maps to the Gloucester and Bristol turnpike road, and extending thence in the last-mentioned direction along the middle of the last described occupation road to a point in the middle of the Gloucester and Bristol turnpike road aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said turnpike road, for a distance of forty-four yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 281 upon the said maps from the close and premises numbered 280 upon the same maps, and extending thence first south-eastward to and along the middle of the last described fence, and then north-eastward along the middle of the same fence to its junction with the fence dividing the said close numbered 281 from the close numbered 279 upon the aforesaid maps, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned fence to the boundary dividing the said parish of Horfield from the parish of Stapleton, in the same county and diocese.

"And also all that portion of the said parish of Stapleton which is situate to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the said parish of Horfield, at a point in the middle of the stream which divides the close numbered 212 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Stapleton, and upon the said map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 211 upon the same maps, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such stream as far as a point (near the Boiling Wells) opposite to the north-eastern extremity of the fence which divides the said close numbered 212 from the close numbered 245 upon the said maps, and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of such fence, and of the fence which divides the close numbered 213 upon the said maps from the aforesaid close numbered 245, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of an occupation road which leads from the last-mentioned close to the road leading to Ashley Court, and extending thence first south-eastward to the middle of such occupation road, and then south-westward along the middle of the same occupation road to the boundary in the middle of the road leading to Ashley Court aforesaid, which divides the said parish of Stapleton from the new parish of Saint Andrew, Montpelier, in the same county and diocese.

"And also all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Montpelier, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the west of an imaginary line extending along the middle of a certain stream flowing towards the River Frome in a course on the eastern side of and nearly parallel to the Gloucester and Bristol turnpike road aforesaid, and originally forming part of the boundary between the said parish of Horfield and the parish of Saint Paul, Bristol, and all which same portion of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Montpelier, heretofore formed part of the parish of Horfield aforesaid."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels, situate at Bishopston, in the parish of Horfield, in the county of Gloucester, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church shall belong to and be exercised by the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors, Bishops of the same see, for ever; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and at Gloucester.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property in the Parishes of Holmer, Burghill, and Hampton Bishop, in the County of Hereford.

Gazetted 22d July 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of July 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and duly published in the London Gazette on the ninth day of the same month and year, all lands, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging to the prebend of Huntington (except rights of patronage) became absolutely vested in us, subject to the then subsisting lease thereof, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and made or expressed to be made between Anne Isabella Petrie Price, late of Huntington Court, in the county of Hereford, widow of Fowler Price, late of the same place, Esquire, deceased, and now of Versailles, in the kingdom of France, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, the outstanding leasehold interest in the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, together with the fee simple in possession in certain other lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate in the parishes of Holmer, Burghill, and Hampton Bishop, in the county of Hereford, and particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, became and are now vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, or some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

No. 1359.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Salisbury.

Gazetted 22d July 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of July 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the dean and chapter of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and another Act of the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, and bearing date the eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette on the fifteenth day of the same month, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter of Salisbury (excepting certain portions thereof in such Order particularly excepted), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce, during the subsistence of such grants and leases only, small annual revenues; and on that account, and, in some instances, on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees, holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, lately belonging to the said dean and chapter of Salisbury (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said dean and chapter shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, and as will secure a net annual income of four thousand two hundred pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council of the eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one), and for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, heretofore belonging to the said Dean and Chapter of Salisbury, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in certain Parishes and Districts.

Gazetted 22d July 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of July 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas the several benefactions, consisting of sums of cash or stock, or of tithe rentcharges, or other hereditaments, which are mentioned in the fourth column of the schedule hereunto annexed, have been paid over to us in favour of, or have been otherwise secured to the several benefices set forth in the first column of the same schedule respectively, upon condition that certain capital sums herein-after mentioned should be appropriated by us to the said several benefices respectively; and upon further condition that, in respect of such of the said benefactions as consist of cash, or of Government stock, or such part or parts thereof as shall, from time to time, remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the incumbents for the time being of the said benefices respectively, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, the yearly sums respectively specified and set forth in the sixth column of the same schedule, or a proportionate part of each of such annual sums.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered to appropriate out of the 'common fund' created by the herein firstly-mentioned Act, to each of the several benefices specified in the first column of the said schedule hereunto annexed respectively, the capital sum set against the name of each such benefice in the fifth column of the same schedule, and that such capital sums respectively, or any part or parts thereof, may be paid and applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition for such livings respectively, or any one or more of them, of any land, tithe, or other hereditaments which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation to such benefices respectively, or towards defraying the cost of providing suitable parsonage houses for the same, and that in the meantime there shall be allowed and paid by us by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, to the incumbents for the time being of the said several benefices respectively, in respect of such capital sums, or of such part or parts thereof as shall remain, from time to time, unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the several yearly sums specified in the seventh column of the said schedule, and therein set against the names of the said several benefices respectively, or such parts of the said several yearly sums respectively as shall bear a proportion to the parts of the said several capital sums last mentioned, so remaining unapplied as aforesaid, corresponding with the proportion or proportions which the amounts of the said several yearly payments respectively bear to the amounts of the said respective capital sums so specified in the fifth column as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following ; that is to say :

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate at Chorlton-upon-Medlock, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for and annexed to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, at Chorlton-upon-Medlock aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the new parish of Saint Saviour, Chorlton-upon-Medlock (heretofore part of the said parish of Manchester), which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is also delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said new parish of Saint Saviour, Chorlton-upon-Medlock, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint Paul, at Chorlton-upon-Medlock aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and be named 'The District of Saint Paul, Chorlton-upon-Medlock.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Paul, Chorlton-upon-Medlock, being :—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint Saviour, Chorlton-upon-Medlock, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such new parish from the new parish of Saint Luke, Chorlton-upon-Medlock, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of Upper Brook Street, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such street to the point where it is intersected by Brunswick Street ; and all which said portion of the new parish of Saint Saviour, Chorlton-upon-Medlock aforesaid, is also situate to the north-west of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point where Upper Brook Street is intersected by Brunswick Street as aforesaid, and extending thence, generally north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to the boundary dividing such new parish from the new parish of Saint Thomas, Ardwick, in the same county and diocese, in the middle of the Stockport and London turnpike road."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and patron of the church of the new parish of Saint Saviour, Chorlton-upon-Medlock, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and patron has signified his consent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 22d July 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of July 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Pancras herein-after mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district, in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Pancras described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Jude, Gray's Inn Road.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Jude, Gray's Inn Road, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line extending along the middle of Judd Street."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and patrons have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property in the Parish of Sandon and County of Hertford.

Gazetted 22d July 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of July 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property now vested in us.

"Whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and made or expressed to be made between Henry Green Robinson, of Buntingford, in the county of Hertford, plumber and glazier, the eldest son and heir-at-law of William Robinson, late of Chipping, in the said county, publican, deceased, of the first part; William Field Butler, of Royston, in the county of Cambridge, draper, of the second part; John George Fordham, of Royston, in the said county of Hertford, Esquire, of the third part; and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part, certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate in the parish of Sandon, in the county of Hertford, and particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed, became and are now vested in us in fee simple for the purposes, and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE.

"All that close of pasture land called 'Holland Close,' containing by estimation two acres (more or less), situate at Greenend, in the parish of Sandon, in the county of Hertford, adjoining to Moor Mead on the north, to a meadow now or lately belonging to Mr. King Fordham on the east, to a wood now or lately belonging to Mary, the widow of Mr. George Fordham, on the south, and to Sayfield on the west; together with the twelve messuages or tenements erected and built thereon, and now or late in the several and respective occupations of George Greaves, John Barnes, James Foster, George Hills, H. Shambrook, L. Hathett, J. Shambrook, T. H. Wood, J. Clarke, E. Larman, W. Larman, and E. Fisher, or their respective assigns or under-tenants, with their and every of their rights, members, and appurtenances."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.

No. 1367.

For assigning certain Lands and Hereditaments as an Endowment for the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of York.

Gazetted 25th July 1862.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of July 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments, as an endowment for the dean and chapter of the cathedral and metropolitical church of Saint Peter at York.

"Whereas, under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, and an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and an Act of the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty, chapter twenty-six; and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the authority of such provisions, bearing date the eighteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the tenth day of September following, in consideration of an annual money payment of four thousand four hundred and ten pounds, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments theretofore belonging either in possession or reversion to the said dean and chapter (except certain portions thereof, in the above-mentioned Order particularly excepted, and certain other property specified in an Order of Your Majesty in Council, dated the eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the sixteenth day of the same month), and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter, became vested in us.

"And whereas it was by the firstly above-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council provided that none of the moneys or estates received or acquired under the provisions thereof should be applicable to the purposes of our common fund, except only so far as it might be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout, under the provisions of such Order, until or unless, by or under the like authority, the said dean and chapter should have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates, sufficient to secure to them the said annual income of four thousand four hundred and ten pounds, clear of all charges and outgoings on and from such estates, except costs of management.

"And whereas the said dean and chapter have signified to us their willingness to accept as their permanent endowment the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, which are now vested in us in fee simple in possession, and the same are in our opinion convenient to be held as the permanent endowment of the said chapter, and are calculated to produce as nearly as may be the above-mentioned net annual income of four thousand four hundred and ten pounds.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral and metropolitical church of Saint Peter at York, testified by their having hereunto affixed their corporate seal, we humbly recommend and propose that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than such duly published Order, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all the right, title, estate, and interest therein, together with all tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes arising thereout, or charged thereupon, and the benefit of the perpetual land tax (if any) charged upon the same premises, shall be assigned as the endowment of the dean and chapter of York, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the said dean and chapter in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said dean and chapter, and that they shall become and be absolutely entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of such lands, tenements, and hereditaments as from the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the money payments heretofore payable by us under the provisions of the herein-before recited Order of Your Majesty in Council, of the eighteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, shall as from the said sixth day of April last cease and determine.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Arthur Helps.

No. 1368.

For constituting the District of Saint Michael, Shoreditch, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 8th August 1862.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of August 1862,

PRESENT;

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, herein-after mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel, in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district, in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts.

"And whereas a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds New Three Pounds per centum Annuities, has been contributed and transferred to our account, and into our name, in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by Robert Brett, of Stoke Newington, in the said county of Middlesex, Surgeon, in aid of the maintenance of the minister for the time being of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and we have, in respect thereof, agreed with the said Robert Brett, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, the yearly sum of seventy-five pounds.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that, in consideration of the transfer of the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds New Three Pounds per centum Annuities as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned to the said Robert Brett, his heirs and assigns, in manner herein-after recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Michael, Shoreditch."

"And we further recommend and propose that, in order to making up the endowment of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, contemplated by the said herein secondly-mentioned Act, and in respect of the local claim upon the hereditaments and premises herein-before mentioned, there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund created by the said herein firstly-mentioned Act, in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the said herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of seventy-five pounds, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister of the said district, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament, should be conveyed or secured to such minister and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by the said Robert Brett, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Michael, Shoreditch, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line extending along the middle of Old Street Road, and to the west of another imaginary line extending along the middle of Curtain Road."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted should be taken, and such incumbent and patron have respectively consented thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Stanningley, in the parochial chapelry of Bramley, within the parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Stanningley aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of Ripon, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parochial chapelry of Bramley described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Stanningley.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of Ripon, testified as aforesaid, we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Atlay, Doctor in Divinity, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which shall be received in respect of the said performance of marriages in the church of Saint Thomas aforesaid shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said James Atlay.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

St. T. D. C. 1862, No. 1,' and placed upon the northern side of such road, and extending thence eastward for a distance of two hundred and twenty yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the same road to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of a certain footpath, leading to the cross road known as either 'Pudsey Lane,' or 'Hough Lane,' which leads from Hough End, past Warren House, to Swinnow Lane, and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the said footpath to a point in the middle of the last-described cross road, and extending thence, first south-westward along the middle of such cross road, and then north-westward along the middle of the same road to its junction with Swinnow Lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same lane, crossing the Leeds, Bradford, and Halifax Junction branch of the Great Northern Railway, to a point in the middle of the Wortley, Armley, and Bramley Trust Road, and extending thence north-westward for a distance of six hundred and ninety-three yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-mentioned road, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of a certain footpath leading past the western side of the house and premises called West Fields to the old Leeds and Bradford turnpike road, otherwise called 'Broad Lane,' and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described footpath to a point in the middle of the old turnpike road aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of fifty-five yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of such road to a point where it is crossed by a certain footpath leading from Beecroft Hill to the Leeds and Halifax Trust Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described footpath to a point in the middle of the Leeds and Halifax Trust Road aforesaid, distant eleven yards, or thereabouts, north-east of the fifth milestone from Leeds, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such road to the point where it is intersected by White Cote Hill Lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said lane to a point in the middle of Coal Hill Lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane and across the Shipley and Bramley Trust Road to a boundary stone inscribed 'S. St. T. D. C. 1862, No. 2,' and placed on the northern side of the last-mentioned road, opposite to the middle of the northern end of Coal Hill Lane aforesaid, and continuing thence, still north-eastward, and in a straight line (crossing the Leeds and Liverpool canal) to a boundary stone inscribed 'S. St. T. D. C. 1862, No. 3,' and placed on the southern bank of the River Aire, and extending thence, still in the same direction, to the boundary in the middle of such river, which divides the said parochial chapelry of Bramley from the parochial chapelry of Horsforth, in the parish of Guiseley, and in the county and diocese aforesaid."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Stanningley, in the parochial chapelry of Bramley, within the parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, in the county of York, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Stanningley," be accordingly made; and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ripon.

For constituting the District of Saint Mary, Charterhouse, out of the Parish of Saint Luke, Old Street, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 8th August 1862.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Luke Old Street, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and out of the particular district of Saint Thomas Charterhouse, heretofore part of the said parish of Saint Luke, Old Street.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the portions of the said parish of Saint Luke, Old Street, and of the said particular district of Saint Thomas Charterhouse, which are herein-after mentioned and described, such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district, in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Luke, Old Street, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that all those portions of the said parish of Saint Luke, Old Street, and of the said particular district of Saint Thomas Charterhouse, which are described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mary Charterhouse.'

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the sum of two hundred pounds, and that so soon as a church shall have been built within such district, and shall have been duly approved by us and consecrated as the church of such district, and for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us in each and every year to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish the further sum of one hundred pounds, making together the annual sum of three hundred pounds; and that the said sums of two hundred pounds and one hundred pounds respectively shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first of each of such respective payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister, or of the approval and consecration of such church as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or incumbency of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed or secured to such minister or perpetual curate and his successors in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mary Charterhouse, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Luke, Old Street, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate to the south-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the particular district of Saint Thomas Charterhouse (heretofore part of the said parish of Saint Luke, Old Street) at a point in the middle of Old Street, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of Whitecross Street; and which said portion of such parish is also situate to the south-west of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point opposite to the middle of the northern end of Whitecross Street as aforesaid, and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of such street as far as the boundary dividing the parish of Saint Luke, Old Street, from the particular district of Saint Thomas Charterhouse as aforesaid. And also, all that portion of the said particular district of Saint Thomas Charterhouse which is situate to the east of an imaginary line extending along the middle of Golden Lane."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the parish and particular district, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and one calendar month has expired since the date at which the draft of the said scheme was so transmitted, and no objections have been made by such incumbents or patrons.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law, immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

EDMUND HARRISON.

No. 1371.

For authorizing the Exchange and Substitution of certain Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments now belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and also a Money Payment, for certain other Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments now belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedal Church of Canterbury.

Gazetted 8th August 1862.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to alter and amend the law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence;' have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the exchange and substitution of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments now belonging to us, and also a money payment, for certain other lands, tenements, and hereditaments now belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral and metropolitical church of Christ, Canterbury.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted and declared, that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us and ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first-recited Act, any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds, or in any other security or securities, in trust for any ecclesiastical body, corporate, aggregate, or sole, might, upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, and in the case of any chapter with the consent of the visitor thereof, be directed to be sold, and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose, and in such manner as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate; and also, that for any like purpose, any arrangement might be made, with the consent, in writing, under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals, for or to the credit of, or in trust for any bishop, dean and chapter, dean or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise.

"And whereas the said chapter now consists of a dean and six canons, six canonries having been suspended under the provisions of the said first-recited Act.

"And whereas the dean and chapter are seized in fee of certain manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, the greater part of which manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments have been heretofore demised or granted, and are now held on leases or grants for years or lives at small annual reserved rents and upon payment of fines.

"And whereas we are seized in fee simple of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A., which lands, tenements, and hereditaments are now in possession.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that, by reason of the great antiquity of the said cathedral church, and of the want of due reparation in times past, it has become necessary for the due sustentation thereof to expend thereon forthwith such a sum of money as cannot be wholly charged on the parties now entitled to the receipt and enjoyment of the divisible corporate revenues of the said dean and chapter.

"And whereas we have ascertained that the sum so required to be forthwith expended in such repairs and in effecting improvements conducive to the permanent security of the fabric of the said cathedral church, in addition to the amount which can be fairly defrayed out of the annual capitular revenues, amounts to twenty thousand pounds, or thereabouts.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls; and the said dean and chapter have proposed to us, with the consent of their visitor, that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments so belonging to them as aforesaid should be dealt with in manner herein-after mentioned, and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund as to the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter that the same should be dealt with accordingly.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral and metropolitical church of Christ, Canterbury, and of the Right Honourable and most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, as visitor of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose, that all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments which now belong, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, the cathedral church, and the precincts thereof, and the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B.), together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereupon, which has been redeemed, subject nevertheless to the liabilities and claims upon or in respect of the same manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments of, or to which the said dean and chapter are now liable, and subject also to the special liabilities and payments set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked C. And all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter shall, upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than any such duly published Order, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become absolutely seized of the same in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof as from the twenty-ninth day of September now last past, and that in consideration of, and for such transfer and conveyance, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A., together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereon, which has been redeemed, and all our estate and interest therein shall, upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than any such duly published Order, become and be transferred to and vested in the said dean and chapter for ever, in as full and ample a manner as if such estates had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said dean and chapter, subject to any liabilities to which the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments are now subject or legally liable; and that they, the said dean and chapter, shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof as from the said twenty-ninth day of September last, and that, in further consideration of, and for such transfer and conveyance, we shall surrender all right and be excluded from all participation in respect of the said suspended canonries, to and in the estates and property to be retained by the said dean and chapter, or to be hereby or hereafter transferred to them as part of their permanent endowment, and in the rents and profits thereof, or in the money payments herein-after mentioned, and that there shall be paid by us on the first day of April and the first day of October in every year to the said dean and chapter, until they shall have been put into possession of real estates, as herein-after mentioned, in respect of the half-year then last past, the sum of two thousand eight hundred and fifty pounds, which annual money payments, or the rents, profits, and proceeds of the estates to be hereafter assigned in lieu thereof, together with the rents, profits, and proceeds of the property to be retained by and to be hereby assigned to the said dean and chapter, are to be appropriated by the said dean and chapter to the sustentation of the fabric, and the maintenance of the services of the church, and all other the capitular expenses of the said dean and chapter, and also to provide the incomes intended to be secured to the deans and canons respectively, under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and duly published in the London Gazette on the first day of September following, in full substitution of, and for the arrangements for regulating such incomes by such Order directed to be made.

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall also be paid by us, to the said dean and chapter, on the first day of April and the first day of October in every year, during the life of the Honourable Daniel Finch, the present auditor of the said dean and chapter, a sum of one hundred pounds (such last-mentioned sum to be by them appropriated and paid to the said Daniel Finch, in respect of the profits which would have accrued to him on account of the management of the estates hereby proposed to be transferred to us), and that the first of both such half-yearly payments, in respect of the period which elapsed between the said twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and the first day of April now last past, shall be made immediately on the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme.

"And we further recommend and propose that, as the consideration for the loss which the said dean and chapter have incurred, by having abstained from renewing certain leases of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments hereby proposed to be transferred to us, which became renewable prior to the said twenty-ninth day of September last, there shall, immediately upon the publication of such Order as aforesaid, be paid by us to the said dean and chapter a sum of four thousand and two hundred pounds, and that the receipt or receipts of the treasurer, for the time being, of the said dean and chapter, shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us, under the authority of this scheme, when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that, as a further consideration for the said transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid and expended by us, towards defraying the cost of effecting such repairs of the said cathedral church and improvements as aforesaid, under the superintendence of, and according to plans and specifications to be prepared by the architect of the said dean and chapter, and to be approved by us, the said sum of twenty thousand pounds, together with interest thereon, at the rate of three pounds per cent. per annum, from the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, for which due allowance has been made in fixing the amount of the annuity to be paid to the said dean and chapter as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that none of the monies or estates, to be received or acquired by us under the provisions of this scheme (excepting the manors of Walworth and Fauxhall, in the county of Surrey, and such of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid as are situate or arise within the several parishes of Saint Mary, Newington, Saint Mary, Lambeth, and Streatham, in the said county of Surrey, or elsewhere within either of the said manors), shall be applicable to the purposes of our common fund (except only so far as it may be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout, under the provisions of this scheme), until, or unless by and under the like authority, the said dean and chapter shall have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates, sufficient to secure to the said dean and chapter a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, excepting agency and costs of management,) of five thousand and seven hundred pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said dean and chapter and of their visitor, that any sums of stock and cash which may be now invested or held in trust for the said dean and chapter, or which have been or shall hereafter be paid, or are or shall be payable into the Court of Chancery or to trustees, for or on account of the said dean and chapter, except the sums of stock and cash specified in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked D., which last-mentioned sums are to be retained by, and to form part of the permanent endowment of the said dean and chapter, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold out or transferred, and the same, or the proceeds thereof, be paid or carried to our account at the Bank of England, to be applied towards the objects of this scheme, and particularly to investment in the purchase of any interest in the estates herein proposed to be transferred to us, or any or either of them, or of any other real estates.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE A.

No. 1372.

For making better Provision for the Cure of Souls in the new Parish of Christ Church, Stratford Marsh, in the County of Essex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 8th August 1862.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Christ Church, Stratford Marsh, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the church of the said new parish of Christ Church, Stratford Marsh, is in the patronage of the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of West Ham, in the above-mentioned county and diocese.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the church of the said new parish is at present ill-endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said new parish.

"And whereas a sum of four hundred pounds, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by Peter Freeland Aiken, of the city of Bristol, banker, and the Reverend Frederic Vaughan Mather, incumbent of the church of Saint Paul, at Clifton, in the county of Gloucester, upon the understanding that there should be paid by us, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish of Christ Church, Stratford Marsh, the annual sum of twelve pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, and that the arrangement relating to the patronage of the said new parish herein-after mentioned should be recommended by us to Your Majesty in Council.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and of the Reverend Abel John Ram, the present vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of West Ham (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Stratford Marsh, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, be assigned to and absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the said Abel John Ram, by the Reverend William Weldon Champneys, canon residentiary of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, by Joseph Somes, of Muswell Hill, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, by Thomas Fowell Buxton, of Leytonstone, in the said county of Essex, Esquire, and by Raymond Pelly, of Plashet House, East Ham, in the said county of Essex, Esquire, their heirs and assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

No. 1373.

As to the Assignment of a District Chapelry to the Church of Saint Andrew, Leicester, in the County of Leicester and Diocese of Peterborough.

Gazetted 8th August 1862.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of Peterborough, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Leicester.'

"And with the like consent of the said George, Bishop of Peterborough, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend James Noble Bennie, the present incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, shall continue to be such incumbent, all the fees which shall be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the said church of Saint Andrew shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said James Noble Bennie.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Leicester, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, from the parish of Aylestone, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Aylestone Road; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such road to its junction with Welford Road; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road (following in part the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Leicester from the particular district of the Holy Trinity, Leicester, in the same county and diocese) as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of York Street; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such street to a point in the middle of Oxford Street; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street as far as a point opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of Bonner's Lane; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such lane, and continuing in the same direction along the middle of Mill Lane to a point in the centre of the bridge which carries the last-named lane over the Union Canal; and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of such canal to its junction with the river Soar; and continuing thence in the last-mentioned direction along the middle of the main stream of the said river as far as the boundary dividing the parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, from the parish of Aylestone, as aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along such boundary as far as the point in the middle of the Aylestone Road aforesaid, at which the said imaginary line commenced."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof; and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Leicester, in the county of Leicester, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Leicester," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Peterborough.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Sutton, in the cathedral church of Chichester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, by the decease of the Reverend Peter Wood, the then prebendary of the said prebend of Sutton, all the lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are subject to a beneficial lease, and produce during the subsistence of such lease only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account, and partly on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and, accordingly, that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any) to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Sutton, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

No. 1375.

For authorizing the Sale and Disposal of certain Property formerly belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Bristol.

Gazetted 8th August 1862.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the dean and chapter of Bristol, and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and another Act of the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made under the provisions of the said Acts, bearing date the seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and duly published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments then belonging, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter of Bristol (excepting certain portions thereof in the said Order particularly excepted), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce, during the subsistence of such grants and leases, only small annual revenues; and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the appropriation of such portions of the aforesaid manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments lately belonging to the said dean and chapter of Bristol (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the said dean and chapter, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said dean and chapter, and as will secure a net annual income of six thousand seven hundred and eighty pounds (being the income contemplated by the above-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council of the seventh day of June now last past), and for that purpose as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, heretofore belonging to the said dean and chapter of Bristol, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several Registries of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and Gloucester.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of August, 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas the patronage of the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear and the right of nominating a minister to serve the church of such parochial chapelry is at present vested in Henry Chaytor, of Witton Castle, in the said county of Durham, Esquire.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the church of the said parochial chapelry is insufficiently endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the limits of the same parochial chapelry.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear have become vested in us, under the provisions of, and for the purposes of, the herein-mentioned Act.

"And whereas the said Henry Chaytor is willing that the alteration in the exercise of the patronage of the church of the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear, herein-after recommended and proposed, should be made upon the understanding that the income of the cure should be augmented by us as is herein-after also recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Durham, and of the said Henry Chaytor (testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any other conveyance or assurance in the law, the right of patronage of the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear, and the right of nominating and presenting a minister to serve the church thereof, shall be exercised alternately by the said Henry Chaytor, his heirs, or assigns, and by Your Majesty and Your successors, in right of the Crown, the first nomination of a minister to serve the same church, which shall occur next after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, to belong to and be exercised by the said Henry Chaytor, his heirs or assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said parochial chapelry of Witton-le-Wear, when duly licensed, the annual sum of one hundred and eighty-eight pounds by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each year, and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November (as the case may be) next following the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid: Provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent or minister of the said parochial chapelry, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed and secured to such incumbent or minister, and his successors in fee, nothing herein, or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

"And whereas the grants which are herein-before recommended to be made to the benefices or churches of Barmby Moor; Saint James, Curtain Road, London; and Sandon; are so recommended by us with special reference to and in compliance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the several grants which are herein-before recommended to be made to the said lastly-mentioned benefices or churches shall commence and take effect as from the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, being the day on which the said secondly-mentioned Act received Your Majesty's assent.

"And whereas the grant which is herein-before recommended to be made to the benefice or church of Dinnington is so recommended by us, in respect of the reserved rent accruing under the lease of property which became vested in us by the death of the late chancellor of the said cathedral church of York, on the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the grant which is herein-before recommended to be made to the said benefice or church of Dinnington shall commence and take effect as from the last-mentioned date.

"And whereas the grant which is herein-before recommended to be made to the benefice of Firbeck-cum-Letwell is so recommended by us, in respect of property which became vested in us by the expiration of a lease, on or about the eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

"And whereas the grant which is herein-before recommended to be made to the benefice or church of Llanfair Talhaiarn is so recommended by us, in respect of property which became vested in us by the expiration of a lease, on or about the tenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the grants respectively so recommended by us as last-mentioned shall in each case commence and take effect as from the dates of the expiration of such leases respectively; that is to say, that the grant herein-before recommended to be made to the said benefice of Firbeck-cum-Letwell shall commence and take effect as from the said eleventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and that the grant herein-before recommended to be made to the said benefice of Llanfair Talhaiarn shall commence and take effect as from the said tenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"And whereas the grant which is herein-before recommended to be made to the benefice of Hilden-borough is so recommended by us, with special reference to certain circumstances similar to those under which the grants ratified by the Order of Your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-third day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, were recommended to be made by us, and a proposal to make such grant so herein recommended to be made to the said benefice of Hildenborough would have been included in the scheme confirmed and ratified by the said last-mentioned Order of Your Majesty in Council, if the said circumstances so affecting the case of the benefice of Hildenborough had been at that time within our knowledge.

"And whereas the said several lastly-mentioned grants commenced and took effect as from the first day of May in the same year.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the grant herein-before recommended to be made to the benefice or church of Hildenborough as aforesaid shall commence and take effect as from the said first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

"And whereas the grants which are herein-before recommended to be made to the benefices of Hillesley, and Saint Philip, Maidstone, are so recommended by us, in consideration of benefactions which have been paid over to us on behalf of such benefices on the dates herein-after mentioned; that is to say, in the case of the perpetual curacy of Hillesley, on the seventeenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine; and in the case of the perpetual curacy of Saint Philip, Maidstone, on the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the grants which are herein-before recommended by us to be made to the last-mentioned benefices or churches respectively shall, in each instance, commence and take effect as from the date at which such benefactions were so paid over to us aforesaid.

"And whereas the leasehold interest in the lands and tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, which are herein-before recommended to be granted to the benefices or churches of Lyss, Rotherwick, and Weston-Patrick respectively, has been surrendered to us as from the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and such surrender was made upon the understanding that the grants herein-before recommended as aforesaid should be made by us to the said several benefices or churches of Lyss, Rotherwick, and Weston-Patrick, and that in the case of Lyss the annual sum or stipend of seventeen pounds seventeen shillings and fourpence, herein-before also recommended, should be secured by us to such benefice or church.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the said grants of lands and tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, and of an annual money payment, shall commence and take effect as from the last-mentioned date.

"And whereas the grant which is herein-before recommended to be made to the benefice of Saint Perran Uthnoe is so recommended, in respect of the proceeds which have accrued to us, under a mining lease of certain glebe lands belonging to the rector or incumbent of such benefice, which has been granted by such rector or incumbent, with our consent, under the provisions of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight.

"And whereas the dates at which the receipts under such lease have accrued are various; but the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, appears to us to be, as nearly as may be, the mean of the dates at which such receipts have accrued to us.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the grant which is herein-before recommended to be made to the said benefice of Saint Perran Uthnoe shall commence and take effect as from the said lastly-mentioned date.

"And whereas the leasehold interest in the lands and tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, herein before recommended to be granted to the benefice of North Moreton, has been surrendered to us as from the first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and such surrender has been made upon the understanding that the same lands and tithes should be annexed by us to the said benefice or church as from such last-mentioned date.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the grant of the said lands and tithes, or rentcharges in lieu of tithes, shall commence and take effect as from the said first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

"And whereas the grant herein-before proposed to be made to the benefice of Saint Philip, Arlington Square, Islington, was recommended by our Estates' Committee, at a meeting held on the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the said herein-before recommended grant to the benefice of Saint Philip, Arlington Square, Islington, shall commence and take effect from such last-mentioned date.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any of the said benefices or churches, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Arthur Helps.

No. 1380.

As to the Assignment of a district Chapelry to the Church of Saint Mary, Broomfleet, in the Parish of South Cave, in the County and Diocese of York.

Gazetted 5th September 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary the Virgin, situate at Broomfleet in the parish of South Cave in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary the Virgin, situate at Broomfleet aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of York, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of South Cave, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Broomfleet.'

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of August 1862,

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following ; that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Meifod, in the cathedral church of Saint Asaph, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the third day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, by the decease of the Reverend John Henry Montagu Luxmoore, the then prebendary of the said prebend of Meifod, all the lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in possession, but some portions thereof, on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Meifod, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to "carry into effect, with certain modifications, the "Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical "Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act "to explain and amend two several Acts relating to "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the Law "relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, 'with certain modifications, the Fourth Report of the 'Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and 'amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical 'Commissioners for England;' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An 'Act to alter and amend the Law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the substitution of certain money payments for certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments now belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Exeter.

"Whereas it was by the said recited Acts enacted and declared that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us and ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first-recited Act, any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds, or in any other security or securities, in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, aggregate or sole, might, upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, and in the case of any chapter with the consent of the visitor thereof, be directed to be sold, and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose and in such manner as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate; and also that for any like purpose any arrangement might be made, with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals for or to the credit of, or in trust for, any bishop, dean and chapter, dean or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise.

"And whereas the said chapter now consists of a dean and six canons, two canonries in the said cathedral having been suspended under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, and the canonry in the same cathedral now held in commendam with the bishoprick of Exeter will, on its next avoidance, be also suspended under the provisions of the same Act.

"And whereas the dean and chapter are seised in fee of certain manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, the greater part of which have been and now are demised or granted on leases or grants for years or lives at small annual reserved rents, and upon payment of fines, and they are also beneficially interested or otherwise entitled to a certain sum of stock invested or held in trust as aforesaid, and particularly specified and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed marked A.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and the said dean and chapter have proposed to us, with the consent of their visitor, that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments (except as herein-after excepted) so belonging to them as aforesaid, should be dealt with in manner herein-after mentioned; and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund as to the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter that the same should be dealt with accordingly.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Exeter, and of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Exeter, as visitor of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose that all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments which now belong, either in possession or reversion, to the said dean and chapter (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage the said cathedral church and the precincts thereof, and the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked B.), together with the benefit of the perpetual land-tax charged thereupon, which has been redeemed, subject, nevertheless, to the liabilities and claims upon or in respect of the same manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments of or to which the said dean and chapter are now liable; and also to the discharge of the stipends of four pounds each, payable to the said dean and chapter, in respect of certain non-residentiary prebends in the said cathedral church; and all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter shall, upon and from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any such duly published Order, become and be transferred to and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become absolutely seised of the same in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof as from the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance, we shall surrender all right and be excluded from all participation in respect of the said suspended canonries to and in the estates and property to be retained by the said dean and chapter, or to be hereafter transferred to them as their permanent endowment, and in the rents and profits thereof, or in the money payments herein-after mentioned; and that there shall be paid by us on the first day of April and the first day of October in every year, to the said dean and chapter, until they shall have been put into possession of real estates as herein-after mentioned in respect of the half-year then last past, the sum of five thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, that until such re-endowment as aforesaid, there shall also be paid by us to the said dean and chapter on the said first day of April and the first day of October in every year, a sum of one hundred pounds (such last-mentioned sum to be by them appropriated and paid to their chapter clerk for the time being); and also on the same days in every year during the life of their present chapter clerk, and notwithstanding the completion of such re-endowment as aforesaid, a further sum of one hundred and fifty pounds to be by them appropriated and paid to the said chapter clerk in respect of the profits which would have accrued to him on account of the management of the estates hereby proposed to be transferred to us.

"And we further recommend and propose, that so long as the present holder of the canonry to be suspended as aforesaid, or his representatives, would under the statutes and customs of the said cathedral church be entitled to a share of the capitular revenues, if the arrangement contemplated by this scheme were not carried into effect, there shall be paid by us to the said dean and chapter on the said first day of April and the first day of October in every year, an additional sum of five hundred pounds; and that the first of each such half-yearly payments shall be made upon the first day of October next, and that the receipt or receipts of the receiver for the time being of the said dean and chapter shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money, as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us under the authority of this scheme when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that none of the monies or estates to be received or acquired by us under the provisions of this scheme, shall be applicable to the purposes of our common fund (except only so far as it may be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of this scheme), until or unless, by and under the like authority, the said dean and chapter shall have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates of which not more than one-fourth part shall consist of tithe rentcharges sufficient to secure to the said dean and chapter a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings,) of eleven thousand and five hundred pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said dean and chapter and of their visitor, that the said sum of stock described in the said schedule marked A., and also any other sums of stock or cash which may be now invested or held in trust for the said dean and chapter, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold out or transferred, and the same or the proceeds thereof be paid or carried to our account at the Bank of England, to be applied towards the objects of this scheme, and particularly to investment in the purchase of any interest in the estates herein proposed to be transferred to us, or any or either of them, or of any other real estates.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"SCHEDULE A.

"The sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of Ralph Barnes of Exeter, Esquire, to the credit of the said dean and chapter of Exeter, being the proceeds of certain monies arising from the sale of lands under the provisions of the Land Tax Redemption Acts.

"SCHEDULE B.

"All that messuage or mansion house, called the Deanery House, with the court-yards, gardens, stables, and appurtenances, to the same adjoining and belonging.

"And also all that messuage or mansion house, formerly called the Chantry, and now one of the houses of the canons residentiary, with the appurtenances to the same adjoining and belonging.

"And also all those houses and buildings on the south side of the said cathedral, being on or immediately contiguous to the site of the ancient cloisters, and now comprising one of the houses of the canons residentiary, two houses of the priests, vicars' vergers' houses, and tenements and offices, immediately adjoining or pertaining to the fabric of the said cathedral.

"And also all that messuage or tenement, commonly called the Prebendal House, and appropriated to the use of the prebendaries or canons non-residentiary, with the appurtenances to the same adjoining and belonging.

"And also all that messuage or mansion house, formerly called the house of the chancellor, and now one of the houses of the canons residentiary, with the appurtenances to the same adjoining and belonging.

"And also all those messuages or tenements on the north of the said cathedral, and within a site bounded on the east by the city wall, and on the west by Catherine Street, to wit, the houses of two canons residentiary, the organist's house, the cathedral school, and Saint Catherine's Almshouses, with all the appurtenances to the same adjoining and belonging."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

For constituting the District of Saint Clement, Barnsbury, out of the Chapelry District of Saint James, Lower Holloway, in the County of Middlesex and Diocese of London.

Gazetted 5th September 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway, herein-after mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in the manner herein-after set forth.

"And whereas a sum of five thousand pounds three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities has been contributed and transferred to our account, and into our name, in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by George Cubitt, of Denbies, near Dorking, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, in aid of the maintenance of the minister for the time being of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and we have in respect thereof agreed with the said George Cubitt, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed, the yearly sum of one hundred and fifty pounds.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that, in consideration of the transfer of the said sum of five thousand pounds three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of the district herein-after recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned to the said George Cubitt, his heirs and assigns, in the manner herein-after recommended.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Clement, Barnsbury.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and become absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Cubitt, his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Clement, Barnsbury, being:

"All that part of the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said chapelry district from the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, in the said county and diocese, at a point upon the western side of the Liverpool Road opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Adam and Eve Lane, otherwise called Westbourne Road East; and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the said lane or road to the boundary dividing the said chapelry district from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, West Holloway, in the same county and diocese; and continuing thence first in the last-named direction, then north-westward, and then again south-westward along the last-described boundary as far as a point in the middle of the Caledonian Road; and all which said part of the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway aforesaid, is also situate to the east of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point upon the boundary dividing the said chapelry district from the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, West Holloway, in the middle of the Caledonian Road as aforesaid; and extending thence southward along such boundary as far as the point at which it diverges from the middle of the said road; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of the same road to the boundary which divides the said chapelry district from the new parish of Saint Andrew, Islington, in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron of the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway aforesaid, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and such patron have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

PRESENT :

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Horningsham, in the collegiate church of Heytesbury, and now vested in us.

" Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the tenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, by the decease of the Reverend John Nelson, Clerk, the then prebendary, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

" And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid consist of reversions expectant upon beneficial leases, and produce during the subsistence of such leases only a small annual revenue, and partly on that account and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

" And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

" And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

" Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Horningsham, and so vested in us aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

" And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Salisbury.

No. 1394.

For setting out and constituting a District for spiritual Purposes, and annexing such District to the Church called Christ Church, Bradford, in the Parish of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester.

Gazetted 5th September 1862.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of August 1862,

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Bradford, in the particular district of Saint Barnabas Openshaw, and within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for and annexed to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Bradford aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the particular district of Saint Barnabas Openshaw (heretofore part of the said parish of Manchester), which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is also delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said particular district of Saint Barnabas Openshaw, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Bradford aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and be named 'The District of Christ Church, Bradford.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Christ Church, Bradford, being:—

"All that portion of the particular district of Saint Barnabas Openshaw (heretofore part of the parish of Manchester), in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said particular district from the new parish of Saint Silas Ardwick, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Ashton old turnpike road; and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Mill Street; and all which said portion of the particular district of Saint Barnabas Openshaw aforesaid is also situate to the west of another imaginary line commencing at the last-described point in the middle of the Ashton old turnpike road opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Mill Street as aforesaid; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of such street for a distance of six hundred yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. Ch. Ch. D. 1862,' and placed at the eastern side of such street near the boundary dividing the said particular district from the new parish of Droylesden, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence eastward and in a direct line to the said boundary stone, and continuing thence in the same direction to the last-described boundary; and extending thence northward along the same boundary to its junction with the boundary of the new parish of All Saints, Newton Heath, in the same county and diocese, upon the northern side of the River Medlock."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbent and to the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the said particular district of Saint Barnabas Openshaw, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbent and patrons have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Manchester.

The Commissioners have accepted a proposal for the rebuilding of St. Andrew's Church, in the City of Dublin, which was destroyed by an accidental fire, as mentioned mentioned in a former Report. This work will be provided for out of the "Insurance Fund" of the Board, aided by private subscriptions.

The subscriptions from private sources received within the year, in aid of the building, rebuilding, enlarging, and improvement of Churches and Licensed Houses of Worship, have amounted to the very liberal sum of 14,842 l. 2 s. 8 d.

A Chapel of Ease at Ardemine, in the Parish of Kiltennel, and Diocese of Ferns, built at the sole expense of Captain Solomon Augustus Richards, of Ardemine, in the County of Wexford; also a Trustee Chapel at Kircubbin, in the Parish of Innishargy, and Diocese of Down, built exclusively by means of private funds, have been taken under the charge of the Board. A Proprietary Chapel at Cloverhill, in the Parish of Anna Belturbet, in the Diocese of Kilmore, and a Trustee Chapel, in the Parish of Cappagh, in the Diocese of Derry, have been also built by means of like funds. In the latter case, the plans were supplied by the architects of the Board, and the works were carried on under their superintendence.

A Church which was built some years ago in the Parish of Derrybrusk, in the Diocese of Clogher, by the parishioners, without any assistance from the Commissioners, has been taken under the charge of the Board, the parties interested having lately obtained a faculty confirming this building as the Parish Church.

A sum of 1,500 l., 3 per cent. stock, has been transferred to the Commissioners by Lord Clermont, and accepted by them, as an additional endowment for the Benefice of Jonesborough, in the Diocese of Armagh.

The Commissioners have, during the year, granted loans on mortgage to the amount of 4,156 l. 16 s. 2 d., for building, improving, and repairing Glebe Houses in the following cases:—

For the Deanery of Ardagh.

„ St. John's Sligo, in the Diocese of Elphin.

„ Aughmacart, in the Diocese of Ossory.

and a sum of 7,113 l. 4 s. 9 d., has been actually paid on foot of these loans, and of those referred to in last year's Report.

Under the provisions of the 32d section of 23 & 24 Vict. c. 150, the Commissioners have allocated a further annual sum of 500 l., charge on income arising from Disappropriated Tithes, to the augmentation of Benefices the incomes of which were under 100 l., which sum has been distributed amongst the following Benefices:—

Ardmayle	in the Diocese of cashel.

They have also, under the provisions of the 6th section, 3 & 4 Vict. c. 101, granted an additional augmentation of 26 l. per annum, to the Vicarage of Monkstown, in the Diocese of Cork, and under the provisions of the 37th section of the 23 & 24 Vict. c. 150, they have allocated an annual stipend of 100*l.* to each of the Perpetual Curates who have been appointed and licensed by the Archbishop of Dublin, to the Parishes of Tullow and Kill, within the Union of Monkstown, in the County and Diocese of Dublin, these parishes having been erected into separate parochial districts.

Under the provisions of the 31st section of the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 150, the Commissioners have relinquished the further collection of the instalments payable on foot of the loans made by the late Board of First Fruits, for building Glebe-houses in the Parishes of Ballingarry, in the Diocese of Killaloe, and of Athy, in the Diocese of Dublin, the incumbents not being in either of these cases in possession of the houses for the building of which these loans were made.

A portion of land, part of the See Estate of Clogher, has been purchased by the Monaghan and Clones Railway Company, and the purchase-money, 154*l.* 1 s. 4 d. has been invested in Government Stock, to the credit of this property.

The Commissioners having under the Provisions of the Tithe Composition Acts taken proceedings, founded upon an increase in the average price of Corn, to vary the rentcharges of certain Parishes which are vested in them, have succeeded in several instances in obtaining the necessary authority, by which means an annual increase in their income, under this head, has been effected, to the amount of 154 l. 17 s. 8 d.

On the recommendation of the Board, the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have, under the provision of the 6th section of the 23 & 24 Vict. c. 150, granted a superannuation allowance of 225 l. per annum to their late Treasurer, Dr. James Edward Stopford, who, after a service of 27 years, had become permanently disabled by ill health from the further discharge of his duties; and with the approval of your Excellency, the Commissioners have raised the salary of Mr. John Ball, their Solicitor, from 400*l.* to 500 l. per annum, in consideration of the heavy and important duties performed for the Board by that gentleman.

By the half-yearly returns of promotions, it appears that appointments have been made within the year to 83 Benefices, consisting of 10 dignities, 4 prebends, and 69 parochial benefices; of these 22 appear to be subject to ecclesiastical tax.

With reference to the vacancies which took place in the Prebends of Carragranemore, in the Cathedral Church of Ross, and of Donaghmore, in the Cathedral Church of St. Carthage, Lismore, neither of them having cure of souls, within the meaning of the Statutes, the Commissioners recommended the appointments to them to be suspended, with which recommendations your Excellency and the Privy Council were pleased to comply. In the case of the vacancy in the Prebend of Lockeen, without cure of souls, in the Cathedral Church of Killaloe, the Commissioners likewise recommended to your Excellency and the Privy Council to suspend the appointment to it, but they have been informed that an Order in Council was made on the 24th of April last, disappropriating from the Prebend all its revenues and annexing them to the Vicarage of the parish. In the cases of the Archdeaconries of Ardfert and Achonry, without cure of souls, which also became vacant during the year, the Commissioners, according to their practice in respect to such Dignities, merely notified the vacancies to your Excellency and the Privy Council, but abstained from making any recommendation in respect to them.

Twenty-six applications for the purchase of Perpetuities have been received, and the sum realised from this source within the year has amounted to 12,958*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.* For the liquidation of mortgages granted for Perpetuity purchases effected in former years, a sum of 4,720*l.* 3*s.* 5*d.* has been paid.

The following sums have been invested in Government Securities; viz., 12,053*l.* 17*s.* 4*d.* to the credit of the Perpetuity Purchase Fund; 401*l.* 6*s.* to the credit of Primate Boulter's Fund; 2,371*l.* -s. 10*d.* to the credit of the Insurance Fund; and, temporarily, 4,660*l.* -s. 2*d.* out of the General Fund, pending the execution of the works for which the Board has made grants.

The annual account of the Trust Fund arising under Bishop Gore's will, from the impropriate tithes of Cahir Parish, in the Diocese of Lismore, has been furnished by the Commissioners to the Bishop of Cashel, Waterford, and Lismore, pursuant to the direction of the Court of Chancery.

All which is submitted to your Excellency's consideration.

TWENTY-THIRD GENERAL REPORT

OF THE

EMIGRATION COMMISSIONERS.

My Lord Duke, 5th May 1863.

We have the honour to submit to your Grace herewith our Report for the year 1862.

Emigration in 1862. Appendices, Nos. 1 to 6.

The emigration from the United Kingdom, in 1862, amounted to 121,214 souls, of whom 58,706 or upwards of 48 per cent. went to the United States, 15,522 or a little more than 12 per cent. to British North America, 41,843 or nearly 34 per cent. to Australia and New Zealand, and 5,143 or more than 4 per cent. to other places. The emigration of 1862 exceeded the emigration of 1861 by upwards of 29,000 souls, and was larger than the average of the four previous years—but fell much short of the emigration of 1855, 1856, and 1857, and was less than two fifths of the emigration of the eight years, from 1847 to 1855.

Decrease in emigration to the United States in 1861, 1862.

The greatest decrease, both in 1861 and 1862, was, as might be expected, in the emigration to the United States. In 1861 this emigration had fallen to 49,764, equal to 54·22 per cent. of the whole emigration of that year. In 1862 it rose to 58,706, but its proportion to the whole emigration was even less than in 1861, being only 48·43 per cent.; in fact its proportion to the whole emigration was smaller in 1862 than in any year since 1841. In the 21 years which have elapsed since 1841, the proportion of the emigration to the United States to the whole emigration has varied from 79·78 per cent. to 48·43, the average being 61·93. The decrease in the last two years was of course the result of the civil war.

Its proportion to the whole emigration from 1841 to 1862.

Increase in proportion of emigration to British North America.

The same cause increased the proportion of the emigration to British North America. Between 1849 and 1862 the proportion of that emigration to the whole emigration varied from 5·55 per cent. in 1859 to 13·85 per cent. in 1861. In 1862 it amounted to 12·80 per cent. Nevertheless, the emigration to British North America, though proportionally large, was absolutely small. With the exception of the four preceding years (1858 to 1861 inclusive) it was the smallest since 1839.

Irish emigration.

Of the whole number of emigrants, 49,680 or 40·98 per cent. were Irish. This proportion is larger than in 1861, and some recent years, and indicates an increase of pressure upon the labouring class in Ireland. Whenever that is the case the ample remittances so nobly sent home to their friends in Ireland by those who have preceded them, afford a ready means of extending the emigration. The amount returned to us as sent home in 1862 was 463,024*l.* making in the 16 years, for which we have returns, a total of 12,642,000*l.* It is necessary to repeat, what we have stated in former years, that these returns are very imperfect, as they contain none of the remittances through the post or through private hands, or through any of the banks or mercantile houses, which decline to furnish us with information. It would scarcely be unreasonable to estimate the amount of which we have no returns, at half as much again as that of which we have returns.

Money remitted from America and Australia. Appendix, No. 26.

Mortality, in emigration to the United States;

The mortality in the emigration to the United States has again been very small. We are obliged to depend for our information on this point on the owners and agents in this country of ships carrying emigrants to the United States, there being no means of obtaining, till much later in the year, official information on the subject. But we have no reason to doubt the accuracy of the returns furnished to us so far as they go. From these it appears that the mortality in 139 ships to New York, carrying 29,678 persons, was only 36 or ·12 per cent.; and in nine ships to Philadelphia, carrying 1,212 persons, 1 or ·08 per cent. In the emigration to Canada, from which we have official information, the mortality was only seven out of 14,401, or less than ·05 per cent.

and Canada. Appendices, Nos. 29. and 30.

Emigration to Australia.

The emigration to Australia constituted 34·51 per cent. of the whole emigration, being absolutely larger than the emigration of the four preceding years, and larger in proportion than the emigration of any previous year.

Increase in.

The increase in Australian emigration is to be attributed, no doubt, to the facilities offered by the several colonies to persons already settled there to send home for their relations and friends. In our report for 1861 we explained the regulations in force in the Australian colonies for that purpose. Those regulations continue the same, and it is unnecessary, therefore, to recapitulate them here. But we place in the Appendix a notice on the subject, which we have prepared for the information of applicants. In Victoria it has been desired to afford greater facilities for the conveyance in private ships of single women, unaccompanied by relations or friends. In order to secure their proper protection on the voyage, an order has been made by Her Majesty in Council, under the 59th section of the Passengers Act, to regulate the manner in which they are to be berthed in the ship, and the precautions for preventing intercourse between them and the male passengers and crew. We place in the Appendix a copy of this Order in Council.

Free and assisted passages. Appendix No. 47.

Regulations for protection of single women in private vessels to Victoria. Order in Council. Appendix No. 32.

The emigration to Australia and New Zealand amounted, as has been above stated, to 41,843 souls. Of these there proceeded in ships chartered by us 8,189; in ships belonging to or chartered by Messrs. Gibbs, Bright, & Co., as agents for the contractors with the colony of Victoria, 914; in private ships 32,740. All who proceeded in our ships, and many of those in the ships of Messrs. Gibbs, Bright, & Co., were, more or less, assisted out of colonial funds. A large proportion of those who proceeded in private ships also received assistance to a greater or less extent, but we have no means of stating to what extent. The emigration, as far as our information goes, was very healthy. We have received returns of 21 ships sent out by us, in which the deaths among 7,296 persons were only 76 or 1·04 per cent. Of the mortality in private ships we have no return.

In the course of last year the question, often heretofore debated, whether there was an opening in the colonies for educated women of the middle class as governesses, attracted a good deal of public attention. The information which reached us officially declared that there was not; but as that information was confidently contradicted by writers in the public papers, on the authority of persons who had made the experiment, we thought it our duty, after inserting a general caution in the "Times" newspaper, to request the colonial authorities to reconsider the subject, and furnish us with specific information upon it. We have since received answers from most of the colonies to which we wrote. From Canada, New Brunswick, the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, South Australia and Western Australia, the answers very distinctly dissuade the emigration of the class in question, although it is admitted that in some cases an opening for one or two governesses might from time to time be found. From New South

Emigration of educated females. No opening for this class in Australia, British North America, Cape of Good Hope or Natal.

Wales the answer is that there is no demand for females as second-class governesses, shopwomen, milliners, or schoolmistresses, but that a few thoroughly educated ladies, who would be willing to go into the bush, and not object, in addition to their educational duties, to assist occasionally in domestic matters (female servants being scarce) might meet with comfortable homes, and that possibly a very limited number might obtain engagements in Sydney. That, however, no lady ought to come to the colony without the means of support for at least three months, unless she has friends with whom she could reside until she procured an appointment. From Victoria the Commissioner of Trade and Customs recommends strongly that no middle class females should be sent out unless written for. From New Zealand we learn that in some of the provinces there might occasionally be the means of finding situations for a few governesses, but that it would not be safe to send out more than a very few, nor any, without previous arrangements for their reception.

Emigration of middle class young women to New Zealand under superintendence of Miss Rye.

In November last Miss Rye, the secretary of a private society for promoting the emigration of young women of the middle class, took out with her to New Zealand 100 young women, among whom, we believe, there were several above the class of servants. We have not yet learned the result of this experiment, but by a letter written after her arrival at Otago which appeared in the newspapers we perceive that she does not anticipate difficulty in disposing of the girls satisfactorily. It is, we understand, Miss Rye's intention to visit the Australian colonies for the purpose of ascertaining by personal inquiry what opening they offer to young women of a superior grade in life.

PASSENGERS' ACT.

Passengers' Act.

During 1862 the Passengers' Act has continued in successful operation, as is shown by the small mortality among emigrants, and the satisfactory condition in which they reached their respective destinations. Some amendments, however, appear to be required, and we have accordingly submitted to your Grace the draft of a Bill to be introduced into Parliament for that purpose. The principal alterations which it is proposed to make by this Bill are,— Proposed amendments in.

1st. To relieve from the operation of the Act vessels having less than three passengers to 100 tons, or than 50 in all.

2d. To take away the exemption of mail steamers.

3d. To allow of the carriage in passenger ships, under certain conditions, of a limited number of horses, cattle, sheep, and dogs.

4th. To remove doubts as to the application to persons who have not contracted for their own passages of the sections of the Passengers' Act 1855 which relate to the rescue and forwarding of shipwrecked passengers; and

5th. To require a special bond for the repayment of expenses incurred in rescuing and forwarding passengers in cases where the owners and charterers of a passenger ship reside out of the United Kingdom.

There are other minor alterations which it is unnecessary to specify here. Some of the above alterations were suggested by the Committee of the House of Commons on the Merchant Shipping Act, which sat in 1860, and some have suggested themselves in the working of the Act.

The following were the only prosecutions under the Passengers' Act during the year 1862:— Prosecutions under Act.

from salt water and aërating it, and having satisfied ourselves by repeated experiments of its efficiency, we obtained an Order of Her Majesty in Council, under the 59th section of the Passengers Act, reducing by one half the statutory quantity of water in ships carrying that apparatus. The apparatus has worked with perfect success; and it is the universal opinion of our surgeons that the distillation of water on board ship, both on account of the greater quantity and the greater purity of the issue which it secures, is of infinite value to both the comfort and health of the emigrants. Latterly another apparatus for the same purpose, invented by Mr. Gravely, has been submitted to us, and this apparatus having satisfied the tests to which it was subjected, has now been placed on the same footing as Dr. Normandy's. This last apparatus combines the cooking of provisions with the distillation of water, and is expected, therefore, to be more economical than Dr. Normandy's. It is, of course, an object to reduce as much as possible the expense of these apparatus, so as to stimulate the adoption of them in private passenger ships. We place in the Appendix the Order in Council under which Mr. Gravely's apparatus has been admitted to the same privileges as Dr. Normandy's.

The number introduced at the public expense was 1,589, of whom 794 were males, 595 were females, and 200 were children. Immigration. Government emigration.

During the last year we despatched nine ships to New South Wales, with 3,078 emigrants. With the exception of 23, all these persons were nominated in the colony, and proceeded under remittance certificates.

QUEENSLAND.

In the session of 1862 an Act was passed by the Legislature of Queensland, entitled the "Pastoral Occupation Act of 1862." The object of the Act is to remedy certain alleged defects in the "Tenders Regulation Act," and in the "Unoccupied Crown Lands Occupation Act of 1860," more especially with reference to the occupation and stocking of runs. It consists of details framed with a view to obviate delays and evils complained of by the community, and by persons desirous of introducing capital from abroad. Pastoral Occupation Act.

We adverted in our last report to the measures which had been proposed for the purpose of enabling settlers to obtain at their own expense labourers from India. In Immigration from India;

September 1861 the Governor sent home the draft of a proclamation and regulations having that object in view. But your Grace pointed out that the regulations wanted legislative sanction, and consequently would not be legally binding. An Act of last session supplied this omission. It empowers the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to prescribe regulations on the subject, and further empowers any two justices in petty sessions to cancel any agreements or indentures made with immigrants. We place in the Appendix a copy of the regulations which have been recently issued under this Act. They are framed with the intention of giving the immigrants the same protection as is granted to Indian labourers in Mauritius and the West Indies, and are in some respects more favourable. Thus, by the Queensland regulations the immigrant will be entitled, if the employer fails to claim his services within seven days after arrival, either to enforce his contract by summary process, or to be relieved from it, and to receive a free back passage, and maintenance until it is provided, together with damages for the non-fulfilment of the contract. On completion of his industrial residence, he will likewise be entitled to a free back passage after five years, while the same privilege is not granted to the coolie in the West Indies until after eight or ten years. Moreover, his wages must not be less than 10 per cent. above the Mauritius scale. On the other hand, if he should desire to redeem the last two years of his industrial residence, he is required to pay 2*l.* 10*s.* for each year or part of a year remaining of his unexpired terms, while in Mauritius the rate of redemption is only 1*l.* 12*s.* per annum. In the West Indies the rate is generally 2*l.* 10*s.*, the same as is proposed for Queensland.

Appendix No. 31.

Government emigration.

In the course of the past year we despatched to Queensland six ships, with 1,952 emigrants. Of this number 943 proceeded under the remittance regulations, and 1,009 were selected by us. These numbers are exclusive of the emigrants who proceeded in private vessels under the land order system described in our Report of 1861. The total emigration from this country to Queensland was 8,575.

Extension of the western boundary of colony to the 138th meridian of east longitude.

The colony of Queensland was separated from New South Wales by Letters Patent, dated 6th June 1859, which also fixed as the western boundary of the colony the 141st meridian of east longitude. This boundary excluded from the colony the fertile district on the Gulf of Carpentaria, known as the "Plains of Promise," and the harbour known as "Investigator Road." The Government of Queensland, being anxious to obtain possession of that territory, brought the subject under your Grace's consideration in September 1860. Nothing was done at that time; but eventually your Grace decided to extend the western boundary of the colony to the 138th meridian of east longitude, which would bring within its limits both the Plains of Promise, Investigator Road, and the Albert River. As, however, some doubts existed as to the power of the Crown to annex to an existing colony any part of the colony of New South Wales which might be detached from it, advantage was taken of the passage of the Act 24 & 25 Vict. cap. 44. to set that doubt at rest. Letters Patent were subsequently issued on 13th March 1862, under the authority of the above Act, by which the western boundary of Queensland was extended to the 138° east longitude.

The new regulations are embodied in an Act passed by the Legislature on the 18th June 1862, and will be mentioned presently. Summary of the principal provisions of the new land Act.

The Land Act of 1862 combines nearly all the modes of dealing with public lands which have been tried in any colony, except free grants and grants on quit rent. In it will be found the principles of selection at a fixed price, after survey, over certain agricultural districts—of auction over other districts—of prompt payments and payments by instalments, and of conditions of settlement. It contains provisions for commonage, for meeting the cases of all kinds of industries seeking development in the colony ; and for checking monopoly and the acquisition of land for the purposes of mere speculation. Lastly, it provides for a continuous stream of immigration by the fixed yearly appropriation of one-fourth of the land revenue to that object.

The Act is divided into six parts, or chapters. It repeals all former laws (six in number) except the Gold Field Act, No. 32, and all Orders in Council and regulations affecting public lands, and is itself to expire on the 31st December 1870. It empowers the Governor in Council to reserve from sale, either temporarily or permanently, any Crown lands for any public purpose whatever (Sec. 5), and enables him (Sec. 10) to deal with escheated or forfeited lands in favour of persons having a moral, though not a legal, claim to them.

Parts 2 and 5, which prescribe the modes of alienating country lands and regulating pastoral privileges, contain the most important provisions. Upwards of 10,000,000 of acres are marked out on an official map, and are to be reserved (Sec. 12) for proclamation in what are called "agricultural areas," and not less than 4,000,000 acres are to be open for selection within three months of the passing of the Act. The farms are to be divided (Sec. 13) into allotments of not less than 40 nor more than 640 acres, and each allotment is to be again divided into two equal parts. When an area is proclaimed as open, a plan of it is to be published, and any one wishing to select an allotment in it must make a written application to the land officer for the district in a prescribed form, accompanied by a declaration that he is over 21 years of age ; that he is domiciled in the colony ; that he selects the land for his own use, and not as agent for any one else ; and if a female, that she is not married, or if married, that she is judicially separated from her husband (Sec. 17). The object of this declaration is to prevent speculation, and the evasion of the law by obtaining large quantities of land in the names of relatives. The applicant must at the same time pay for the whole allotment at 1*l.* per acre ; or if he prefers it for half the allotment, and one years' rent at 2*s.* 6*d.* per acre for the remaining half (Sec. 21). If there be no other applicant for the allotment, he then becomes the selector, and is put into immediate possession. If there be two or more applicants for the same allotment on the same day, the matter is decided by lot (Sec. 19), and not, as under the previous law, by auction between the rival applicants. If the applicant has elected to purchase at once only half his allotment and to rent the other half, a lease of that half is granted for eight years at 2*s.* 6*d.* per acre. At the end of the term, if the rent has been punctually paid, the lessee acquires the fee without any further payment (Sec. 23).

No person, however, is entitled either in his own or another's name to select in an agricultural area more than 640 acres in a year (Sec. 26,) and every selector is bound within one year to cultivate at least one out of every 10 acres, or to erect a habitable dwelling, or to enclose his allotment with a substantial fence (Sec. 36), subject to a penalty of 5*s.* per acre (Sec. 126), but personal residence is not enforced.

Former purchasers of land, and holders of Occupation Licences are entitled, if they think fit, to select land under the Act, the former to the extent of 320 acres each, and the latter to the extent of 180 acres (Secs. 23, 33, 34.) Selectors under the previous Land Act, No. 117 (of 1860), are entitled within 12 months to surrender their leases of half lots and take fresh ones under this Act. (Sec. 37.) About 130,000 acres are held in this manner under the former Act. The rent is 1*s.* per acre, but it does not reckon as purchase money, as under the present Act. The tenant, however, has the right of pre-emption at 1*l.* per acre.

The lands in any agricultural area which may remain unselected after three years from the proclamation, may be sold in fee simple by auction. (Sec. 27.)

Such are the main features of the system by selection.

But besides this mode of disposing of Crown lands, all lands not delineated in the official map as now lying in the proclaimed agricultural areas, are to be sold by auction for prompt payment (within one month), at the upset price of 1*l.* per acre or any higher price that the Governor in Council may fix. (Sec. 39 and 41.) If not sold at auction, they may be put up again at a reduced price, provided it be not less than 1*l.* per acre, and in the meantime they may be purchased at the original upset or any higher price that may have been bid for them at any auction. (Sec. 42.)

Part 3. relates to Leases and Licences for other than agricultural or pastoral purposes. For the encouragement of new industries the Governor may, in any one year, grant not more than 100 leases for 30 years, and containing not more than 30 acres each. (Sec. 47.) Mining leases, except for gold, may also be granted for 30 years, without restriction as to number, and with a right of pre-emption, after the first five years, at 1*l.* per acre. (Sec. 48.) The conditions of mining leases are regulated by an Order in Council. The extent of area is not to exceed 640 acres, and the rent is to be 2*s.* an acre, and 2 per cent. on the value of the mineral or metal at the mouth of the mine.

Leases of three acres for a term not exceeding seven years, may also be granted for various useful purposes, such as sites for inns, stores, bakeries, bathing-houses, factories, quays, ship building, &c. But these leases are voidable at any time if not used for the purposes for which they were granted. (Sec. 50 and 51.)

Annual licences may also be granted for any of the purposes specified in Sec. 58, subject to such fees and conditions as the Governor in Council may prescribe. (Sec. 54.)

Part 4. relates to Commons, of which there are to be four classes, viz :—Municipal Commons, Gold Field Commons, Town Commons, and Farmer's Commons.

The Commons may be proclaimed by the Governor in Council in localities within five miles of any municipal district or gold field or town (not in a municipal district) or agricultural area, of which one-fourth has been selected. (Sec. 65.) The persons entitled to free commonage are householders, holders of "miners' rights," or business licences, resident selectors in agricultural areas, and land owners resident within five miles of a "farmer's common." (Sec. 67.) The lands in these commons may, however, be sold, or selected, or leased, and the Governor in Council may at any time alter or abolish any common, and the right of depasturage (except in the case of farmer's commons) is restricted to four head of cattle for each commoner. (Sec. 77.)

Part 5. relates to Pastoral Licences. It is with this branch of the subject that the great difficulty has hitherto been found in dealing with the land question.

The 80th Section of the Act empowers the Governor to issue to the licensed occupiers of existing runs yearly licences of their runs for the next eight years, commencing from the 1st January 1863; but it expressly provides that the licence is not to prevent the run, or any part of it from being sold, leased, proclaimed a common, or otherwise dealt with under the present or any future law.

Instead of an assessment as heretofore, on the stock actually fed on the run, a rent is to be paid on the number of cattle (at the rate of 8*d.* for each sheep, or 2*s.* for each head of cattle,) which the run may be capable of carrying, to be determined by the Board of Land and Works, or in case their decision is disputed, by arbitration. (Sec. 83.) But the rent may be increased within the first 12 months, if the Board have reason to believe that it has been fixed too low, subject to an appeal on the part of the squatter. (Sec. 96 and 97.)

New runs are to be sold by auction, the rent being fixed by the Board of Land and Works, and the biddings being on the premium. If there are no bidders at the auction, the Board may reduce the rent and put up the run again, and so from time to time until it is sold. The purchaser is to receive a licence of occupation, which is to be deemed a transferable chattel interest (Secs. 107 and 108) for 14 years, and the size of the run is limited to an extent sufficient in the estimation of the Board to carry all the year round 5,000 sheep, or 1,250 head of cattle. (Sec. 98, 99, 100, and 101.) If the rent which is payable half-yearly (Sec. 113) is suffered to fall in arrear, 2*l.* a day are to be added to it, by way of penalty, and if it continues in arrear more than two months, the run is liable to forfeiture. (Secs. 116 and 117.)

The Governor in Council may make reserves for sale to the extent of one-fourth of a run, but no sale of the reserves is to take place until after three months' notice given to the licensee, and the remainder of his run is made subject to being leased or occupied under a "miner's right" or licence for other than pastoral purposes. (Sec. 102.) Runs taken up in 1860 and 1861, under the last Land Act, No. 117, may within 12 months be surrendered, and licences in exchange obtained under the present Act. (Sec. 103.)

Licensees are prohibited from cultivating their runs for purposes of sale or barter, but they may make improvements on them, and may dig for stone, and cut timber for domestic uses; and if the run be not within an agricultural area, the licensee is entitled to compensation if that part of the run is taken from him on which he may have made a substantial fence, or permanent reservoir of water, provided he had previously obtained permission to effect the improvement, and had it duly registered. A deduction, however, is to be made of one-tenth of the value for each year he may have had the use of the improvement. (Sec. 110.) Compensation (not exceeding 500*l.*) is also to be granted to the occupiers of new runs for the loss of buildings and yards, or they may be allowed instead, to purchase at 1*l.* per acre, 320 acres of the land on which the improvements stand. (Sec. 111.)

Lastly, no occupier of land for pastoral purposes is to be entitled to any compensation by reason of the Act being repealed or altered. (Sec. 121.)

The privilege of public officers and holders of "miner's rights" prospecting for gold, to depasture their cattle on Crown lands, is preserved. (Secs. 78 and 79.)

Part 4. relates to Trespasses and Penalties.

There only remains one more important provision which secures a fund for Immigration. By the 38th section, one fourth of the net revenue received in each year after 1862, from the sale or leasing of land, or for licences for the use thereof, is to be appropriated to the purposes of immigration under regulations to be made by the Governor in Council, and submitted to both Houses of the Colonial Parliament. The immigrants during the first nine months of the year are to be selected from England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales, in proportion to the population of those divisions respectively of the United Kingdom according to the last census.

Applications for Land under the Act.

Within four months from the passing of the Act, 944,860 acres of agricultural land had been selected. There had also been upwards of 300 applications for leases of land suitable for new industries. In this number, however, are included 106, which could not be entertained in consequence of the land named therein having been either previously applied for or being otherwise unavailable. A considerable portion of the applications are for land required for the production of wine and tobacco; but a more extended range of new industrial enterprise is contemplated in the proposed cultivation and growth of flax, cotton, hemp, mulberry trees, olives, and flowering shrubs for essential oils and perfumes, and in the production of rape-seed, mustard, ginger, arrow-root, grain, dried fruits, chesnuts, oranges, and lemons, and several other articles.

Immigration and emigration 1861.

During the year 1861 the unassisted immigration was 24,228 souls, of whom 9,734 were from the United Kingdom, 856 from foreign ports, and the remainder from New Zealand and other Australasian colonies. On the other hand, 35,898 souls left the colony.

Appendices Nos. 35. and 36.

We place in the Appendix detailed returns of these arrivals and departures. Of the latter no fewer than 17,294 persons went to New Zealand, attracted by the discovery of gold in that colony, affording, as the Immigration

Agent observes, another illustration of the migratory character of the gold digging population.

The assisted emigration in 1861 amounted to 2,682 persons, of whom 747 were males and 1,935 were females; 1,534 went in our ships, and the remainder proceeded in private ships under the passage warrant system. Government emigration.

The amount in our hands at the commencement of the present year available for emigration to Victoria under our immediate direction was about 28,000*l.* We have since received from the colony about 15,000*l.*, including a sum of 5,000*l.* specially remitted for the emigration of distressed operatives from the United Kingdom, which, in accordance with the view of the Colonial Government, has been apportioned between England, Ireland, and Scotland in the ratio of their populations as given by the last census. Emigration funds. Emigration of distressed operatives from United Kingdom.

We place in the Appendix copies of two proclamations issued by the Governor of Victoria on the 31st December 1861 and the 14th March 1862. The former reduces the space required for each passenger of Asiatic or African birth in vessels passing between the tropics from any port in the colony, from 15 to 12 superficial feet; the second contains the regulations for the carriage of passengers from Victoria to other British possessions in Australia. SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

The following information relative to the Crown lands in South Australia is obtained from the report of the Registrar General which accompanied the Statistical Register of the colony for the year 1861. Appendices Nos. 33. and 34.

The number of acres alienated in 1861 was 147,354, being an increase, as compared with 1860, of 18,092 acres. Of these, 98,816 acres were country sections, which realized at public auction an average price of 1*l.* 4*s.* 7*d.* per acre; the average size of the lots being 87 acres. In the previous year the average price was 1*l.* 3*s.* per acre, and the average size of the lots 95 acres. Country sections which had previously been put up to auction, were taken up to the extent of 43,081 acres, by private contract. Land alienated in 1861.

284 acres of town land, comprising 570 lots, were disposed of at auction, at the rate of 45*l.* 16*s.* per acre, being an advance of 4*l.* 7*s.* 11*d.* on the average of the previous year.

The total extent of land sold up to the end of 1861 was 2,380,713 acres, more than two thirds of which have passed into private hands since 1851, the land sales of the past Quantity of land sold up to end of 1861.

10 years having amounted in the aggregate to 1,673,280 acres.

Quantity of waste land occupied.

The occupation of the waste lands has also during the same period become very considerable; 36,831 square miles have been leased to stockholders for pastoral purposes on a 14 years tenure. Of this area, 6,641 square miles have been resumed by the Crown, leaving the area actually under lease at the end of 1861, 30,190 square miles.

In addition to the foregoing, several thousand square miles are held in possession by discoverers of new pastoral country and others claiming leases under the regulations, but for which leases had not, at the date of the return, been prepared.

Number of annual leases for pastoral lands issued in 1861.

The number of annual leases for pastoral land within hundreds was 75, of an area of 2,939 square miles, against 53 leases, for 1,520 square miles, issued in 1860.

Rent payable under above leases.

Compensation for improvements of runs.

Since 1853, 47,692*l.* 14*s.* had been paid to lessees, as compensation for improvements effected on their runs, when resumed for sale, the above sum having been added to the upset price. In most cases the leaseholders have become the purchasers of the land and improvements.

Mineral leases.

From a return of mineral leases it appears that during the year 1861 eighty-one leases were issued for an area of 5,847 acres, at a yearly rental of 293*l.* 10*s.*

Government emigration.

During the year 1861 no free passages were granted to emigrants to South Australia, and the only persons introduced at the public expense were 21 persons from Scotland, 18 males and 3 females, who were holders of assisted passage certificates outstanding on the cessation of Government immigration.

Immigration.

Emigration.

The total number of arrivals in 1861, as stated in the report which accompanied the statistical register for that year, was 3,127, and of departures 2,077, making an addition to the population of 1,050 souls, of whom 938 were males and 112 females.

Renewal of Government emigration.

We mentioned in our last report that the renewal of free and assisted emigration to South Australia on a limited scale had been decided upon by the Colonial Government early in 1862.

Number of persons despatched.

The number of persons sent out in the year was 1,066.

Extension of boundary of

A question has recently arisen as to the government of the extensive country to the north of South Australia, lying between the 129th and 138th meridians of E. longitude. As there was reason to expect that the fertility of portions of this territory would before long tempt some of the more adventurous stockholders of the adjoining colonies to establish themselves within it, it became necessary to consider how it might most conveniently and economically be brought within the authority of the law. The creation of a new colony, under present circumstances, would involve considerable expense, and it therefore appeared to your Grace that it would be better in the first instance to annex the territory to either Queensland or South Australia, as on enquiry should appear most advisable. This arrangement having been proposed to the Governments of those colonies respectively, the Government of Queensland expressed an unwillingness to accept any further extension of its boundary beyond the 138° E. longitude. But the Government of South Australia expressed a strong wish that the territory in question should be annexed to that colony, as an outlet for its rapidly increasing flocks and herds. As the main obstacle to such annexation, viz. the supposed difficulty of crossing the central region of Australia, has been removed by the recent discovery by Mr. Stuart of a route to the northern shore practicable for sheep and cattle and sufficiently supplied with water, your Grace has, we understand, consented to annex the territory in question to South Australia. Letters Patent for that purpose will, we presume, be shortly issued, under the 24th and 25th Vict. c. 44.

New pastoral regulations for the northern district of the colony.

Appendix No. 37.

We place in the Appendix a copy of regulations which have been recently issued by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, for the purpose of opening up for pasture the northern district of the colony lately explored by Mr. Gregory. The regulations are also to apply to the south-eastern district of the colony. The northern district is said to extend at least 400 miles each way, and includes the adjacent islands. The land within it is to be divided into two classes, A. and C. The former comprises all land within two miles of the coast and all public reserves, till required for use, and is to be subject to annual licences. Class C. comprises all other lands. It rests with the discretion of the Governor to grant permits (valid for 12 months) to proceed to the districts for the purpose of selecting runs, not exceeding 100,000 acres for any one establishment. The stock introduced is to be allowed free pasturage for one year from its arrival. If the Governor approves the selection of the run, a non-transferable licence of occupation for three years rent free will be issued. Within this period the Governor may grant to any lawful occupier of a run in Class C. pastoral leases for eight years of any portion of it, in lots not exceeding 20,000 acres each, and annual licences to the same extent may be granted in Class A. The annual rent for such lease or licence is to be at the rate of 5*s.* per 1,000 acres for the first four years, and 10*s.* for the last four, with a fee of 5*l.* for each lease. All payments are to be made in advance, and no licence is to be issued for less than 1*l.* Leases which pay rent are to be transferable if properly stocked, and the runs and leases may be resumed for public purposes or for sale on giving 12 months notice and paying by valuation for lawful improvements on lands comprised in rent paying leases. Up to the end of the first year of a lease, and during its gratuitous occupation, the lessee will have the right of cultivation, but no claim for damages by trespass will be admitted unless the land be properly fenced. In all other respects the disposal of the waste lands in the district is to be governed by the ordinary land regulations.

Each lease of 20,000 acres in Class C. will thus produce a revenue in the first year of 10*l.*, in each of the three next years of 5*l.*, and in each of the four last years of 10*l.*, or 65*l.* during the whole period, being on the average of 8*s.* 1½*d.* per 1,000 acres per annum. Annual licences for a like quantity of land in Class A. will produce the same rental, but the receipts for the first year will be less than on a lease by 5*l.*, no fee being charged for the licences.

Government emigration.

The number of emigrants, exclusive of convicts' families, provided with passages to Western Australia at the public expense during the year 1862, was 553. The convict families amounted to 19 persons.

NEW ZEALAND.

Land Acts.

Among the Acts passed by the legislature of New Zealand in 1862 is one (No. 17) for facilitating the issue of Crown grants, and another (No. 18) to authorize the issue of Crown grants in certain cases. A third Act (No. 23) amends the law relative to the unlawful occupation of Crown lands, and appoints Commissioners of Crown land. Besides these, there are two Acts (Nos. 28 and 29) relating to land revenue appropriation. And an Act (No. 34) to amend the Auckland Waste Lands Act of 1858. There is also an Act (No. 21) to amend and consolidate the law relating to gold fields.

No. 17. For facilitating issue of Crown Grants.

The first of these Acts provides for the issue of grants of land in the several provinces, instead of, as heretofore, only in Auckland. For this purpose Commissioners are appointed by the Governor in Council, who may also appoint seals to be used by them, and these Commissioners are to issue grants within their respective provinces, which are to be as effectual as if passed under the public seal of the colony. But any person desiring to obtain a grant under the hand of the Governor and the seal of the colony may obtain such a grant, on demand.

No. 18. Authorizing Grants for the settlement of Native Claims.

The Act No. 18 has been passed, in conformity with a recommendation of your Grace, to enable the Governor to fulfil engagements made with certain natives at the time their land was ceded to the Crown, the non-fulfilment of which had naturally given rise to complaint and dissatisfaction.

It provides, 1st, that the Governor may fulfil any such contracts, promises, &c.; and, 2d, that he may fulfil any unwritten contracts, promises, or engagements made with natives, on being satisfied with the evidence adduced in proof.

No. 23. Appointment of Commissioner of Crown Lands.

No. 23 provides for the appointment of a Commissioner of Crown lands in each province, and empowers him to prepare and issue grants and leases,—to regulate the sale and disposal of Crown lands,—to prevent trespassing, and to expel trespassers and their goods and cattle,—to ascertain the limits, and define the boundaries of land held under lease or licence,—to settle disputes among lessees and licensees,—to recover monies due on lands, and to enforce contracts, and resume possession where contracts are not performed. The Act further makes provision for enabling the Commissioners to execute these duties.

Nos. 28. & 29. Land Revenue Appropriation Acts.

The Acts 28 and 29 repeal so much of the "Land Revenue Appropriation Act, 1858," as appropriates a portion of the land revenue in each of the provinces in the northern island to the extinguishment of the native title. By the Act of 1858 the land revenue was made over to the several provinces within which it had accrued, but one-sixth of its gross amount in the provinces of Auckland, Wellington, and New Plymouth was to be appropriated exclusively to the extinguishment of the native title, and, until required for that purpose, the money was to be invested by the Governor. The two present Acts repeal these provisions. The first directs that the one-sixths heretofore paid to the colonial treasurer under the Act of 1858 shall in future be paid to the provincial treasuries, and be subject to the appropriation of the provincial legislatures. The second repeals the sections of the Act of 1858 which relate to the subject. No. 34, to amend the Auckland Waste Lands Act, reduces from five to three years the residence required of immigrants obtaining land orders under the Land Act of 1858. It extends to military and naval settlers who quit the service for the purpose of settling in New Zealand, the same privileges as the Act of 1858 gave to those who quitted the service to settle in Auckland, and it releases from the obligation of settlement duties (which are not required by the Act of 1858) military and naval settlers who obtained land under the regulations of 1855. To encourage immigration it allows to every immigrant approved by the Immigration Board a land order of 20 acres of country land and one acre of town land for each adult male,—10 acres of country land for each adult female, and one acre of country land for each child under 21 years, on condition (1.) of repayment of any expense incurred by the colony for passage; (2.) of payment within 10 years of 5*l.* per acre for town land, and 2*l.* per acre for country land; and (3.) of payment of interest on such sums at the rate of six per cent. The superintendent is authorized to set apart blocks of land for immigrants, and, with the Council, to make regulations for giving effect to the Act, and service in the militia in any part of New Zealand is declared to count as residence in Auckland. Waste Lands Act.

No. 34, amending Auckland

This Act abolishes the free grants of land allowed by the Act of 1858, for the new land orders of which it sanctions the issue are not free grants, but grants for which payment is defined.

The Act No. 21, to consolidate the laws relating to the gold fields, empowers the Governor to proclaim gold fields,—to issue miners' rights on payment of 1*l.*,—business licences on payment of 5*l.*,—and licences for the sale of beer and spirits on payment of such fee as he shall think fit; such rights and licences to be in force for 12 months. The Governor in Council may also exempt any portion of a gold field from occupation under a miners' right or business licence, and may cancel the licence or lease of any land held for depasturing purposes on which gold may be discovered, the lessee or licencee being entitled to compensation. The terms and conditions of miners' rights and of licences or leases are to be settled by the Governor in Council. The Governor in Council may also, on petition of not less than 100 persons holding miners' rights or leases, declare a gold field to be a district for the purpose of forming a mining board, and may prescribe the number of the board, and the mode of electing the members. The mining board is to have power to make regulations for the manage- No. 21. Amending Laws relating to Gold Fields.

From the United Kingdom.

Of the 14,401 immigrants from the United Kingdom there were conveyed,—

By steamers from—
Liverpool	5,431
Londonderry	3,308
Glasgow	2,855
Cork	872
By seven sailing vessels under the Passengers Act, three from England, three from Scotland, and one from Ireland	1,439
By 52 vessels not under the Act	496

Length of passage.

The average length of the passage by steamers was 13¼ days from Liverpool and 18 from Glasgow. The passage by sailing vessels from the United Kingdom averaged 36⅓ days, and from the continent of Europe 50⅓ days.

Mortality on the voyage from the United Kingdom.

The emigration from the United Kingdom was attended with little loss of life. There were only seven deaths in all; consisting of one man, two women, and four infants. In the ships from foreign countries the loss of life was more considerable, and exceeded that of 1861, when it averaged two per cent. Of the Norwegians there died 184 on the passage and 42 in quarantine, making together 226, or more than four per cent. of the whole number. Among the Germans, there died 77 at sea and 15 in hospital. The diseases which proved so fatal were small-pox, scarlet fever, and ship fever, fostered by the crowded state of some of the vessels, and by the absence, as it is alleged, of the most simple precautions for health.

The number of persons, excluding cabin passengers, who arrived in the province in 1862 was as follows:—

Mr. Buchanan considers that the emigrants who arrived last season, speaking generally, were of a higher grade, and possessed more wealth and intelligence than any who have been introduced in previous years. All found employment readily, and in the agricultural districts the demand for both men and women was very often insufficiently supplied. Female servants were in great request. But the province has already as many educated women seeking for employment as governesses as it can absorb. Demand for female servants, but none for governesses.

The number of persons aided to emigrate from the United Kingdom was 783, comprising 278 men, 340 women, and 165 children. Of these, England supplied 358, Ireland 330, and Scotland 95. Number and description of assisted emigrants from the United Kingdom.

The English consisted of 63 boys and 18 girls from reformatories, who easily found employment, and, with few exceptions, conducted themselves well, 29 sent out under the poor laws, and 69 families, numbering 248 souls, from Bedworth and Coventry, whose passages were paid by public subscription. The heads of these families had all been more or less employed as agricultural labourers when unable to get work at their trade as ribbon makers, and being generally young and active, they had no difficulty in procuring work in Upper Canada as farm labourers.

Among the Irish there were 95 coopers, sent out by an association in Cork, 168 women and girls from the unions of Ballycastle, Balrothery, Carlow, Clonmel, Cork, Kanturk, and Tullamore, 5 men and 13 women from the estates of Lord Palmerston in Sligo, and 49 from those of other private persons. The first got work on farms, not being able to find employment in their own trade, which is differently carried on in the province and in this country. The women and girls from the unions were all strong and robust; they received 10*s.* each on landing, and were promptly located in country districts. The tenants of Lord Palmerston also found no difficulty in procuring employment, being an eligible class of immigrants. Thirty-two of the girls from Scotland were aided to emigrate by the Female Emigration Society of Edinburgh. They received each a dress and free passage, and engaged to repay the society half the cost of the passage out of their first earnings. They went out under the guardianship of two matrons, and were directed straight to Toronto, and all found places on their arrival. Sixty-three other persons were also helped by private individuals, and all were satisfactorily disposed of.

Prospects of emigrants.

With regard to the prospect of this year's emigration, Mr. Buchanan speaks with some caution on the subject of the anticipated emigration of cotton operatives from Lancashire. He appears to consider that there is room for a considerable number of persons well selected, who have been employed in out-door work. But the Lancashire operatives are not generally the class of persons wanted in Canada, and an indiscriminate emigration might be attended with great inconvenience.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

Immigration.

We learn from the Report of the Immigration Agent that the number of immigrants landed at St. John's from vessels which cleared under the Passengers' Act was 548. Of these, 157 sailed from Londonderry, 138 from Galway, and 253 from Glasgow. Among the emigrants from the last-mentioned port, 134 were from Fair Isle, sent out by Sir John McNeill, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors for Scotland. The sum of 52*l.* 10*s.* sterling forwarded by the Board was paid to them at landing, being at the rate of 10*s.* for each statute adult. There does not appear to have been any mortality in any of the five ships which cleared under the Act. There were also landed at St. John's 125 passengers who went out in vessels which did not come under the provisions of the Act, and 28 passengers were taken out by the Montreal and Ocean line of steamers, viâ Portland and Quebec. The immigrants taken collectively are reported to be superior in health and appearance to those of former years, their strong and robust look giving evidence of the goodness of the accommodation and provisions supplied on the passage.

Number of assisted emigrants from Scotland.

Immigration from United States.

The Immigration Agent reports that a considerable number of settlers have located themselves in the counties of Carleton and Victoria, having crossed the lines between the United States and the Province with the intention of making New Brunswick their home. He also mentions that in the many new settlements which have been formed within the last four years there are evident signs of improvement and progress. In order that settlers may have a choice of locality, fifteen tracts of land lying in convenient districts in the several counties well adapted for cultivation have been surveyed, and are now open to applicants who desire to secure lots under the conditions of the Labour Act. Other tracts are being surveyed from time to time as occasion may require. During the last season 670 applicants have become owners of land, amounting in the aggregate to 62,574 acres, subject to the conditions of occupation and improvement required by the Labour Act. By this statute British subjects who are desirous of becoming settlers may obtain 100 acres of land for 3*s.* currency (2*s.* sterling) per acre, without competition at auction, and have the option of paying for the same either in money or labour on the road. Five years is allowed to complete the payment, but no Crown Grant is issued until the party has resided one year on the land, and has cleared and cultivated at least five acres. A considerable quantity of land has also been purchased for cash and by instalments for the purposes of bonâ fide settlement.

Provisions of Labour Act.

The province at present holds out no inducements to clerks, governesses, or persons who have received a superior education to qualify them for the learned professions or mercantile pursuits. But to all persons in possession of bodily health and strength, whose inclination leads them to become cultivators of the soil, it affords a good opening, with a prospect of attaining by industry and perseverance a considerable degree of comfort and prosperity.

No demand for clerks, governesses, &c.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Gold mines.

The gold fields in Nova Scotia were visited by the Governor, the Earl of Mulgrave, between the 29th May and 9th June 1862, during which time he inspected the gold diggings at Isaac Harbour, Country Harbour, Wine Harbour, Sherbrooke, Tangier, and Lunenburg. After carefully inspecting these diggings, and obtaining all the information in his power, he is led to the opinion that the gold fields will ultimately prove a profitable investment for capital, judiciously expended, and that the colony will soon rank as one of the gold producing countries of the world. At present those employed are generally persons utterly unacquainted with mining operations, and but few of them possess the means necessary to meet the vicissitudes incidental upon all mining operations, and being deficient both in skill and capital, it is only those who are fortunate enough to secure very rich claims who are likely to realize any great return for the labour they are expending.

The conduct of the miners continued to be spoken of as exemplary. Crime and drunkenness are almost unknown at the diggings. The Governor observes that the most remarkable feature of the gold discoveries in this province has been the entire absence of that excitement so common in all other gold fields. Seed-time and harvest are regularly attended to, and the work at the diggings is not permitted to interfere with these necessary operations.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

Questions in dispute between landlord and tenant.

The questions in dispute between the proprietors of land in Prince Edward Island and their tenants still remain unsettled.

25 Vict. c. 19. Act to authorize grants on the shores of the island.

An Act passed by the Colonial Legislature, 17th April 1862, "to authorize grants on the shores of the island," which has since been confirmed, gives the Colonial Government the power of making grants of the shores on the coasts, bays, and rivers of the island between high and low water mark. But your Grace has suggested an amendment, in order to give greater security to the rights of the lessors, and in the meanwhile the governor, who has a discretionary power, is not to sanction the alienation of the front shore in any case in which those rights are not sufficiently protected.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Condition of colony.

The year 1862 opened in British Columbia under some disadvantages, owing to the unprecedented duration and severity of the winter. On the 15th April Governor Douglas writes, "The Fraser burst its frozen barriers a few "days ago, sweeping before it the vast fields of ice which "for nearly twelve weeks have rendered navigation impos- "sible, and completely interrupted the communication by "water with Yale and Douglas. The river steam boats "are again at work; the wants of the country are being "rapidly supplied; trade is active, and the population "generally full of hope and enterprise.

"The accounts from Lytton and the districts east of "the coast mountains are favourable beyond expectation; "no disastrous floods have swept over the fair face of the "country; the mountain roads are uninjured, and the loss "of cattle does not exceed the ordinary casualties of "winter."

State of mining districts.

On the breaking up of the winter a considerable immigration set in to the mining districts, and the small stocks of food were consumed faster than they could be replenished by the tedious and expensive process of packing on mule back. All kind of provisions consequently went up to famine prices, and hundreds of valuable labourers who had no money of their own and could not obtain employment, were compelled to leave the country in haste. The Governor estimates the loss to the revenue from these causes at two months collection. But it is satisfactory to find that the general revenue for the first three quarters of 1862 is stated approximately at 67,073*l.* against 47,000*l.* for the same period of 1861, shewing an increase of upwards of 20,000*l.* or more than 42 per cent.

New Roads.

The work of most importance last year was the commencement of two separate lines of carriage road, terminating at Alexandria, and intersecting the best farming districts of the country. "One of these roads will connect "Lillooet with the carriage road from Douglas, of which "it is to be a continuation; starting from Lillooett it will "follow the valley of the Fraser to Pavillon, and from "thence to the Table Land or Divide, which separates "the waters of Bonaparte from the streams flowing "directly into Fraser river, until it reaches William "Lake, beyond which it will re-enter and follow the "valley of the Fraser to the termination of the road at "Alexandria.

"The other line commences at Yale and follows the "present mule road by the passes of the Fraser to "Lytton; thence bending South and keeping the banks "of Thompson river, it will enter the valley of Bonaparte "a few miles from its débouche, and follow the course "of that stream and the Table Land beyond it to Axe "Lake, and thence take a North-west course to William's "Lake, where it will form a junction with the road from "Lillooet, and continue on the same line to Alexandria."

From Alexandria upwards the country becomes more accessible for trade; the Fraser no longer retaining its dangerous character, becomes a smooth and navigable stream, presenting comparatively few obstacles to the navigator. Departing from the general North by West course, which it maintains from Hope upwards, one branch bends to the East at Fort George, and then stretching away in a South-easterly direction towards the rocky mountains, it incloses, as a base, the Carriboo district, thus forming a means of communication which will lessen the cost of mining operations, and greatly facilitate the progress of settlement.

The construction of the lines of road from Lytton to Alexandria and from Lillooet to Alexandria was let, under contract, to the largest commercial firms of the colony. A portion of the line from Yale to Lytton, about Governor's Despatches to the Duke of Newcastle of 27th Oct. and 15th Dec. 1862.

50 miles, was undertaken by Government, the remaining portion constituting the most difficult section between Yale and Boston Bar, was assigned by contract to Mr. Joseph Trutch, said to be a gentleman of engineering ability. The works on the two lines, as well as on Mr. Trutch's section, were to be carried on at the cost of the contractors, aided by loans from the Government, the contractors being reimbursed exclusively by tolls, on which, however, the loans form a first charge. The portion of the work undertaken at the cost of Government has been completed. Mr. Trutch's section will not be completed till the spring, for the removal of one of the mountain shoulders, involving about 100,000 cubic feet of blasting in the solid rock, and upon which only a limited number of men can be simultaneously employed, cannot be earlier effected. Upon the line from Lytton to Alexandria, 45 miles of road are said to have been constructed in a creditable manner, at an outlay of 100,000 dollars; but the contractors found they had commenced a gigantic undertaking with inadequate means, and were compelled to relinquish it, throwing the road upon the hands of the Government when only half completed. From Lillooet towards Alexandria, 128 miles of road have been completed at an outlay of 190,000 dollars. In order to complete these works, it has been necessary to increase the loan from 50,000*l.* to 100,000*l.*, the sum originally sanctioned; but it is calculated that the tolls levied on the new roads will yield an income not only sufficient to pay the interest of the loan, but also to provide for the repayment of the capital.

Loan for completing the roads now under construction.

Reduction in cost of transport.

As an illustration of the immediate gain to the revenue, and enormous saving which will be effected in the cost of inland transport by the present work, the Governor mentions the following facts:—"Up to the end of last summer, "the lowest charge for carrying goods from Douglas by "way of Lillooet to Alexandria was 61 cents. per pound, "or $1,366 per ton. Now, in anticipation of the comple-"tion of the road, one of the most substantial carriers in "the colony has lately tendered for the transport of all "Government stores required in 1863 over the same line, "at the rate of 21 cents per pound; that is, at a reduc-"tion of no less than 40 cents per pound, or 896 dollars "per ton, as compared with the rate charged in 1862." Again:—"By the returns of road tolls, it appears that "4,200 tons of goods have passed Yale and Douglas in "1862 for the upper country. Assuming that, at a very "low estimate, 1,000 tons were forwarded to Quesnel

" and Alexandria, and that a like quantity only will be " taken up in 1863, the aggregate saving to the public by " the reduction in the cost of transport at the rate before " stated, would amount to no less a sum than 896,000 " dollars."

Road Tolls Act.

The Lillooet Alexandria Road Tolls Act impose a charge of one halfpenny a pound on all goods passing over the new roads, and it is calculated that these tolls will yield a collective sum of 16,000*l.* for the year ending 31st December 1863.

Governor's visit to principal towns.

In the course of September and October, Governor Douglas visited all the principal towns in British Columbia, and inspected the new roads, which, in smoothness and solidity, surpassed his expectation. He perceived a striking improvement in all the principal towns except Hope, which is almost deserted in consequence of the migration of the inhabitants to Carriboo and other places. The settlers are beginning to take up public land along the course of the public roads, and are turning their attention to tillage and stock raising. Farm produce of all kinds fetches an enormous price, not at Carriboo only, but in the midland districts as well. Hay was selling in October last year at Lillooet and Lytton for 5*d.* a lb., or 46*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* per ton. Barley at from 45*s.* to 75*s.* per bushel. Potatoes at 9½*d.* per lb., and garden stuffs of all kinds at the same rate.

Price of farm produce.

Gold mining.

Mining on the Fraser between Hope and Lillooet is now almost exclusively confined to Indians and Chinese. The same remark applies to Shimilkomeen, Roch Creek, and Thompson's River, which are forsaken by the white miners, who, as well as the newly-arrived emigrants, have almost to a man gone to Carriboo. Some valuable specimens of coarse gold have, however, been lately received from a party of miners on the Shimilkomeen River. Gold has also been discovered in the neighbourhood of Okanagan Lake, yielding on an average from seven to fifteen dollars a day per man. But for extent and richness of auriferous deposits there has yet been discovered no place at all to be compared with William's Creek, Carriboo, where last year the gold lead was reached at a depth of 40 and 60 feet, at about a quarter of a mile from the spot where it was before lost. It is therefore inferred that the lead is continuous for that interval, and that it may exist for an indefinite distance down the course of the stream. The yield of gold is stated to have averaged two thousand dollars per running foot of the lead. We place in the Appendix an extract of a Report of Mr. Begbie, the judge of British Columbia, containing a very interesting and detailed account of the recent discoveries and mining operations in this district, from which it will be seen that claims are now taken up at William's Creek for a continuous extent of about five miles by several hundred feet in some places in width, and the lead has been discovered over so many points of this area as to make it quite certain that every claim will next year be thoroughly prospected before one claim is abandoned.

Where claims are worked by tunnel or shaft, a considerable amount of mining operations can be carried on all the year round, as these underground works are beyond the influence of frost and snow. But owing chiefly to the high price and scarcity of provisions, the great majority of the mining population leave Carriboo at the approach of winter, and the district may be said to be deserted for nearly seven months. The number of men remaining in Carriboo at the close of 1862 was only 350; of these 150 were on William's Creek, and the remainder in the southern part of the district. The Reports of the gold commissioners and district magistrates for December are favourable as to the condition and the prospect of the colony. The weather had been uniformly mild, and trade had suffered no interruption from frost and snow. The beef cattle and transport animals wintering at Sumass and in the Thompson and Bonaparte Valleys, preparatory to being sent to the mines, were doing extremely well, owing to the mildness of the season, though not housed, and suffered to roam at large.

MAURITIUS.

Immigration. Appendices, Nos. 16, 17, 18, and 19.

We have not at present received the annual Report of the Immigration Agent in Mauritius for the year 1862, but it appears by the Immigration Returns that the number of Indian immigrants introduced in the year was—

	Adults.	Children.
Males - -	6,804	636
Females - -	1,933	520
	8,737	1,156
Total - - -	9,893

Of these, 3,831 were from Calcutta; 4,766 from Madras; and 1,296 from Bombay.

Proportion of females.

The proportion of females to males was 32·97 per cent.

Mortality on the voyage.

The rate of mortality during the passage was, from Calcutta, 2·68; from Madras, 90; and from Bombay, 30 per cent.

Emigration.

The departures from Mauritius in 1862 were—

	Adults.	Children.
Males	1,617	135
Females	316	144
	1,933	279
Total	2,212

Proportion of females.

The proportion of females to males among the return immigrants was 26·25 per cent.

Number of labourers under contract.

The total number of labourers engaged under contract in 1862 was 80,424, and the total number discharged was 39,906.

Number of Africans landed in the Seychelles.

There were landed at Seychelles, in 1862, 193 liberated Africans, captured by H.M. ship "Ariel." Of these there were—

Men above 15	41
Women above 15	28
Boys under 15	87
Girls under 15	37
	193

The whole were distributed among the planters of the Seychelles on the payment of from 12*s.* 6*d.* to 13*s.* a head for passage and food from Zanzibar. Those who received men and boys were required to accept a proportion of women and children. No difficulty appears to have arisen in the distribution.

WEST INDIES.

Coolie emigration.

Number of ships and coolies despatched from the East to the West Indies in 1861–62.

During the season of 1861–62 twenty-seven ships were despatched from Calcutta and three from Madras, and the entire number of coolies landed in the West Indies was 10,880, of whom 9,855 were from Calcutta and 1,025 from Madras. This emigration was distributed as follows :—

To British Guiana - -	3	1,036	4	15	1·44

It will be seen from this table that the mortality in the Madras ships was as usual small, being under $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. The voyage from Calcutta has always been attended with greater loss of life, the Bengal coolies being more susceptible of disease at sea. But in the last three years there has been a manifest improvement. The per-centage of deaths which, in 1859–60, was 11·8 per cent., was reduced to 8·5 in 1860–61, while last year, as shown above, it was 5·01. This is the smallest mortality since 1854–55.

Improvement in health in Calcutta ships. Attributable in part to the use of Normandy's apparatus, and to employment in Indian ships of surgeons of experience in Australian service.

One of the chief causes of the mortality in former years has been the prevalence of cholera in the depôt at the time of embarkation; but last year, with the exception of six cases in the "Prince Regent," the ships were almost exempt from that disorder, though not free from dysentery and diarrhœa. As this was the first season in which the use of Normandy's water distilling apparatus, and the employment of our Australian surgeons, have been tried to any extent in this service, we have watched with anxiety the effect they would produce in lessening the mortality of the season. And although it is difficult to pronounce confidently of their effect from one year's experience, the difference in the healthiness of the ships in which they have been tried is so marked as to justify the conclusion that they have contributed in no small degree to the result. In ten ships, carrying neither our surgeons nor the distilling apparatus, the rate of deaths was 7·07 per cent. In four ships not carrying our surgeons, but carrying the distilling apparatus, it was 5·60; and in the 13 remaining ships which carried our surgeons, but in three of which there was no distilling apparatus, the per-centage was 3·36. The largest mortality, as in the preceding season, was in the Jamaica ships, amounting in the six vessels to 8·95 per cent. But even this was an improvement on the previous season, when it averaged 11·71 per cent. The average mortality in the 11 British Guiana ships was 4·52, while in 12 vessels despatched in 1860–61 it was 8·07 per cent. The average per-centage of deaths in the five Trinidad vessels was 3·48. The year before it was 6·89. A peculiar feature in last year's emigration was the comparatively small number of deaths among the children. It must, however, be borne in mind that fewer than usual were embarked, and that it is only when a large number are on board that the mortality in this class is usually very high. The per-centage of deaths among children under 12 years of age in the last three seasons was as follows:— Reduction in the mortality amongst children.

The transfer of a portion of our Australian surgeons to the West Indian service, besides the good effected on the voyage, seems likely to be beneficial in another way, by supplying us with more ample and valuable information than could be obtained from any other source as to the causes of disease, and the precautions to be taken against it. The regulations for emigration from Calcutta have recently undergone revision by the Indian Government, and a copy of the revised rules we place in the Appendix. Another measure which we learn has been adopted in the last year by the Indian Government, has been the appointment of a permanent medical officer to exercise, on the part of the Government a general supervision over all the emigrant depôts in Calcutta, to see that the health of the coolies is duly cared for at the depôts, and, independently of the surgeon of the ship, to examine the emigrants before embarkation.

Revised rules for emigration from Calcutta. Appendix, No. 45.

Appointment by Indian Government of medical inspector of emigrant depôts in Calcutta, and of coolies prior to embarkation.

The following table shows the number of coolies ordered for the West Indies for the season 1862–63, and the number despatched.

Numbers despatched. Appendix, No. 21.

It will be seen from the preceding table that the number despatched to British Guiana was 562 short of the requisition. Mr. Marriott, the emigration agent for the colony, explains that this would not have occurred but for the heavy demand for tonnage to China towards the end of the season, which raised freights so considerably as to preclude him (being limited to 13*l.* per adult) from engaging another ship. The "Gipsy Bride," which, as mentioned below, carried return coolies from British Guiana, had been conditionally engaged to take back immigrants to the colony, but on survey in Calcutta she was pronounced to be unfit for the service without extensive repairs, which the ship agents declined to do. The people who had been collected for the "Gipsy Bride" all volunteered for Trinidad, St. Croix, and Cachar.

Native origin of coolies despatched to British Guiana.

Of the emigrants despatched to British Guiana, Mr Marriott reports that 926 were natives of Bengal, 1,609 were from the north-western provinces and adjacent districts, and 352 were Junglies or Hill coolies. Of the Hill coolies, who make the best agricultural labourers, and who, as a rule, are the only people who emigrate in families, the number despatched this season has been comparatively small, in consequence, as it is stated, of the great demand for them for the tea cultivations at Assam and Cachar. Owing to the falling through of the "Gipsy Bride," the proportion of females to males in the British Guiana ships was 11 below the proper complement. The average rate of passage money for the British Guiana ships was 12*l.* 17*s.* 2½*d.* per adult.

Sanitary precautions on board vessels to British Guiana.

Each vessel was supplied with Normandy's apparatus, and was under the superintendence of a surgeon previously employed in our service. There was also a staff of assistants in each ship, consisting of an assistant to the surgeon, who acted as compounder and interpreter, two other interpreters, and a topaz, to each 100 adults, and on board the last ship, the "Maryborough" (by a recent order of the Indian Government), there were two professed cooks.

Arrival in West Indies of vessels despatched in 1862–3.

We have received intelligence of the arrival in the West Indies of eleven of the ships (including two from Madras) despatched this season, and the following table of the mortality in the Calcutta immigration, shows that this season's emigration promises to be even more healthy than the last.

"Gipsy Bride," return of coolies by, from British Guiana. Appendix, No. 22.

On the 24th August the "Gipsy Bride" sailed from Demerara for Calcutta with 407 return Indians, of all ages. The amount of savings deposited in the colonial chest by these people, for remittance to India, was 43,122 dollars; and many of them, who were not entitled to return passages at the expense of the colony (having been introduced since 1st December 1853) paid, altogether, 4,800 dollars for their passages, as well as 2,138 dollars for their clothing. The immigration agent of British Guiana estimates that, including the money they carried with them and the jewels on their persons, the immigrants by the "Gipsy Bride" have taken with them from British Guiana nearly 15,000*l.* sterling.

Emigration of laborers from St. Vincent to Trinidad and Grenada.

In the beginning of the present year a number of the labouring population were reported to be leaving the Calliaqua district, St. Vincent, for Grenada and Trinidad. But Governor Walker explains that a small migration has been going on at intervals for many years in almost all these islands. Some of the persons referred to leave periodically for Trinidad, and return after the crop is over.

The following laws relating to immigration were passed in the West Indies last year:—

British Guiana.

Ordinance to extend the amount of the loan for the payment of the cost of Chinese immigrants.

1. An ordinance, passed by the Legislature of British Guiana, to extend the amount of the loan for the payment of the cost of the introduction of Chinese immigrants from 100,000*l.* to 150,000*l.* The loan is only an advance to the planters, to be repaid by them in five years; and does not, therefore, create any permanent burthen on the colonial revenue.

Ordinance to amend the Laws relating to Immigration. Appendix, No. 40.

2. An ordinance, passed by the Legislature of Trinidad, to amend and consolidate the laws relating to immigration.

Grenada.

Act to raise temporary loan for the promotion of immigration; and

3. An Act to raise a temporary loan for the promotion of immigration into Grenada. The Act was passed to raise the amount necessary to pay for a ship-load of immigrants, for whom, partly by reason of the increased expense of immigration and partly from the failure of the revenue, the expected funds were not forthcoming.

Act to amend the laws with regard to immigration.

4. A Grenada Act, entitled An Act to amend the laws with regard to immigration. The object of this Act is merely to empower the Governor to pay out of the immigration fund such expenses as may be incurred on account of liberated Africans introduced into the colony.

St. Vincent.

Act to alter and amend the Immigration Acts

5. An Act passed by the Legislature of St. Vincent, to alter and amend the Immigration Act of 1857 and the amended Immigration Act of 1858. The principal objects of this of 1857 and 1858. Appendix, No. 42.

Act are, 1st, to reduce the amount paid by individual employers towards the expense of immigration; 2d, to provide for the enforcement in the colony of contracts for service made in India and China; and 3d, to allow the payment from the immigration fund of the expense of importing liberated Africans.

6. The Legislature of St. Lucia has passed "An Ordinance "to amend the laws now in force in this island relating to "African immigration."

St. Lucia. Ordinance to amend the laws now in force in this island relating to African immigration.

By the St. Lucia law, African immigrants under 18 years of age could be indentured only until they attained that age, consequently, the indentures of immigrants between 15 and 18 were necessarily for a shorter period than three years, fixed for the indentures of those above 18. This was inconsistent, and in many cases inconvenient and undesirable. To remedy the inconvenience, the present Ordinance provides that the indentures of immigrants under 18 shall be for a term of not less than three years. The Ordinance likewise fixes the wages and rations to be issued to such immigrants during the first six months of their indenture, and provides that after the expiration of that period they shall receive the same wages as unindentured labourers on the same estate.

Term for indenture of Africans under 18 years of age.

Antigua. Act to promote the immigration of labourers into, Appendix, No. 43.; and Act to raise loan for the payment of their introduction.

7. An Act passed by the Legislature of Antigua, entitled "An Act to encourage and promote the immigration of "agricultural labourers, and, for the purposes of such im- "migration, to impose certain duties upon the exports of "sugar, rum, and molasses, the produce of the island;" and also, "An Act to raise a loan for the payment of the "cost of the introduction of the agricultural labourers to "this island."

The former of these Acts has been left to its operation, but the Governor has been informed, that in consequence of the apparent uncertainty in the demand for labour in the island, as shewn in his recent despatches, it will be necessary, before Her Majesty's Government consents to the actual commencement of coolie immigration, that a supplementary Act should be passed, placing in the hands of Government the means of providing for the case of any coolies imported under this Act who may afterwards be left without employment or means of subsistence. Your Grace has also intimated to the Governor, that under the existing circumstances, liberated Africans captured by cruizers of the Royal Navy, who are thus placed more under the especial guardianship of Her Majesty's Government, will not be sent to Antigua. Certain alterations have also been suggested in the Immigration Loan Act, to which it is not doubted the Legislature will assent.

By the French Convention, contracts of service for five years may be entered into with coolies emigrating from British India to the French colonies. And in order that our West Indian colonies may be placed on the same footing with them, your Grace has sanctioned similar contracts of service in place of the present system of industrial residence. The only colonies which have at present passed the requisite laws for giving effect to this alteration, are British Guiana and Trinidad.

Substitution of contracts of service with coolies in the West Indies for five years for industrial residence.

We place in the Appendix a copy of the revised rules for regulating the emigration of Indian labourers from the territories subject to the Government of Madras.

Chinese Emigration.

During the season of 1861–62, seven ships were despatched from China to British Guiana with 2,680 emigrants on board, and one ship to Trinidad with 549. There were nine births and 97 deaths in the British Guiana vessels, and one birth and 80 deaths in the Trinidad ship, so that the number landed in the former colony was 2,590, and in the latter 467. The rate of mortality in the seven British Guiana ships was 3·6 and in the one Trinidad vessel 14·5, equal to 5·4 per cent. on the whole number embarked. This is a larger mortality than in the two preceding seasons, as will be seen from the following summary :—

Chinese emigration to British Guiana and Trinidad.

Appendices, Nos. 23. & 24.

Mortality in emigration, 1859–60, 1860–61.

——	Ships.	Embarked.	Per centage of Deaths.
In 1859–60 -	6	1,972	1·1
In 1860–61 -	10	3,496	3·6

The chief mortality last year occurred, as stated above, in the single Trinidad ship. The emigrants by that ship were embarked at Hong Kong in the "Maggie Millar." But that vessel having met with damage at sea, was obliged to put into Mauritius, where the emigrants were transferred to the "Wanata." Of the deaths, 17 occurred in the "Maggie Millar," and 63 in the "Wanata." The immigration agent at Trinidad states that in the latter ship the people appear to have been treated with kindness and consideration; that the vessel was well appointed, fairly ventilated, and in dry stone ballast, and that there was nothing to account directly for a mortality of 12 per cent. But he imagined that the influence of the hurricane, which dismasted the first ship, and the effect of five months voyage, may have told against the weaker of the people. Be that as it may, the number of vessels despatched in the last three years, especially 1859–60, is so small, that any inference drawn from the variable rate of mortality in these periods would probably be fallacious. So far as we can see, there are no particular or special circumstances, beyond what we have mentioned, which would account for the greater loss of life in the last year's emigration, and if compared with the seasons previously to 1860, it will not appear excessive. Going back to the first Chinese emigration to the West Indies, which took place in 1852–3, when three ships were despatched to British Guiana, and three to Trinidad, we find a striking instance of the variable rate of mortality in a given number of ships. In the three British Guiana vessels, the deaths amounted to 165, equal to 20·3 per cent. on the numbers embarked, while in the three latter vessels the actual deaths were 25 or 2·4 per cent. The per-centage on the six ships was 10·4. In the following year one ship was sent to Jamaica, and the mortality was 43, equal to 13·8 per cent. on the numbers embarked, while in 1858–59 two ships were despatched to British Guiana, in which the mortality amounted to 7·8 per cent. on the numbers embarked.

Variable rate of mortality in Chinese emigrant ships.

Reverting to the season just concluded, the ships were in every case well ventilated, and the provisions apparently neither defective in quantity or quality. Five of the ships were chartered by us in London at the request of Mr. Austin, who apprehended a difficulty in obtaining the requisite amount of shipping in China at the proper time.

Before the conclusion of the season, the state of Mr. Austin's health rendered it necessary that he should give up his employment in China and return to England. The Chinese emigration is at present under the conduct of Mr. Sampson, who was sub-agent at Canton under Mr. Austin. For the present season, 840 Chinese have been ordered for British Guiana, but none for any other colony.

Retirement of Mr. Austin as Emigration Agent for British Guiana in China.

African Emigration.

In the course of last year, 426 liberated Africans were sent to British Guiana, 574 to Jamaica, 180 to St. Lucia, 60 to Grenada, 14 to St. Vincent, and 225 to Tobago from sent to the West Indies in 1862. Appendix, No. 25.

By the treaty concluded between the United States and this country on the 7th April 1862, for the more effectual suppression of the slave trade a reciprocal right of search and detention is conceded under certain conditions to the vessels of war belonging to the two nations within a specified distance of the coast of Cuba, and also of certain parts of the coast of Africa. By the terms of this treaty, in the absence of any exempting provisions, British vessels proceeding to the coast of Africa in order to remove liberated Africans from the British possessions there to other British colonies, or actually engaged in the conveyance of such Africans, might be liable to be seized and taken before a mixed commission court, without the possibility of obtaining compensation when the legality of their voyage had been established. A similar result would ensue to American ships carrying Africans to Liberia, or some other part of the coast of Africa. To prevent this a mutual agreement has been entered into by the two Governments that it shall be competent to them respectively to issue passports or safe conducts, which shall exempt vessels employed in the above manner from the liability to any obstruction in the prosecution of their voyage. An Act is now before Parliament to give effect to this supplementary agreement. The passports are to be signed by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies in respect of British ships, and by the Secretary of State of the United States Government in respect of American ships.

HONDURAS.

Among the Acts passed by the Legislature of Honduras in 1862 is one for the promotion of immigration, and another to render more stringent the medical provisions of the Immigration Act of 1861. The latter Act provided, that whenever an employer had in his employ 100 immigrants or more on one estate or on several estates, within a radius of two miles, he should build and maintain a hospital for their use. This of course implied that for any less number than 100 no hospital need be provided. In other West Indian colonies hospital accommodation is made obligatory on every applicant for immigrants, however few, or power is given to the Governor to make regulations, having the force of law, for the medical care of such immigrants. municating, therefore, to the Governor the confirmation and allowance of these Acts, your Grace intimated to him that if Indian immigrants should be desired by the colonists, the proprietors must be prepared, before they could expect the sanction of the Indian Government, to incur greater expense than appeared to be contemplated in respect of medical care, —that it might not be necessary to require the erection of a hospital on every estate, but that where the number assigned should amount to 20 or more, provision must be made for the separation and proper treatment of any that might fall sick, and that where the number might be smaller, the Lieutenant-Governor should have power to make regulations for their proper care in sickness; that the same stipulations, though not altogether to the same extent, would apply to Chinese, but not to Yucatanese. With respect, however, to these latter people, your Grace was of opinion that there was nothing to justify the application of public funds to their immigration, and that all that was required in their case would be,—1. Provision to secure that the short sea voyages were conducted under proper precautions for the security of life and health. 2. A law giving validity to contracts of service made for three years, of which the terms were approved by a Government officer, as fair to the immigrant. And, 3, a power to the Lieutenant-Governor to stop the immigration, if, from the mode in which it was carried on, or from the number or character of the persons introduced under it, it became threatening to the tranquillity or well being of the colony. A later Act has been passed, intituled "An Act to encourage the immigration of agricultural and other labourers into the colony of British Honduras," which empowers the Lieutenant-Governor to appoint ports whence immigrants may be imported, subject to the provisions of the Passengers' Act. It also contains provisions to allow contracts of service, for periods not exceeding three years, to be entered into with immigrants imported under the Act, subject to certain conditions.

THE TURKS ISLANDS.

Salt ponds.

Conversion of leasehold into freehold tenure.

The question of the conversion of the leasehold tenure of the salt ponds in the Turks Islands into freehold has been again under consideration during the last year. We mentioned in our last Report that the lessees had declined a commutation at the rate of 20 years' purchase of the annual value of the rents, to be payable in four annual instalments, and had applied to be allowed to convert the leasehold into a freehold tenure, in consideration of an extra duty on salt exported. After a correspondence with the late President Inglis on the subject, and in accordance with his opinion, your Grace authorized his successor to propose to the lessees a freehold tenure of their ponds upon the payment by them, as a commutation for the rental, of 12½ per cent. on the value of all salt exported, leaving the export duty at its present rate of a farthing a bushel.

Commutation duty on salt exported.

A strong desire, however, has been expressed by the lessees that the commutation duty should be fixed at 10 instead of 12½ per cent. The new President estimates that 10 per cent. would probably keep the Crown revenue at its existing amount, and he has recommended that the lower rate should be accepted, but coupled with an increase of the colonial export tax from a farthing to a halfpenny a bushel. The Acts imposing these duties (No. 20 of 1860 and No. 10 of 1862) continue in force until 1st January 1866, and thence to the end of the next session of the Legislative Council. We understand that your Grace has decided to agree to these terms, subject to certain alterations in the provisions of the Acts passed by the Legislature of the Turks Islands for the purpose of giving effect to the measure.

NATAL.

Tribal titles to land.

In our last report we adverted to the discussions which had taken place in the preceding year between Lieutenant-Governor Scott and the Legislative Council, on the question of granting to the natives of Natal documentary titles to the lands assigned to them; we mentioned that the Lieutenant-Governor was in favour of vesting the lands, in the first instance, in the hands of trustees for the several tribes, with a view to their eventual subdivision among smaller bodies, and even families and individuals, but that the Legislative Council were for dividing the land at once among the natives by individual titles. During the last year the question has been again under the consideration of the new Legislative Council. This body, though adhering to the opinion of the late Legislative Council, have proposed, as an intermediate course, that the lands should, in the first instance, be vested in the Lieutenant-Governor as the sole trustee of the whole. Their object in this proposal is to exclude the native chiefs from the trust. On this point they observe, with much apparent force, that if a numerous trust were constituted, of which the chief was a member, as was originally proposed, the working of the trust would in course of time practically fall into his hands; that this would increase and perpetuate his authority over the tribes, and that as it would be his interest to keep the land, on which his influence depended, together, he would discourage to the utmost of his power any attempt on the part of individuals to obtain individual titles. Thus, one of the objects which the Government has declared should be kept steadily in view, would be defeated, or seriously impeded, while the most intelligent and enterprising members of the tribe would become objects of suspicion and discouragement to the chiefs. Although there are some obvious objections to imposing on the Lieutenant-Governor, with the various other duties which he has to perform, a new and important trust of this nature, involving the necessity of deciding on many delicate and intricate questions, which may possibly bring him into collision with his Legislature, yet the objections to allowing the management to fall into the hands of the chiefs are so serious that we believe your Grace has sanctioned the Lieutenant-Governor's acceptance of the proposed trust, subject to the condition proposed by the Lieutenant-Governor, and agreed to by the Council, that the Legislature will grant the necessary funds, not exceeding 1,000*l.* a year, to provide the additional subordinate assistance that will be requisite.

Increase in the number of Zulu Kafirs in colony since 1824.

Before passing from this subject, it may not be irrelevant to notice the rapid progress which the Zulu Kafirs have made within the colony during the last few years. It is stated, that when British traders first entered Natal in 1824, they found only a few native stragglers there; that in 1836 there were only 1,000 adult males; that in 1840 the natives had increased to 30,000 souls, in 1848 to 80,000, in 1853 to 130,000; and that now there are supposed to be 180,000, or 12 times as many as the whites. It is difficult to contemplate so rapid and continuous an increase without alarm. Nor can it be concealed that it renders almost hopeless the project of amalgamating the races, and teaching the arts of civilization to the Kafir, by the example of his white fellow subjects.

Endowment of Pietermaritsburg and D'Urban colleges.

We mentioned in our last Report that it was proposed to establish two collegiate institutions, one at Pietermaritsburg, and the other at D'Urban, and to endow them, wholly or in part, with land of the value of 11,000*l.*, of which 5,000*l.* was to be given by the Local Government, and 6,000*l.* by the respective corporations. We observed, that if the whole were given in land it would amount, at the Government up-set price, to 55,000 acres, or 86 square miles; that in order to render the land valuable, it must be retained in the hands of the trustees for many years, and that so retained it would interfere with the progress of the district. In a subsequent despatch the Lieutenant-Governor has explained that he never contemplated giving a large tract of land at the upset price, but rather small separate pieces, of high value. Two portions have, accordingly, been given; one to Pietermaritsburg Institution, containing 2,427 acres, and valued at 3,004*l.*; another to D'Urban Institution, containing 2,542 acres, and valued at 3,238*l.* The whole extent of the Government grant will, therefore, be under 6,000 acres, which was formerly the size of single farms. The Municipality of D'Urban has given 30 acres for their college, and both the corporations have decided to give the remainder of the endowment in proceeds of land already sold, instead of in land.

CEYLON.

Immigration from India.

There are now three Government emigration vessels stationed at Manaar, plying regularly between the continent of India and Ceylon, and bringing over their living freight, as stated by the Governor, in good health and condition. The return for the month of June showed nearly 10,000 arrivals. Of the three vessels so employed, two, the "Sarah Armitage," (165 tons), and the "Geraldine," (87 tons), are first-rate vessels, and far superior to any that have ever been employed in a similar service before. The third, the "Aditetchinny," is now being fitted up to place her accommodations on a level with those of the other two. The cost of these three vessels is 2,352*l.* per annum; and such is the influx of immigrant coolies by them, and so completely have the native boats been driven out of the field, that the Governor expects that, with the moderate charge of 6*d.* per head for each passenger, the scheme will be a self-supporting one.

Number of vessels engaged in conveyance of immigrants.

Appointment of Superintendent of immigration.

Mr. T. J. Ready has been appointed Superintendent of Immigration on a salary of 400*l.* per annum, and is at present stationed at Devipatnam, the port on the opposite shore, at which the immigrant coolies embark.

The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has also taken measures for improving the line of coolie communication, by repairing and opening roads and digging wells.

Ordinance for the protection of Indian immigrants.

An Ordinance has been passed "to extend the provisions "of the Ordinance No. 1. of 1860, and to make offences "against the Indian Act, No. 23. of 1859, punishable in "Ceylon." These two last-mentioned laws were passed by the Ceylon and Indian Legislatures, for the protection of Indian emigrants. But a difficulty was found in enforcing them, because many of the infractions of the Indian law were only discoverable in Ceylon, and of the Ceylon law in India. To remedy this, the present Ordinance imposes a penalty on a vessel arriving in Ceylon with an excess of passengers, or with less accommodation than is required by its licence, or without having been furnished with the legal quantity of provisions and water, or without the proper certified list of passengers. Provision is also made to secure due inspection of the vessel on arrival, and to prevent the landing of passengers at any port other than that at which they had contracted to land. The penalties are made recoverable before a police magistrate.

Ordinance to ascertain the proportion of mortality amongst the natives of India employed in Ceylon.

Another Ordinance has been passed during the last session "to ascertain the proportion of mortality amongst the "natives of India employed in agriculture and other labour "in Ceylon."

The number of labourers who emigrate from India to Ceylon is much larger than the number who return to India. This has given rise to erroneous impressions as to the mortality of Indians in the colony. The Ordinance has been passed to ascertain the truth, and correct the prevailing impressions. With that view, it provides that every employer shall make to the Government agent, or other officer named by the Government, a quarterly return of the number of Indians in his employ, and the number of deaths during the preceding three months, with the names, sex, and age of the deceased, the name of his village, and the probable cause of death. The Government agent is authorised to receive evidence to verify this return, and penalties are denounced against persons making no, or false, returns, or giving false evidence.

HONG KONG.

Land sales.

The Surveyor General of Hong Kong reports a continued demand for land for building, notwithstanding the large quantity which has been sold during the last two years. The lots, 50 in number, sold at the half-yearly land sale, held on the 30th June and 1st July 1862, produced in premiums $65,507 (13,647*l.* 5*s.* 10*d.*), and at the same time added to the annual rent roll of the colony a sum of $6,956. 40 (1,449*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.*) All the available sites for building, within reasonable distance of Victoria, have now been disposed of. We have not yet received a return of the land sales during the second half-year of 1862.

Emigration 1861.

The Governor has reported that, during the year 1861, 37 vessels with 12,840 emigrants, of whom 993 were females, left Hong Kong for the following places, viz. :

Destination.	Ships.	Males.	Females.	Total.
San Francisco	23	7,101	633	7,734
Sydney	8	2,809	—	2,809
Demerara	6	1,937	360	2,297
Total	37	11,847	993	12,840

Being a decrease of 11 ships and 2,343 emigrants on the numbers of 1860. But this is explained by 2,038 emigrants having gone in 1860 to the newly-discovered gold field in British Columbia, while none went to that colony in 1861. There was also a decrease of emigrants to Australia, but, on the other hand, an increase of 494 to California, and 984 to the British West Indies.

Immigration 1861.

The number of Chinese who returned to the colony in 1861 was 2,167, of whom 1,181 were from San Francisco, 958 from Sydney and Melbourne, and 28 from Singapore.

Emigration 1862.

During the year 1862 the emigration from Hong Kong was 9,693 men, 681 women, and 47 children, making together 10,421 souls,—of whom 7,532 went to San Francisco; 979 to the Australian colonies; and 1,910 to the British West Indies.

LABUAN.

Land sold up to June 1862.

The quantity of land alienated since the establishment of the colony of Labuan up to the end of June 1862, exclusive of the Island of Doat, was 504 acres, of which only about 100 acres of country land had been partially cleared. The remaining unalienated land, with the exception of 30 or 40 acres reserved for town lots, is covered with jungle. The Governor states that since his arrival there has been no demand whatever for land, and that the only persons who care to use land are a body of settlers from Borneo, called Kadgans or Moosuts. He estimates their number at about 600 souls. The custom of these people is to clear spots in the jungle about an acre per head, and when they have reaped the crops of paddy, to abandon them for other spots. They decline, however, to purchase or permanently occupy the same land, although they are not unwilling to pay a small tax or licence fee for its use in the manner above described.

By the agreement entered into with the Labuan Company, dated the 12th June 1860, the company, to entitle them to convert their licence into a lease, were bound to raise 15,000 tons of coal during the last 12 months of two years commencing 25th December 1860. Owing to the death of their manager and various other accidents the company's operations were so thrown back as to make it doubtful, in March 1862, whether this condition could be fulfilled. They therefore applied for an extension of the period, and your Grace consented to extend the time for one year. A copy of the new agreement, bearing date 16th August 1862, is placed in the Appendix. In this instrument a clause has been inserted for preserving the rights of individuals in a few cases which had accrued before the 25th December 1860, but which were not known to exist at the time when the former agreement was made.

New agreement with Labuan Company, granting an extension of time for raising 15,000 tons of coal.
Appendix, No. 46.

The amount of coal raised by the Labuan Company up to the 4th August last, is stated to be over 1,000 tons, but no arrangement has yet been made for shipping it. The want of an adequate supply of suitable labour was greatly felt. The Chinese employed by the company work in an irregular manner, and five of the European miners left in August, on the expiration of their two years contract of service. A trial of the coal was made in April 1862 on board Her Majesty's ship "Scout," with satisfactory results.

Quantity of coal raised by the Labuan Company.

By the 4th article of the agreement with the Company, it was left with the Governor to fix the price to be paid for lighterage by Her Majesty's ships coaling at Labuan. After consulting with Commanders Boxer and Rowley, R.N., Governor Callaghan has fixed the charge at 16 cents a ton until further data can be obtained on the subject.

Lighterage dues to be paid by Her Majesty's ships coaling at Labaun.

At the commencement of this Report we have given full details of the emigration of 1862. It may be interesting, under the peculiar circumstances of the present time to add a detail of the emigration of 1863, up to the present date, as contrasted with the emigration of the same period in former years.

Details of the emigration during the first four months of the years 1858, 1859, 1860, 1861, 1862, and 1863.

During the first four months of the year the emigration is for obvious reasons generally small. The numbers who emigrated in those months during the five years preceding the present year were,—

1860	38,285

Proportion of Irish emigration to the United States.

In 1863 they have amounted to 68,571. Of this emigration there proceeded to the United States 46,904, which, though numerically large, is not larger in proportion to the whole than the average of former years. But the proportion of Irish in the emigration was considerably larger than in previous years. Thus the proportion of Irish was in, 1858	54·61 per cent.

1860	64·06 „
1861	63·71 „

In 1863 it was 70·59 per cent.

These facts would at first sight impart some weight to the reports which reach us from various quarters that many of those who are now proceeding from Ireland to the United States are induced to go there by the bounty offered for recruits to the Federal Army. It is alleged that unusual facilities have been offered to young and able-bodied men to procure passages to New York, in the expectation that when they arrive there the bounty will be sufficient temptation to induce them to enlist, and it is inferred that this has been the cause of the great increase of emigration in the first four months of this year.

Proportion of single men to the whole emigration to the United States.

There is one fact, however, which seems to throw some doubt upon that explanation. If the emigration were largely connected with enlistment in the Federal Army it would be natural to expect that among the emigrants there would be a larger proportion of single men than in former years. That, however, is not the case. The proportion of single men to the whole emigration to the United States was in

1860	35·74
1861	32·85

In 1863 it was 36·16.

Upon the whole, therefore, though we by no means deny that a portion of the emigrants may have been induced to emigrate by the high bounty offered to recruits, nor that a considerable number even of those who went out with other views will be tempted by the high bounty, we believe that the great increase in the Irish emigration of the present year is to be attributed rather to the distress caused in Ireland by an unfortunate succession of bad seasons, and to the high wages now prevailing in the United States, than to any pre-conceived intention on the part of the emigrants to take service with either party in the civil war now raging.

The difference between the number of coolies reported to have been embarked in the West Indies, and the number reported to have been landed at Calcutta, is in some cases materially less than the reported number of deaths. This arises partly from births on the voyage, and partly perhaps from the embarkation at the last moment of persons not entered in the lists. It is thought best, however, to give the number as they have been reported to the Board, without attempting to reconcile the discrepancy.

Vessels marked thus * sailed for Calcutta; thus † for Madras; thus *† for both Calcutta and Madras.

‡ In this vessel twelve Maldivians were also embarked.
§ In this vessel two Chinese were also embarked.

APPENDIX No. 31.

QUEENSLAND.

No. V.—An ACT to give the force of Law to Regulations for the Introduction and Protection of Laborers from British India. [Assented to 2d July 1862.]

Preamble. WHEREAS in the second Session of the first Parliament of Queensland, it was resolved by both Houses of the Legislature that His Excellency the Governor should be requested to cause regulations to be framed and published for the introduction of immigrants from British India into the said Colony; and whereas it is expedient that all such regulations should receive direct Legislative sanction: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Governor in Council may issue regulations. 1. It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to issue by Proclamation in the Government Gazette such regulations as may be necessary to provide for the introduction into this Colony of immigrants from Her Majesty's East Indian possessions, and for the maintenance, control, and protection of such immigrants.

Regulations to have force of law 2. All such regulations being in accordance with the requirements of the Imperial Government in that behalf shall have the full force of law from the date of their publication by proclamation in the Government Gazette, and shall at the earliest possible date be laid before both Houses of the Parliament.

Enforcement and cancelling of contracts. 3. Full provision shall be made in such regulations for the enforcement of agreements or indentures made between employers and immigrants from India, and for the cancelling thereof, and any two or more justices in petty sessions shall have power, upon the hearing of any dispute between an employer and an immigrant, to cancel such agreements or indentures if they shall see cause to do so.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE FERGUSON BOWEN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Legislature of Queensland, passed in the twenty-sixth year of Her Majesty's reign, and intituled "An Act to give the force of law to regulations for the intro-"duction and protection of laborers from British India," it was amongst other things provided that it should be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to issue by proclamation in the Government Gazette such regulations as may be necessary to provide for the introduction into this colony of laborers from Her Majesty's East Indian possessions, and for the maintenance, control, and protection of laborers so introduced; and that all such regulations, being in accordance with the requirements of the Imperial Government in that behalf, should have the full force of law from the date of their publication by proclamation in the Government Gazette; and whereas the regulations hereunto subjoined have received the general approval of the Imperial Government; Now, therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, as such Governor as aforesaid, do by this my proclamation, issued with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the above recited Act, declare and proclaim the following to be the regulations under which laborers from British India may be introduced into the Colony of Queensland:—

1. From and after the first day of March 1863, contracts of service to be performed in Queensland for periods not exceeding three years, may be entered into in India between emigrants, male and female, from India to Queensland, and persons residing or having property in the colony, provided that such contracts shall be entered into in the manner prescribed by these regulations, or by others to be hereafter notified: Provided also, that such emigrants shall first bind themselves to an industrial residence, for the full period of five years within the said colony.

2. Every such contract of service entered into in terms of these regulations will be in all respects as valid and effectual as if it had been entered into within the Colony of Queensland, and will be subject to the provisions of the Masters' and Servants' Act of 1861, as provided in clause 2 thereof.

3. In every case in which a passage to Queensland shall have been taken by the government for any immigrant, who shall have entered into a contract as herein aforesaid, the party whom such immigrant shall have engaged to serve shall pay to the government of Queensland the passage money and all other expenses which may be incurred on account of such immigrant together with the proportional expense chargeable upon him on account of females accompanying immigrants under regulations existing at the time. For the present the number of females aforesaid shall be in the proportion of not less than twenty-five per cent. of the number of adult males.

4. The arrival at any immigration depôt in Queensland, of every immigrant who shall have entered into a contract in India as aforesaid, shall, as soon as possible, be published or notified to the intended employer under such contract.

5. It shall be in the power of such employer, or of his representatives, so long as the immigrant shall remain in his or their service, with the consent of such immigrant, to release him from all obligation to serve under the said contract made in India; and every such immigrant, if released in the form prescribed by regulation, shall be free from the said contract and from all obligation of industrial residence or otherwise under the same.

6. If such immigrant shall at the termination of his or her said contract of service refuse to re-engage with the employer under the same, he shall either enter into a contract of service with another employer or other employers successively, for the time required to complete the full term of five years' industrial residence in the colony, or if he or she shall desire to redeem the residue of his or her industrial residence, he or she shall pay to the Colonial Treasury a sum at the rate of 2*l.* 10*s.* per annum for every year or part of a year remaining unexpired of the said term of industrial residence.

7. Every immigrant from India shall, after the completion of such industrial residence of five years, be entitled to a back passage to the port in India from which he or she emigrated, provided that he or she shall claim such back passage at any time within six months antecedent to the period at which such back passage shall be due and claimable, and the cost of such back passage shall be paid to the government by the person originally hiring such immigrant, and by each subsequent employer, in equal proportions according to the length of each engagement.

8. Any sums which may be recovered by government, under section 6 above, shall in each case be paid, on demand, to the employer under the said first-mentioned contract, or to his representative, upon sufficient evidence, to be by them produced, of the right to receive the same.

9. Nothing contained in these regulations shall be held to prevent or restrict the power of the police magistrate or justices, having jurisdiction therein, upon lawful grounds, to order the cancellation of any contract of service. But when such cancellation shall have been ordered, on account of any fault or wrong on the part of the employer, or those for whom he is responsible, he shall have no right to any sum which may be received by government for the immigrant by way of redemption of industrial residence.

10. In case the services of any immigrant, who shall have entered in India into a contract as aforesaid, shall not be claimed by the intended employer under the same, or his agent, duly notified by the employer to the Protector, within seven days after the immigrant's arrival at the depôt in Queensland (such arrival being duly published or notified in terms of the regulations), such immigrant may elect either to enforce the contract, by proceedings before the proper magistrates against the intended employer under the same, or to be entirely free from the obligations of the said contract, subject to his claim of damages for any loss which may arise to him in consequence of non-fulfilment of the contract, which damages may be recovered before any court of petty sessions. Every such election shall be intimated to the Protector of immigrants, and shall by him be recorded in terms of regulations to be framed under this proclamation.

11. It shall moreover be lawful to any immigrant and intended employer, under a contract made in India, to transfer the same, with all its rights and obligations, to a substitute employer, and every such transfer shall assign and transfer to the substituted employer the whole rights and interests under such contract, and all the obligations incumbent upon the intended employer therein. Such transfer shall only be valid if made with the full consent of the original and substituted employer and of the immigrant, and with the approval and concurrence of the government, upon satisfactory reasons being assigned therefor. Every such transfer shall be in the form and be executed in the manner prescribed by regulations under this proclamation. Such transfer may be made either on the immigrant's arrival in Queensland or at any time during the currency of the engagement.

12. During the interval between the arrival at the depôt in Queensland of any immigrant who shall have entered into a contract in India, and his entering the service of his original or substituted employer under the contract, or of any employer to whom he may be allotted, he shall be maintained by the government; and the expense of such maintenance shall be recovered from the intended employer under the contract or from his lawful representative.

13. The immigration agent in Brisbane is hereby appointed to be "Protector of Indian immigrants," and shall perform all the duties herein-after assigned to that office, and shall hereinafter be styled "the Protector." The police magistrates, or nearest bench of magistrates in the several districts, and other persons hereafter to be appointed, shall be charged with the duty of inspecting plantations whereon Indian labourers are employed, hearing complaints, and seeing to the due performance of contracts.

14. The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall appoint fit and proper persons to act as emigration agents for the Colony of Queensland at each port of India from which immigration shall be authorized, and such agents shall be subject to the approval of the Indian government. The salaries or fees payable to such agents shall be provided by payments to be made by the persons introducing immigrants, and not out of the colonial revenue.

15. Every person desirous to engage immigrants in India shall deposit with the Protector at Brisbane, a requisition (as nearly as may be in the form A.) specifying the number of immigranss required by him, in what district in Queensland, and for what kind of service or labour they shall be required, the Presidency of India from which he wishes them to be sent, and whether he is willing to give wages and allowances on the government scale for the time being, or any other, and what wages and allowances. Every such requisition shall be available for the period of fifteen calendar months, to be calculated from its date. All such requisitions shall be laid before the Governor in Council for approval.

16. Every such requisition may at any time be withdrawn by the party who shall have made it, by written notice left with the Protector, and such withdrawal shall be intimated by the Protector to the emigration agent at the presidency from which the immigrants shall be required. But in such case the requisition shall remain in full effect so far as regards any action that shall have taken place upon it before notice of such withdrawal was received by the said emigration agent.

17. All expenses of whatever kind attending the introduction of Indian immigrants shall be borne by the persons introducing them, and at the time of making such requisition as aforesaid the party making the same shall give security to the Protector by bond with one surety (as nearly as may be in the form B. hereto annexed) for payment of any sums that may have been disbursed by the government on account of any expenses incurred in pursuance of such requisition, and shall at the same time deposit with the Protector a sum not less than ten per cent. on the amount of the estimated passage money of such immigrant. The Protector may refuse to deliver any immigrant to his employer until the said payment shall have been made under such bond.

18. As soon as possible after the said requisition and bond shall have been deposited with the Protector, that officer shall transmit a certified copy of the requisition to the emigration agent for Queensland at the presidency from which the immigrants are required, with instructions to forward the object of the requisition with all convenient speed. The Protector shall at the same time transmit to such emigration agent the name and description of any special agent who may have been selected by the requisitionist, and whom the Protector shall not have rejected for that duty,

19. Special agents for employers in Queensland may recruit immigrants for their principals, who shall have complied with the aforesaid requisites, provided that the following conditions be observed :—

(1.) The names of every such agent, and of the person or persons for whom he is to recruit, shall be given at full length to the Protector, who shall transmit the same to the emigration agent at the presidency to which the agent is to be accredited, unless he knows of good reason to the contrary.

(2.) The emigration agent, on receipt of the communication, shall (unless he knows of good reason to the contrary) grant to the special agent a licence, as nearly as may be in the form C., to recruit for the said party, every such licence being for a specified time, not exceeding one year from its date,

(3.) Every special agent shall be under the direction and control of the emigration agent at the presidency for which he shall be licensed, who shall have full power to suspend and withdraw the license in case of misconduct.

(4.) Every principal shall be responsible for the wrongs and breaches of regulations committed by his agent, in so far as that the government may refuse to accept future nominations of agents by employers whose agents shall have more than once wilfully committed any such wrongs or wrongs.

20. The engagement of immigrants for agricultural or pastoral labour may be either at the rate of wages and allowances in the government scale for the time being, or at any other rate which shall be at least equivalent thereto, and which shall be set forth in the requisition.

21. The engagement shall in every case be upon the terms set forth in the requisition, without any deviation whatever; and if the requisition shall not be in accordance with the rules above specified, it will be rejected, and no engagement will be made in pursuance thereof.

22. The emigration agent at each presidency shall, before any contract shall be completed, satisfy himself that the persons proposed to be engaged are in sound health, and have been vaccinated. He shall also explain the contract fully to the immigrant, with the aid (if necessary) of a duly qualified interpreter, and shall take all proper precautions to prevent the immigrant from being induced to contract by any fraud, falsehood, or unfair means or representations.

23. If the emigration agent shall be satisfied that the contract is fully understood by the immigrant, and if not upon the government scale, that it is fair and reasonable, he shall as soon as possible have the same signed in his presence by the immigrant and by the special agent (if any) of the employer, with their names or marks, and he shall certify the same by a docket signed by himself.

24. If the special agent for the employer shall not be present at the time, the emigration agent may sign the contract in his absence, and the contract shall, in that case, be equally valid and binding as if signed also by the special agent; and no contract bearing to be so signed shall be challengeable on the ground that the special agent not subscribing was present at the time.

25. The contract and docket shall contain all the items, and shall be, as nearly as may be, in the terms of form D.; but no such contract shall be void or voidable on account of any informality which does not affect it in substance.

26. The emigration agent shall, upon the first opportunity after the completion of each contract, despatch the immigrant engaged therein to the Protector, along with the original of his contract; and he shall also, with every band of male immigrants so despatched, send the number of females required by the regulations in force at the time. Until otherwise ordered the male immigrants shall be accompanied by twenty-five per centum of females, as per clause 3.

27. The emigration agent shall also, whenever he may see occasion, transmit to the Protector certified copies, one or more, of any contract, and the same, if bearing to be certified by him as true copies and to be subscribed by him, shall have the same effect in law as the original contracts to which they apply, subject only to proof that they are false or inaccurate.

28. The arrival in Queensland of any immigrant who shall have entered into a contract in India with an individual employer shall, as soon as possible, be published by the Protector by written or printed notice, as nearly as may be in the form E., in conspicuous places in and outside of the immigration depot.

29. The Protector, as soon as possible after the arrival at the depot of any immigrants and their contracts, shall cause the same respectively to be registered in the books of his office, after which he shall deliver a certified copy of each contract to the employer under the same, or any one having his authority, along with the immigrants, one or more, thereby engaged.

30. The Protector shall transmit the original contract to the police magistrate, or bench of magistrates nearest to the place in which the service is to be performed, and the employer shall be entitled to retain the certified copy thereof, which, if bearing to be certified as a true copy, and to be signed by the Protector, shall have the same force and effect as an original, subject only to proof that it is false or inaccurate.

31. The Protector shall also deliver to each immigrant a ticket bearing his name, number, and marks, along with the name of his employer, the place where he is to be employed, and the date of registration of his contract.

32. Whenever the Protector shall have delivered any contract and ticket as above mentioned, both parties to the contract shall be entitled to enforce the same by all lawful procedure in the same way as if it had been entered into in Queensland according to the law and practice existing there at the time.

33. When any immigrant shall elect to be free from the obligations of his contract in consequence of his intended employer not having claimed his services, such election shall be intimated to the Protector, and a note thereof (form F.) shall by him be endorsed upon the entry of the contract of such immigrant in the register of the depôt. In every such case the intended employer shall be chargeable to the government with all expenses incurred in providing a back passage to India for an immigrant not employed according to contract, or, if the immigrant shall enter into another engagement, with all expenses attending his maintenance or otherwise incurred before such other engagement is made.

34. Every transfer of a contract shall be in the form G. If made upon the immigrant's arrival in Queensland, and before he shall have entered upon his service, it shall be made before and authenticated by the Protector, or other officer to be appointed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, in that behalf. If made during the currency of the engagement, it shall be made before and authenticated by the nearest police magistrate or bench of magistrates. Before any such transfer shall have been signed, its nature and effect shall be fully explained to the immigrant by the Protector, or police magistrate, or bench of magistrates, as the case may be.

35. The Protector, or police magistrate, or bench of magistrates shall have the power to express the approval and concurrence of the government in the transfer, provided he or they shall be satisfied with the reasons assigned therefor.

36. In no case shall such approval or concurrence be expressed where there is reason to believe that the original engagement with the immigrant was not made with a bonâ fide intention.

37. Wherever the transaction shall appear to be a speculation or trafficking in the services of immigrants through the medium of a pretended employer, the approval or concurrence above mentioned shall be withheld.

38. Any employer who shall desire to release from contract an immigrant engaged to him in India, shall, either personally or by one having his written authority, appear along with the immigrant before the police magistrate or bench of the district, who shall thereupon explain to the immigrant the object and effect of the said release ; and if the immigrant shall understand and agree to the same, he shall cause both parties to sign a memorandum of such release in his presence, authenticating it also by their signed docquet, all as in form H in the schedule. The police magistrate or bench shall then deliver to the immigrant a certified copy of such memorandum, after which he shall transmit the original thereof to the Protector, by whom an entry of the same shall be made on the registry of the said immigrant in the books at the depôt.

39. The government scales of wages and allowances referred to in regulation 20 above shall, until otherwise ordered, be that for the time being authorized for the Colony of Mauritius, with an addition of not less than ten per cent. to the rates therein specified.

40. Upon this basis there shall be fixed, under the authority of the Governor in Council, the rates of wages and allowances for labourers. The scale so prepared shall as soon as possible be published in the Government Gazatte.

41. Similar scales shall be made not later than the month of August in each succeeding year, from which a similar scale of wages and allowance shall in like manner be prepared and published.

42. The scales specified in the preceding articles shall, upon the earliest opportunity, be transmitted to the emigration agents at the several presidencies, in order to be posted up in conspicuous places in or near their depôts, in the several dialects commonly understood in the presidencies respectively ; they shall also be posted up in and near the several depôts in Queensland, in English.

43. In order to provide against any danger of collision between Indian immigrants and the aborigines of the colony, the Governor in Council will not approve of any application for permission to employ such immigrants, unless the district in which it is proposed to employ them shall either be permanently settled and populous, or, in the case of pastoral districts newly proclaimed open to occupation, shall be regularly and efficiently patrolled by a sufficient force of the Native Mounted Police, in addition to such ordinary constabulary as may be stationed in the district.

44. The Governor in Council will not approve of any application for permission to employ Indian immigrants, unless the proposed employer shall prove, to the satisfaction of the government, that he has made due provision for the medical care of such immigrants.

45. Every immigrant, in the absence of any express agreement to the contrary, shall, during illness, receive, instead of wages, such allowances as the state of his health may require, or as may be directed by any regulation hereafter to be issued.

46. Every employer of Indian labour shall keep a muster-roll in form I. as shown in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and shall daily muster the Indians, noting in such roll those that are absent; and within twenty-four hours he shall report to the nearest police magistrate or justice of the peace the names, numbers, and marks of any such absentees.

47. At the end of each quarter the police magistrate of the district or bench of magistrates, as the case may be, will transmit a return to the Colonial Secretary of all desertions so reported, with the results in the several cases; also a return of the names and offences of all Indian immigrants sentenced to imprisonment, specifying the terms of imprisonment, and the names of the employers, &c.

48. Every employer of Indian labor is also required to make quarterly reports to the Protector of the number of such Indian immigrants in his service on the last day of the preceding month, and of all deductions, by deaths or desertions, from the original number.

Given under my hand and seal, at the Government House, Brisbane, this eleventh day of February, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in the twenty-sixth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

G. F. Bowen.

By His Excellency's Command,

A. Macalister.

VICTORIA.

At the COURT at OSBORNE HOUSE, Isle of WIGHT, the 3d day of February 1863.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by the "Passengers' Act, 1855," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit, for preserving order, promoting health, and securing cleanliness and ventilation on board of passenger ships proceeding from the United Kingdom, to any port or place in Her Majesty's possessions abroad; and the said rules and regulations from time to time in like manner to alter, amend, and revoke, as occasion may require:

And whereas, it is expedient to make provision for preserving order in private passenger ships conveying to the colony of Victoria, in Australia, as many as ten unprotected female passengers:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty doth, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in Her by the said "Passengers' Act, 1855," order, and it is hereby ordered, that in addition to the rules prescribed in the Order in Council, dated the twenty-fifth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the rules herein-after contained shall be observed in respect to unprotected female passengers on board such ships as last aforesaid.

1. In the construction and for the purposes of this Order in Council, the term "unprotected female passengers" shall signify every female passenger between the ages of twelve and thirty-five, proceeding to the colony of Victoria by virtue of a passage warrant issued by the government of that colony, who, if married, shall not be accompanied by her husband, or if unmarried, shall not be accompanied by her father or stepfather, or by a married brother with his wife, or a married sister with her husband, or by an unmarried brother over the age of twenty-five; the terms "passengers," "passenger ship," and "master," shall have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said Passengers' Act, 1855, and words used in the plural number shall import the singular number also, and the converse, unless inconsistent with the context.

2. All unprotected female passengers shall, during the voyage, be berthed in open berths, in a compartment in the aftermost part of the upper passenger deck of the ship, effectually divided off by substantial bulkheads from the other portions of such deck; and no single men, or men without their wives, shall be berthed next to the bulkhead dividing off such compartment.

3. The children under twelve years of age of married female passengers, unaccompanied by their husbands, shall be berthed with their mothers.

4. There shall be an entrance to such compartment from the upper deck or poop, exclusively appropriated to the use of such female passengers.

5. There shall be carried on board a matron, to be appointed by the owner or master of the ship, and to be charged with the maintenance of discipline among such female passengers as aforesaid.

6. No unprotected female passenger shall on any account be allowed to act or shall act as servant or attendant on the surgeon, master, or any of the officers of the ship, or on any male cabin passenger.

7. All intercourse between unprotected female passengers and any of the officers or crew of the ship, or between such females and any of the male passengers (except brothers or brothers-in-law, and in case of unprotected married women, their children) is hereby strictly prohibited.

8. The master of the ship, before sailing, shall, with the approval of the Emigration Officer at the port of clearance mark out the proportion of the poop or main deck to be assigned for the purpose of exercise to such unprotected female passengers, who, during the voyage, shall keep within the limits so marked out.

9. Before dark all such female passengers as aforesaid shall go below to their own compartment, and as soon as they are there collected the master shall lock the entrance, and on no account shall any man enter the compartment during the night, except the surgeon in case of illness, or the officers and crew in case danger to the ship shall render their entrance necessary.

10. If the surgeon is required to attend professionally any of such unprotected female passengers at night the matron shall accompany and remain with him while he discharges his duties.

11. The master of the ship shall afford to the matron and to the surgeon all the assistance in his power in carrying these regulations into effect.

12. Any person who shall refuse or neglect to obey any of the rules herein contained, or who shall obstruct the surgeon or master of the ship in the execution of any duty hereby imposed on them respectively, or who shall be guilty of insubordinate conduct, shall, on conviction, be liable for each offence to the penalties of fine and imprisonment, imposed by the said Passengers' Act, 1855.

13. This order in council shall not apply to ships chartered by Her Majesty's Emigration Commissioners.

VICTORIA.

REGULATION for PASSENGER SHIPS conveying Natives of Asia or Africa.

PROCLAMATION.—By his Excellency Sir HENRY BARKLY, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of Victoria, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament, passed in the session held in the 16th and 17th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Passengers Act, 1852, so far as relates to the passages of natives of Asia or Africa, and also passages between the Island of Ceylon and certain parts of the East Indies," it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governors of Her Majesty's possessions abroad, if they shall think fit, to declare by proclamation that ships intended to pass within the tropics from any ports within their respective governments may convey passengers, being natives of Asia or Africa, after the rate of one for every twelve superficial feet of the passenger deck instead of one for every fifteen such superficial feet, as required by the 12th section of the Passengers Act of 1852: And whereas by "The Passengers Act, 1855," it is provided that nothing therein contained shall extend to repeal or vary the above-recited Act: Now, therefore, I, Sir Henry Barkly, the Governor of Victoria, do by this my proclamation declare that ships intended to pass within the tropics from any port in Victoria may convey passengers, being natives of Asia or Africa, after the rate of one for every twelve superficial feet of the passenger deck.

Given under my hand and the seal of the colony, at Melbourne, this 31st day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and in the twenty-fifth year of Her Majesty's reign.

VICTORIA.

REGULATIONS touching the Carriage of Passengers from Victoria to other English possessions in Australia.

PROCLAMATION.—By his Excellency Sir HENRY BARKLY, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of Victoria, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament passed in the session held in the 24th and 25th years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower the Governors of the several Australian Colonies to regulate the number of passengers to be carried in vessels plying between ports in those colonies," it is, amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor of each of Her Majesty's colonies already or hereafter to be established in Australasia, by any proclamation to be by him from time to time issued for the purpose (which proclamation shall take effect from the issuing thereof, if no day shall be named therein for the purpose), to prescribe such rules as he shall think proper for determining the number of passengers to be carried in any passenger ship which shall proceed from any such colony to any other of Her Majesty's possessions for the time being in Australasia, and for determining on what deck or decks, and subject to what reservations or conditions, passengers may be carried, and also to prescribe such penalties for the infraction or non-observance of such rules as to such Governor may seem proper; and it is also enacted, that from the time when any such proclamation shall take effect, and so long as the same shall continue in force, the rules and enactments contained in the Passengers Act, 1855, relating to the number of passengers to be carried in any passenger ship, and the deck or decks whereon they are to be carried, shall cease to apply to any vessel to which such proclamation shall be applicable, save only as to the recovery and application of any penalty for any offence committed against the said Act before such proclamation shall take effect: Now therefore I, Sir Henry Barkly, the Governor of Victoria, in exercise of the power vested in me by the above-recited Act, do issue this my proclamation, to take effect from the first day of April, in the year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; and I do hereby prescribe the rules herein-after set forth for determining the number of passengers who may be carried in any passenger ship which shall proceed from the colony of Victoria to any other of Her Majesty's possessions for the time being in Australasia, and on what deck or decks, and under what reservations or conditions passengers may be carried, and the penalties for the infraction or non-observance of such rules; that is to say:—

A.—Sailing Vessels.

1. No ship propelled by sails only shall carry a greater number of persons (including every individual on board) than in the proportion of one statute adult to every two tons of her registered tonnage.

2. No ship shall carry under the poop, or in the round house, or deck house, or on the upper passenger deck, a greater number of passengers than in the proportion of one statute adult to every 12 clear superficial feet of deck allotted to their use.

3. No ship shall carry on her lower passenger deck a greater number of passengers than in the proportion of one statute adult to every 15 clear superficial feet of deck allotted to their use; provided, nevertheless, that if the height between such lower passenger deck and the deck immediately above it shall be less than seven feet, or if the apertures (exclusive of side scuttles), through which light and air shall be admitted together to the lower passenger deck shall be less in size than in the proportion of three square feet to every one hundred superficial feet of the lower passenger deck, no greater number of passengers shall be carried on such deck than in the proportion of one statute adult to every twenty-five clear superficial feet thereof.

4. No ship, whatever be her tonnage or superficial space of passenger decks, shall carry a greater number of passengers on the whole than in the proportion of one statute adult to every five superficial feet clear for exercise on the upper deck or poop, or (if secured and fitted on the top with a railing or guard to the satisfaction of the emigration officer at the port of clearance) on any round house or deck house.

5. In the measurement of the passenger decks, poop, round house, or deck house, the space for the hospital, and that occupied by such portion of the personal luggage of the passengers as the emigration officer may permit to be carried there, shall be included.

B.—Steamers.

The number of passengers who may be carried on board of any vessel propelled by steam power shall be ascertained and determined in manner following, viz :—

1. Measure in cubic feet the clear space allotted to fore-cabin passengers between decks, and divide the cubic contents by 72.

2. Count the number of sleeping berths exclusively provided for the accommodation of fore-cabin passengers, and add to it the number obtained as above.

3. The total number thus obtained is the total number of fore-cabin passengers who may be carried.

4. Proceed in the same manner with the space allotted to after-cabin passengers.

The results of the said computations shall determine the number of fore-cabin and after-cabin passengers respectively who may be carried on board of a vessel propelled by steam power, and all passengers on board thereof shall be included in one or other of the said denominations.

Penalties.

If there shall be on board of any ship or vessel, at or after the time of clearance, a greater number either of persons or passengers (except by births at sea) than in the proportions respectively herein-before mentioned, the master of such ship or vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, nor less than one pound sterling for each person or passenger constituting such excess.

Given under my hand and the seal of the colony, at Melbourne, this 14th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and in the 25th year of Her Majesty's reign.

(L.S.) HENRY BARKLY.

By His Excellency's Command,

ROBERT S. ANDERSON,

Commissioner of Trade and Customs.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

Western Australia.

Land Regulations for the North District of Western Australia.

1. The portion of territory to be affected by these regulations will be bounded on the north and west by the sea coast, including the islands off it, and on the south by the Murchison river, and a true east line through Mount Murchison ; the entire area being for the purposes of these regulations termed the "North District."

2. The above to be divided into two classes, A. and C., Class A. to comprise all land within two miles of the coast, and to be subject to annual licence ; Class C. to be the remainder. Public reserves to be treated as Class A. land, until required for use by the government.

3. No protection or government establishment will be guaranteed to the public until deemed expedient by the government.

4. The governor may grant to such persons as he may see fit permission (valid for 12 months) to proceed to the north district for the purpose of obtaining runs therein. Applications for such permission must be addressed to the colonial secretary at Perth, and set forth the number of individuals who will compose a party, the name of the responsible person in charge, and the nature and extent of the stock to be depastured.

5. Free pasturage for such stock and their natural increase will be allowed for one year from the date of their arrival in the district, within which period runs not exceeding 100,000 acres for any one establishment may be selected and reported to the surveyor general at Perth.

6. On the government approval of such selection, a licence (not transferable) to occupy the land for three years, free of rent, will be issued.

7. It will be competent for the governor, at any time within the three years above named, to grant to any person in lawful occupation of a run, pastoral leases of any Class C. land within the same in lots not exceeding 20,000 acres each, for a period not exceeding eight years from the 1st day of January next preceding the date of application for such leases, and to grant annual licences not exceeding 20,000 acres each, for any Class A. land within such run.

8. The annual rent payable for any such lease or licence will be at the rate of 5*s.* per 1,000 acres for the first four years, and 10*s.* per 1,000 acres for the last four years, for all land comprised therein ; one fee of 5*l.* being also chargeable for every lease at the commencement of its first year. Leases issued after the 30th June in any year to be charged half rent only for that year. All payments to be made in advance, and no licence issued for less than 1*l.*

9. Leases will be transferable while chargeable with rent on its being shown to the satisfaction of the governor that they have been properly stocked.

10. Runs or leases may be resumed for public purposes, or for sale, on giving 12 months notice; but compensation will in such case be given, according to valuation, for any lawful improvements effected on a lease chargeable with rent, previous to such notice.

11. Up to the end of the first year of a lease, and during its gratuitous occupation, a lessee will have the right to cultivate; but no claim for damages by trespass of stock to be admissible unless the land trespassed upon be properly fenced.

12. The term "run," to signify any crown land granted for pastoral purposes; "vacant crown land" or "unappropriated land" to signify all lands not granted or contracted to be granted, or alienated by or on behalf of Her Majesty; "existing land regulations" to signify the regulations proclaimed in the colony on the 28th January 1860, or such modifications of or additions to the same as may from time to time be published; "stock" to signify every description of live stock for which a pastoral run may be requisite.

13. In all other respects the disposal of the waste lands of the crown in the north district, whether by lease, licence, sale by pre-emption or otherwise, to be governed by the provisions of the existing land regulations.

Appendix No. 38.

British Columbia.

Extract of a Report from Mr. Begbie, Judge of British Columbia, on the Roads and Mines of the Colony, dated 19th January 1863.

15. I have always spoken hitherto of Williams Creek as the point to which the road is to be taken. I do not believe that Williams Creek is richer than many other creeks in the neighbourhood may prove to be, but Williams Creek has this year been established as possessing auriferous deposits of an extent and richness not yet proved to exist elsewhere. In Williams Creek there has been this past year (1862) an amount of labour expended equal probably to the aggregate amount in all the rest of the Carriboo. Labour represents men and materials transported to the field of action, and it is of vital importance to the economical application of labour that men and materials should have ready access to the spot where they are to be applied.

16. In the course of the past season the character of the auriferous deposits in British Columbia has completely changed its aspect from that presented in former years, and I believe that the change is directly attributable to the great scarcity of provisions which prevailed at the mines. Hitherto the diggings have all been what have been termed surface or shallow diggings, though I believe the term shallow diggings includes in Australia all deposits less than 40 feet from the surface, a depth which until this year was never even thought of by our miners.

Every man sought only to discover diggings which could be easily ascertained and worked without machinery, and such diggings were found, of greater or less productiveness, all over the colony. The "top dirt" or "stripping" i.e. the non-auriferous deposit, rejected in comparison with the "pay dirt" or richer deposit (although the top dirt I have known to contain in some mines 1½*d.* or 2*d.* per pan) was rarely required to be removed for more than a depth of 3 or 4 feet, sometimes 10 or 12 feet, often only 10 or 12 inches. The miner, when "prospecting" sunk a hole a foot or two deep, rarely more than 4 or 5 feet, any heavier stripping than this was almost invariably the result of following up an already known stratum of pay dirt. If the prospector found nothing within a few feet of the surface he abandoned his hole and went and sunk another. Many such "prospecting holes" may be noticed here and there all the way up the river, and it is very rare indeed to find them more than 2 or 3 feet deep.

Even this amount of labour and uncertainty terrified the inexperienced immigrants who came here from Canada last spring. They had expected to find the gold in bright shining lumps on the sward, as visible as mushrooms or turnips, which was the idea they told me they had formed from the expression "surface diggings," and shallow place diggings such as I have above described were the only deposits which even the experienced miner attempted to find, unwilling to spend his time and labour uselessly in deepening an empty hole, and anxious to discover the rich though shallow diggings which often rewarded his search, and which alone, in fact, were certain of being workable without a pump. The consequence has been that in previous years the hill sides and streams have been every here and there invaded by prospecting parties. Two or three men with a blanket, pick, shovel, and prospecting pan, and a sack of flour and piece of bacon between them, would wander about for weeks, everywhere turning up a sod, and nowhere doing much more, unless they discovered good pay dirt. The only indispensable thing which these men will not trust themselves among the hills without is flour, and (but to a less degree) bacon. In the past year flour, except in quantities of 2 or 3 lbs. at a time, was not generally procurable. The restaurant keeper had flour, but in small quantities; the population was large, the procural of additional supplies most uncertain, and he would not at any price part with a whole sack. He wanted it for his own customers, and he was not sorry to see his customers compelled to remain near his eating house.

17. Now the rich claims which had been "struck" on Williams Creek in 1861, and which had attracted so many miners to locate themselves on that creek in 1862, were very shallow diggings. Steeles, Cunningham's Abbotts, Adams, the Point Claim, all these had by chance been taken up at that spot of the creek where the rich lead crops out on the surface, or nearly so. The holders of claims on other parts of the creek had made the usual little holes without even an indication of having the lead. They sunk to 10 or 12 feet, quite an unwonted excavation in British Columbia, with equal want of success. Had flour been abundant (quite irrespective of price) half the men would have shouldered their 50 lb. sack and gone off in search of other diggings. But they could not get provisions. Debarred of the power of prospecting, many left the Cariboo in disgust, and rushed out of the country as fast and as foolishly as they had rushed into it, declaring that there was neither gold, nor food, nor work to be had in the Cariboo. Others bethought them that since they could not get away to prospect for shallow diggings elsewhere, they might as well prospect thoroughly the claims which they already occupied. They would get to the bed rock, if 10 feet did not suffice, they would try 20 feet, or as far as the storekeepers would back their efforts by supplying food.

And whenever anybody reached the bed rock he seemed to reach a lead, for there are at least three distinct species of gold of different colour, shape, and fineness, and contained in different sorts of dirt on Williams Creek. But one man sunk down with the mouth of his shaft in the very bed of the stream, and at 20, 30, 60 feet he struck a lead. Another man, a few hundred feet away, tunnelled upwards into the hill side, and when he struck the bed rock he too generally struck a lead. Claims which had been abandoned were now re-occupied. The lead was found $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles above the Court-house, on the verge of the Bald mountain, it was found one mile below the Court-house on the flat below the Canôn. Owing to the extreme disadvantages under which men laboured, not a pump being at hand, nor any means of making a pump, a saw and an axe are almost the only tools on a mine, a very little water and a very little blasting wholly impeded the miners progress; and it cannot be said that the valley has been by any means satisfactorily prospected, But claims are now taken up there for a continuous extent of about 5 miles by several hundred feet (in some places) in width. And the lead has been discovered over so many points of this area as to make it quite certain that every claim will next year be thoroughly prospected before one claim is abandoned.

18. This is an amount of work for men and materials such as has never yet been nearly equalled in the colony. And it is exceedingly important, accordingly, that Williams Creek, as the only place where so much population, food, materials, and labour is to be expected to be concentrated, should be made capable of being supplied with the greatest possible facility and despatch (i. e.) should be supplied with a road. And there is this additional reason for taking a road up to, or as near as possible to, Richfield (the little town already established on Williams Creek) that the process which I have described, of sinking shafts and driving tunnels, has been carried on in other places, principally at and about Lightning Creek and Jack of Clubs Creek, and their tributaries, to such an extent as to render it extremely probable, almost a certainty, that in 1863 these creeks will at least be as profitable as Williams Creek was in the year just closed, and the same road will pass through or near to all these localities.

19. In order that the meaning of the term "striking the lead" may be understood, I may state that the miner is not considered to have "struck it" unless every drifter (or man shovelling out the pay dirt at the bottom of the shaft or tunnel) can send up at least 10 ozs. in the day. In some claims each drifter is expected to send up 40 to 50 or even 100 ozs. This of course is very good, but it has been repeatedly exceeded. In one claim below the Canôn a single drifter sent up 106 ozs. and on another day 115 ozs. while I was at Williams Creek. Two drifters being afterwards sent down the same shaft they sent up 220 ozs. as I was informed. This was quite at the end of September. If the pay dirt be not rich enough to afford at least 10 ozs. to the drifter the miner may admit that he has "good wages," a "good prospect," or "indications of gold," but he does not, in the Carriboo, lay claim to having the lead in his ground.

20. The leads are very various apparently in their breadth, thickness, and direction. It is difficult to obtain accurate information, as the miners are not very communicative of exact facts—they are averse to being closely examined—and it requires a long and strict education of the eye to recognise pay dirt, or even gold. I have seen a good deal of pay dirt, but I have, while scrutinizing it with the greatest care, missed seeing particles of gold which the miner distinguishes at a glance. But there may be very rich pay dirt in which the acutest eye can distinguish no gold until it is washed, even where the gold is tolerably coarse. It is therefore necessary to trust wholly to the accounts of the miners themselves, and they as a class seem to possess an unusual share of the organ of secretiveness. According to their accounts the leads are generally found running in a direction somewhat parallel with the general direction of the modern watercourses, and having the appearance of having been deposited at the bottom of the watercourses of a former geological epoch, or at least of a former, and now greatly altered surface conformation. At Williams Creek there are at least three deposits, one worth about 3*l.* 12*s.* per oz., little water-worn, bright deepish yellow, often enclosing quartz, and found in pay dirt consisting of a red gravel; a second, the best known on Williams Creek, in (generally) small grains much flattened, pale yellow, worth about 3*l.* 3*s.* per oz., contained in a stiff concrete of decomposed blue slate; and a third, below the canôn, worth 3*l.* 4*s.* or 3*l.* 5*s.* per oz., not so much flattened as the last, not quite so pale, and found in a soft whitish mass of the consistency of butter, which I took to be decomposed quartz.

21. I went all through one of the principal claims of the second (the most usual and largest known) pay dirt. The bed rock, i.e. the solid core of the mountain, (which is as it were the floor of the mine,) is 6 or 8 feet below the present bed of the creek. The lead or rich deposit lies within six inches of the bed-rock, generally exactly on the bed-rock (bluish slate) often deep in its crevices and far below its face. Sometimes when scarcely visible crevices are carefully opened the gold is found adhering to the sides as thickly as, and in grains of about the size of, currants in a slice of plum cake. The blue concrete which overlies the bed-rock is generally of a bluer colour than the bed-rock itself, which it otherwise exactly resembles, and encloses often small fragments of bed-rock more or less water-worn, as well as much rounded boulders of different formations, sometimes of considerable size, 10 or 100 lbs. or even larger. This concrete sometimes attains a depth of 15 feet and even more, and is all auriferous, although the rich deposit is always at the bottom. The whole presents the appearance of a quantity of detritus formed by a glacier, or by a torrent of water, solidified into a mass of concrete. The whole hill side of this stuff was being "breasted out," i.e. excavated for a depth of about six feet above the bed-rock, the roof being supported by numerous pillars of timber. When the richer portions of the pay dirt have been all removed and passed through the sluices, the roof will be allowed to fall in and the whole of the blue concrete will be washed in the course of the next year or two. This was the most advanced claim, perhaps, on the creek; it had been prospected and to some extent worked in 1861, and was worked with great energy and corresponding success during the whole of the season 1862.

22. A great advantage attending a tolerably open straight level road through the Carriboo would be that a considerable amount of mining operations could be continued during greater part of every winter, however severe, as neither frost nor snow penetrate to these underground workings; washing, of course, could not be carried on to any extent during frost; but much preparatory labour could be efficiently performed. At present when the only line of retreat, in case of illness or scarcity of provisions, lies over the summit of the Bald Mountains—a trackless waste in winter, where the snow lies many feet deep till June, and indeed never wholly disappears—miners are afraid to stay; besides, the security and rapidity of transmitting treasure, and the seasons during which it can be transmitted (gold dust being a most inconvenient freight), would be greatly increased and prolonged by having a practicable waggon road at a (comparatively) low level. And the lives of many pack animals would be saved, now sacrificed in the trails which become impassable at the end of autumn, the loss of which is severely felt, not only by the proprietors, and by the miners who have to pay an increased price on goods conveyed as an insurance premium, in the aggregate, the loss is serious enough every fall to affect the carrying power in the whole colony. It may be assumed that at least 20 per cent. of the pack animals in British Columbia are either lost outright every autumn, or so weakened as to be unable to endure the ensuing winter; many packers lose their entire trains, 20 to 30 animals. I myself, in the fall of 1861 and winter of 1861–2, lost five pack animals out of seven, and nearly the whole of these losses are attributable to the bad trails beyond the Beaver Lake and Quesnell River.

X. All immigrants brought into this colony under the authority of this Ordinance shall be inspected on board the vessel in which they shall arrive by such medical man as may be appointed from time to time by the Governor for the purpose; and such medical man shall set aside such of the immigrants as from their age or state of health shall appear to him to be unfit to be indentured; and the immigrants so set aside shall be sent to the colonial hospital, or otherwise provided for, until they shall be fit to be indentured, or can be sent back to their own country; and the expense of maintaining and treating such immigrants at the colonial hospital, or otherwise providing for the same, and the charge of the medical man for his inspection of such immigrants, such charge to be allowed by the Governor, shall be borne by and paid from the funds applicable to immigration.

Agent General to keep registry, and to number and specify particulars of all immigrants.

Immigrants to be provided with food and lodging while awaiting employment.

XII. If any immigrants shall not on their arrival be immediately provided with employment, it shall be the duty of the Agent General of Immigrants and he is hereby authorized to provide them with food and lodging until the means of earning their own subsistence can be procured for them, and in the meantime to employ them in such manner as the Governor may from time to time direct, and the cost of such food and lodging shall be borne by and paid from the funds applicable to immigration.

Employers of immigrants to make quarterly returns.

XIV. Every employer of immigrants shall within the first five days of the months of January, April, July, and October in every year make and deliver to the Agent General of Immigrants a return, in such form as the Governor may from time to time approve, under oath or solemn declaration of such employer, to be made before any justice of the peace of the district within which such employer shall reside, of all immigrants, whether under indenture or not, in his employ or residing on the plantation of such employer, during the whole or any part of the preceding three calendar months, together with the date and cause (as far as the same may be known) of all deaths, and the number of births of the children of such immigrants, and the names of all immigrants who may have ceased to reside on the plantation during the preceding three months; and the Agent General of Immigrants shall keep all such returns, and shall at the end of every year make an abstract of the numbers, increase and decrease, of all such immigrants, which abstract shall be laid before the Council of Government.

Penalty incurred by omitting to make return, and for obstructing Agent General in visiting indentured immigrants.

XV. Every employer of immigrants who shall omit to make the return herein-before required, and every person who shall by any act or omission obstruct the Agent General of Immigrants or Sub-Agent from entering upon any plantation where he may reasonably suppose any indentured immigrant to be employed, or in inquiring into the state and condition of any indentured immigrant, shall, on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace, forfeit and pay such sum not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence as the convicting Justice shall direct.

Indentures may be cancelled for illtreatment or breach of contract.

XVI. In case it shall be made to appear to the Agent General of Immigrants that any immigrant has been ill-used by his employer, or in case of neglect of duty or breach of contract on the part of such employer, the Agent General of Immigrants may, by notice in the "Royal Gazette," cancel the indenture of such immigrant.

Indentures may be cancelled for nonpayment of fee.

XVII. The Agent General of Immigrants may also, by like notice, cancel the indenture of any immigrant in respect of whom any fee or other sum of money payable by his employer under this Ordinance shall remain unpaid for a period of one calendar month after it shall have become due.

Indentures may be cancelled for want of proper accommodation.

XVIII. The Governor may, by like notice, cancel the indenture of any immigrant, if the Immigration Agent shall report that the accommodation provided for such immigrant is bad or insufficient, or if the Governor shall on any other ground consider it requisite so to do.

Immigrants whose indentures have been cancelled may be re-indentured.

XIX. Any immigrant whose indenture shall have been cancelled under any of the above provisions may, without his consent, be re-indentured to some other employer by the Agent General of Immigrants, for any period not exceeding the period of service remaining unexpired at the time of such indenture being cancelled.

Immigrants in ill-health may be sent to hospital by justices of the peace

XX. Where an indentured immigrant shall be brought before any justice of the peace, and it shall appear to such justice of the peace that such immigrant is in such a state of health as to require medical care and treatment, it shall be lawful for such justice, by warrant under his hand, directed to any police constable, to make order that such immigrant be taken to and admitted into any public hospital to be named in such warrant, and the name and situation of the plantation in respect of which such immigrant shall be indentured shall, if known, be inserted in such warrant, and such warrant shall be sufficient authority to any police constable for the removal to the hospital named in such warrant, and to the person in charge of such hospital for the admission into such hospital, of such immigrant.

Chinese labourers may be released from their indentures, on payment of the cost of the passage and of the advances made to them.

XXI. It shall be lawful for the Governor, on the application of any Chinese immigrant, and on the consent of the employer, if any, with whom such Chinese immigrant may have entered into a contract for the performance of labour in this island, and on the payment by such Chinese immigrant of the cost of his or her passage to this island, and of the advances made to such immigrant, and if such Chinese immigrant shall be a male, and accompanied by his wife, then of the cost of the passage of, and of the advances, if any, made to such wife, to dispense such Chinese immigrant from the performance of labour under this Ordinance; and the Agent General of Immigrants shall thereupon grant to such immigrant a certificate of such contract having been dispensed with.

Persons in charge of hospitals may admit immigrants.

XXII. It shall be lawful for the person in charge of any public hospital, on his own authority, and without the warrant of any justice of the peace, to admit into such hospital any immigrant who shall appear to him to require immediate medical care and attendance.

Employers of immigrants to be charged with their maintenance in hospital, and the cost of their burial in case of death.

XXIII. Where any immigrant shall be admitted to any public hospital on the request of the employer of such immigrant, or on the warrant of any justice of the peace, or on the authority of the person in charge of such hospital, the employer of such immigrant shall be charged with the payment of the sum of one shilling for every day during which or any part of which such immigrant shall remain in such hospital, and of the expenses, if any, attending the removal of such immigrant to such hospital, and of his interment in case he shall die; and the amount of such charges and expenses shall be a debt to Her Majesty, and shall be paid by the person in possession of the plantation in respect of which such immigrant shall have been indentured, to the person in charge of such hospital, within ten days after such immigrant shall have been discharged from such hospital or shall have died, and in every proceeding for the recovery of the same the certificate under the hand of the person in charge of such hospital, specifying the day of the admission of such immigrant and the day of his discharge or death, and the expense, if any, of the removal of such immigrant to the hospital, and also the expense, not to exceed in any case the sum of five dollars, of the interment of such immigrant in case of his death, shall be admitted as evidence of the facts stated in such certificate.

Immigrants to be indentured for three years.

XXIV. Every immigrant introduced into this colony after the passing of this Ordinance, not being a Chinese immigrant, shall be indentured by the Agent General of Immigrants for the term of three years from the day of his arrival in this colony, and shall be assigned to such plantation as the Agent General of Immigrants shall see fit.

Immigrants under indenture for three years may, at any time not less than one month before the expiration of that term, on payment of 6*l.*, demand certificates of industrial residence to be granted on the expiration of their indentures, or they may demand to be re-indentured.

XXV. Every immigrant already indentured or who may hereafter be indentured for the term of three years, or for any time sufficient to make up the term of three years, may, at any time not less than one calendar month before the expiration of such term, and on payment to the Agent General of Immigrants of the sum of six pounds, demand a certificate of industrial residence to be granted on the completion of his service under such indenture, or he may, at any time not less than one calendar month before the expiration of such term, signify to his then employer and to the Agent General of Immigrants his desire to be indentured to some other employer whom he may select, and who may be willing to employ him for a period of one year from the determination of his existing indenture; and it shall be competent for the Agent General of Immigrants to re-indenture such immigrant accordingly; and if the immigrant shall fail to make such payment or to require such re-indenture, his original indenture shall be deemed to be extended for one year.

Immigrants re-indentured, or whose indentures have been extended, may, on payment of 3*l.*, or 5*s.* for each calendar month required to make up the term of five years, demand industrial certificates, or they may demand to be re-indentured.

XXVI. Any immigrant whose original indenture shall have been so extended, or who shall have been re-indentured as hereinbefore mentioned, may at any time not less than one calendar month before the expiration of the year for which his original indenture shall have been so extended, or for which he shall have been re-indentured, and on payment to the Agent General of the sum of three pounds, or the sum of five shillings for every calendar month which may be wanting to make up an industrial residence of five years within the colony, demand a certificate of industrial residence, or may require such re-indenture as aforesaid, and if he shall fail to make such payment or to require such re-indenture his indenture or re-indenture, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be again extended for one year.

Immigrants who have completed their term of five years may demand certificates.

XXVII. Any immigrant who shall have completed an industrial residence of five years within the colony may demand of the Agent General of Immigrants a certificate of industrial residence.

Immigrants arriving in the colony under ten years old, so soon as they attain

XXVIII. Any immigrant who at the time of his arrival in the colony shall be under the age of ten years shall continue under the charge of his parents or friends, without any indenture, until he shall attain the age of ten years, and so soon as he shall attain that age shall be indentured for such term as, together with the time which he may have resided in the colony before attaining the age of ten years, shall be sufficient to make up a term of five years; and every year of residence in the colony before attaining the age of ten years shall be deemed to be equivalent to a year's residence under indenture.

that age, to be indentured for a term sufficient to make up five years from the time of their arrival.

XXIX. Every immigrant who shall have received or shall be entitled to such certificate shall be at liberty to abandon service, and may demand from the Agent General of Immigrants a passport, which, as well as such certificate, shall be signed by the Agent General of Immigrants, and given gratis.

Immigrants entitled to certificates may demand passports.

XXX. No immigrant shall depart from the colony without such passport; and every master or other person in charge of any vessel who shall receive or harbour on board of such vessel any immigrant who shall not have duly obtained such passport, with the intention of carrying him out of this colony, and every person who shall aid or abet the departure of any such immigrant, shall, on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace, forfeit and pay such penalty, not exceeding twenty pounds, as to the justice shall seem fit, for each and every such immigrant whom he shall have so received, harboured, aided, or abetted.

Immigrants not to leave the colony without passports, and persons aiding immigrants to depart without passports liable to a penalty.

XXXI. Any immigrant who shall have resided three years in the colony shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, to have served under indenture for that period; but in case of the non-production of a certificate of industrial residence it shall be presumed that he has not served under indenture for a longer period than three years.

Appendix No. 42.

St. Vincent.

An Act to alter and amend "The Immigration Act, 1857," and "The Amended Immigration Act, 1858." (April 2d, 1862.)

Preamble.

Whereas it has been deemed just by Her Majesty's Government, and acceded to in this colony, that the expense attendant on the introduction of immigrants should be borne in the proportions of two-thirds by the planting interest, and one-third by the general revenue, and by these means and in that proportion the immigration fund in this colony is now formed and contributed to: And whereas by the 5th clause of "the Amended Immigration Act, 1858," it is provided that the employer to whom immigrants shall be allotted shall pay to the Treasurer one-half of the bounty or passage money paid in respect of such immigrants, by means of which enactment the planting interest is called on and does pay five-sixths instead of two-thirds of the expense of the introduction of immigrants, and the general revenue contributes only one-sixth, which is found to be oppressive on the planter: And whereas, in consequence of the impossibility of allotting and distributing immigrants equally throughout the colony, it is necessary that those planters to whom they are allotted should contribute something to the immigration fund: And whereas it is deemed necessary to confer on the agents obtaining immigrants in the East Indies or China the power of entering into express contracts on behalf of the colony with the immigrants, and to give validity within this colony to such contracts: And whereas cases may arise in which it may be desirable to allow the commutation of the services of immigrants in manner as is herein-after provided: And whereas it is expedient to make the provisions herein-after contained in respect of liberated Africans: Be it enacted by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of St. Vincent and its dependencies as follows, that is to say:—

1. From and after the passing of this Act, in lieu of one half the bounty or passage money made payable to the Treasurer by the employer to whom immigrants shall be allotted under the said 5th clause of the said Amended Immigration Act, 1858, there shall be paid and payable by such employer one-fourth part of such bounty or passage money, such bounty or passage money to be deemed as including all incidental charges for collection and maintenance or otherwise until distribution: Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, that in lieu of one-fifth part of the bounty or passage money made payable under the said 5th clause of the said Amended Immigration Act, 1858, by the Treasurer to the employer of an immigrant in the event of such immigrant failing to re-indent himself to the same employer for the two years next following the first three years of his service, and commuting such two years service by a money payment, or indenting himself to another employer, there shall be payable only one-tenth of such bounty or passage money; and in lieu of the one-tenth of such bounty or passage money made payable under the said 5th clause to the employer of an immigrant as aforesaid, on the commutation of his last year of service by the immigrant, there shall be payable one-twentieth part of such bounty or passage money to the employers; and that in case when an immigrant shall indent himself for the two last years of his term of service to an employer, other than the person to whom he was indented for the first three years of service, such second employer shall pay to the Treasurer one-tenth part of the full bounty or passage money originally paid in respect of such immigrant, in lieu of the one-fifth part thereof as provided by the said 5th clause, and such second employer shall, in case such immigrant shall commute his last year of service, receive back from the Treasurer one-twentieth part of the said bounty or passage money in lieu of one-tenth part thereof, as provided by the said 5th clause

Instead of one fifth, employer to receive back one tenth on immigrant failing to re-indent for two last years.

Instead of one tenth to receive back one twentieth for last year.

On immigrant indenting himself for two last years to other employer such employer to pay Treasurer one tenth.

On commutation of last year of service second employer to receive back one twentieth.

2. From and after the passing of this Act, contracts of service to be performed in the government of St. Vincent, according to the law for the time being in force there, and for periods not exceeding three years from the date of registration thereof in the said government, and with such provision for performance of two subsequent years labour as by law is sanctioned and provided for, shall and may be lawfully entered into in India or China (subject as herein-after mentioned) between immigrants from India or China to St. Vincent, and such person or persons as shall be the duly authorized emigration agent or agents in India or China of this colony; provided that such contracts be entered into in manner prescribed by this Act. And every such contract so entered into shall be equally valid and effectual as if it had been entered into in St. Vincent according to the law existing there at the time of the date of such contract, anything in the Immigration Acts of the said government to the contrary contained notwithstanding; provided also, that every such contract, and the proceedings of the emigration agent in relation thereto, shall be regulated and governed by such orders, rules, and regulations as are or shall be established by Her Majesty's Government in that behalf.

Contracts entered into in India or China to

Before completion of contract, same to be fully explained to immigrant.

3. The emigration agent shall before any such contract shall be completed explain the same fully to the immigrant and also the liability of such immigrant to be allotted by the government of St. Vincent to an employer in St. Vincent on the terms and conditions provided by law which shall also be explained to the immigrant, and the emigration agent shall be satisfied that the same are fully understood by the immigrant, and when necessary for the purpose aforesaid the aid of a duly qualified interpreter shall be called in by such emigration agent.

Contract to be signed in presence of emigration agent, and docketed and signed by him.

4. If the emigration agent shall be satisfied that the contract is fully understood by the intended immigrant he shall as soon as possible have the same signed in his presence by the immigrant, with his name or mark, and he shall certify the same by a docket signed by himself, and in every such contract in the list of immigrants contained therein or thereto attached shall place a separate number opposite the name of each immigrant.

5. The contract and docket shall contain the items and shall be as nearly as may be in the terms of form A. annexed to this Act; but no such contract shall be void or voidable on account of any informality which does not affect it in substance. And a copy of any such original contract, after the said original shall have been registered by the Immigration Agent in St. Vincent, certified by such Immigration Agent, shall be deemed sufficient proof and evidence of such contract, and shall have the same effect in law as the original contract of which it purports to be a copy, subject only to proof that it is false or inaccurate.

Certified copy thereof to be good evidence.

Contract to be forwarded to immigration agent in St. Vincent, and there registered.

6. The emigration agent shall upon the first opportunity after the completion of each contract despatch the immigrant engaged therein to the Immigration Agent in St. Vincent along with the original of his contract, and the said immigration agent immediately on the arrival at St. Vincent of such contract shall cause the same to be registered in the books of his office.

7. The Immigration Agent shall as soon as possible after the arrival of immigrants from India or China set aside such as shall select for themselves individual employers pursuant to the Act in that behalf, and shall proceed to allot such as shall not have selected employers for themselves to persons having applied for them according to law. And in all cases, whether of selection or allotment, in cases where the immigrant shall decline to enter into an indenture with the selected or allotted employer, as required by the present Immigration Acts, the Immigration Agent shall execute in triplicate a certificate of allotment in the form B. to this Act annexed, such triplicates to be disposed of, delivered, and dealt with in like manner as the indentures under the said Immigration Acts are directed to be disposed of.

In form B.

8. A certificate of allotment executed as by this Act is required shall operate as a binding obligation on the parties therein named on the terms and conditions therein expressed; provided the same are in accordance with the original contract, and shall have the same force and effect to all intents and purposes as if an indenture to the like effect had been executed by and between the same parties, pursuant to the terms of the said Immigration Acts; and all and every the provisions of the law in force for the time being relating to immigrants under indenture shall equally apply to immigrants under certificate of allotment.

Certificate of allotment to have same effect as indenture of service.

9. In the event of any immigrant from India or China, or any liberated African, being desirous of commuting the full time of service, or any part thereof, either of himself, his wife, or child, or other member of his family, by a money payment, it shall be lawful for the Governor, on a report to him made by the Immigration Agent, of any such case, to cause the same to be inquired into by a board, consisting of the said Immigration Agent and the police magistrate of the district, and on a full report by such board to the Governor of the facts of the case, and of the terms of the proposed commutation, it shall be lawful for the Governor, if he see good cause, to permit and authorize the same by warrant under his hand; provided always, that no contract, or indenture, or allotment of service, shall be cancelled or deemed to be terminated until a subsequent warrant under the hand of the Governor, declaring the same to be cancelled, shall have been issued and published in the Gazette, and notice thereof given by the Immigration Agent to the employer of the immigrant; and provided also, that no such commutation shall take place without full payment in cash to the employer of such sum as he shall have paid to the colonial government in respect of such immigrant, if the term of service to be commuted shall be two years or more than two years, two-thirds of such sum, if the term shall be less than one year and a half and more than one year, and one third if one year or less; and provided also, that full payment of the amount paid from the immigration fund of the colony in respect of any such immigrant shall be secured to the satisfaction of the Governor, and paid to the Treasurer, either in cash or in such instalments, to be secured and payable, as shall by order in that behalf be made by the Governor, except in cases where, from meritorious services or other cause, the Governor shall think an abatement ought to be made in payment of the amount payable to the immigration fund by such immigrants, and in any such case the Governor, with the consent of the Executive Council, may direct abatement thereof, either in full or in part, as shall seem to the Governor in Council just and right.

Commutation of service to be allowed.

Liberated Africans. Preamble.

10. And whereas liberated Africans are now sent as immigrants to these colonies at the cost of Her Majesty's Government, and it is deemed just that the colony benefiting by their labour should defray the cost attendant on sending them to the colony from the place where they were first landed: Be it therefore enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Governor, and he is hereby authorized, from time to time, on the arrival of liberated Africans to this colony, who are or shall be sent to be dealt with as indented immigrants under the Immigration Acts now or hereafter to be in force, to issue his warrant to the Treasurer for payment, from and out of the immigration fund, of all expenses incurred by Her Majesty's Government, and attendant on the sending such immigrants from the place of embarkation to this colony, and also for their maintenance until indentured.

Governor to issue warrant for payment of the expenses of introduction of liberated Africans from immigration fund.

On allotment of adult liberated African for three years employer to pay one fourth cost of introduction.

11. Every person to whom an adult liberated African shall be allotted for service for three years, or who, being under the age of fifteen, shall be allotted for service till he attain the age of eighteen, shall, prior to the indenture being executed, pay to the Treasurer, towards the immigration fund one fourth part of the sum paid from the immigration fund, for or in respect of the expenses attendant on bringing such immigrant to this colony, and his maintenance till indentured: Provided always, that in special cases, reported by the Immigration Agent, the Governor shall be at liberty to allow the term of service aforesaid, or any portion thereof, of any such liberated African, to be commuted on such terms and in such way as he the Governor shall see fit.

In special cases Governor may sanction commutation of service.

Indenture under the Immigration Act to be no longer in triplicate, but executed in original and duplicate copies thereof, certified by the immigration agent, substituted for the duplicate and triplicate indenture.

12. And whereas by "the Immigration Act, 1857," it is provided that indentures or contracts of service shall be executed in triplicate, which gives rise to great delay and difficulties in the preparation and execution of the same: For remedy whereof be it enacted, that it shall be sufficient hereafter that one indenture or contract be executed by the parties thereto, and that duly certified copies thereof, by and under the hand of the Immigration Agent, shall, for all purposes of the said Act, be deemed equal to and of the same force and validity as the original, and that the original shall remain in the office of the Immigration Agent, and copies as aforesaid shall be delivered to the immigrant executing the same, and to the police magistrate of the district, in lieu of the duplicate and triplicate originals, as heretofore.

The Acts of 1857, 1858, and this Act to be read as one Act.
Short title of Act.

13. This Act, and the said Immigration Act, 1857, and "the Amended Immigration Act, 1858," shall be read and construed together as one Act, and where it shall be necessary to cite this present Act apart from the said recited Acts the same shall be cited as "the Amended Immigration Act, 1862."

APPENDIX No. 44.

FORT SAINT GEORGE, December 31, 1862.

The following RULES for observance in the operations connected with the recruiting and despatch of EMIGRANTS to BRITISH and FRENCH COLONIES have received the sanction of the Government of India.

I. The agent selected and appointed by a colonial government to conduct the emigration at Madras shall not enter upon his functions till approved by the local government, and this approval will be withdrawn in the event of misconduct, in which case emigration to the colony by which he is employed will cease until the appointment and approval of a new agent, or the re-approval of the old one.

II. On the agent receiving the authority to act he will take the necessary steps for obtaining emigrants; but if he sends recruiters into the districts they must each bear a pass signed by the agent authorizing them to recruit, for one colony only, and a printed paper in English and the vernacular of the district in which they are to be employed, signed by the protector, setting forth the chief terms and conditions under which emigrants will have to proceed.

III. The recruiters thus authorized are to present themselves to the collector of the district in which they are to operate, or to one of his assistants, and they are not to recruit until the district officer has consented to their doing so, and has in token thereof countersigned their pass.

IV. Recruiters are to be specially careful not to entertain people, male or female, as emigrants who may be improperly abandoning their families; nor to allow young persons under eighteen years of age to join their bands without being accompanied by some relation of mature age. If application from the families of people who have left their homes, whether at Madras or up-country, under such circumstances is made, requesting that their embarkation might not take place, the protector will forbid their proceeding on board, or if on board will cause them to be landed if after inquiry such a step appears to be just and reasonable.

V. On a recruiter having collected a sufficient number of intending emigrants, they are to be conveyed before the collector or his assistant for examination, and on his being satisfied of the propriety of their emigrating, he will cause a register of them to be made out, showing their names, ages, relationship of children to those with whom they are proceeding, and the villages from which they have been recruited. He will then appoint a peon to conduct a party to Madras, requiring the recruiting maistry to furnish him with road batta for each individual at the rate of two annas per day for adults and half that rate for children under ten. The peon on arrival at Madras will deliver them over to the agent with the collector's register, which is to be filed for reference, and the latter will insert their names in a register to be kept at his office in the same form as that in use in the Mauritius Emigration Office.

VI. The peons pay and batta, from the date of his taking charge of the party to that of his return to his district, will be paid by the agent.

VII. On being examined and registered the recruits will be forwarded by the agent to the depôt, where they must remain at least five (5) full days before they can be embarked.

VIII. The agent will establish a depôt in a healthy and convenient part of Madras, subject to the approval of the Principal Inspector General Medical Department and of the Protector where the emigrants are to be lodged and fed and professionally attended in case of sickness without charge. It will be preferable that the depôt be enclosed by a hedge, not a wall; but if the latter is considered necessary it shall not be higher than five feet.

IX. The Protector and Emigration Surgeon, acting on behalf of Government, shall have liberty at all times to inspect the depôt and examine the recruits.

X. As soon as convenient after arrival at the depôt the Agent will bring them before the Protector, who will explain to them the nature of the engagements they are about to enter into; and all contracts of service shall be executed in the Protector's presence, and shall bear his counter-signature.

XI. On a vessel being selected for the conveyance of the emigrants, the Agent shall inform the Protector thereof, transmitting at the same time the usual survey fee of 30 rupees, whereon the latter officer will cause her to be examined by the Government Emigration Surveyor, and if approved, will apply to Government for a licence, after obtaining the Commander's signature to the bond of indemnity required by the several Emigration Acts; but no vessel will be licensed to carry more than 350 statute adults.

XII. Boats shall be provided in accordance with the following scale:—

For ships of 200 and under 500 tons if the statute adults do not exceed 200 - - - -	3 boats.
For ships of 500 and under 800 tons if the statute adults do not exceed 300 - - -	4 „
For ships of 800 and under 1,200 tons if the statute adults do not exceed 350 - - -	5 „

One boat shall be a long boat and one a lifeboat.

XIII. The vessel being passed, the Agent will forward to the Protector samples of the provisions to be laid in, and on these being approved the quantities according to the scales appended hereto are to be shipped, and a certificate signed by the Agent and Commander is to be submitted to the effect that they have been shipped and are of the same quality as the samples. In the event of a vessel being fitted with an apparatus for distilling sea water the water may be reduced by one third.

Tables A and D.

XIV. Medical stores in accordance with the scales also hereto appended are to be submitted to the Emigration Surgeon acting on behalf of the Madras Government, and the Agent will forward to the Protector a certificate of their approval by this officer, as well as one of their actual shipment signed by himself and the Surgeon proceeding in charge of the emigrants.

Tables B and E.

XV. The Surgeon will in all cases be subject to the approval of the Principal Inspector General Medical Department, and this officer's certificate of approval is to be forwarded to the Protector.

XVI. Should the Surgeon be unable to converse with the emigrants in their vernacular language one interpreter must be engaged for ships proceeding to colonies east of the Cape; and in all cases 3 must be employed for those proceeding west of the Cape.

XVII. The above preparations having been completed, and the vessel fitted up as follows, the Protector will proceed on board to examine her.

1. The space to be occupied by the emigrants to be perfectly clear with the exception of the fitting.

2. The sides and upper part to be whitewashed.

3. Light spars to be lashed to the midship stanchions fore and aft, three feet from the deck.

4. Three dirt tubs, one and a half foot high and two and a half feet in diameter, to be cleated on the lower deck, one forward, a second amidship, and the third aft.

5. Ladders to be fitted at each hatchway.

6. A sick bay to be erected on the lower deck, to be divided in half for different sexes; and one, not to be included in the space allotted for berthing the emigrants, to be assigned on the upper deck for epidemic diseases.

7. Two air shafts, not less than three feet square, to be fitted leading from the upper to the lower deck; one aft, the other forward; as well as four metal ventilators, two aft and two forward.

8. Should the vessel not be provided with side scuttles, such additional ventilation through the deck to be made as the Protector may consider necessary.

9. One booby or slide hatch to be fitted on two hatchways.

10. A windsail to be fitted for each hatchway.

11. The upper deck to be clear of every thing but the ship's fittings and the scuttle butts.

12. Two scuttle butts for the use of the emigrants to be placed on the upper deck where most convenient.

13. Three life buoys to be kept in readiness, two forward and one aft.

14. Sufficient cooking places to be firmly secured on the upper deck.

15. Necessaries to be fitted on board each side of the upper deck (not in the head), in the proportion of one to every seventy-five adults to be embarked; to have a shoot to carry off the soil clear of the ship's side, and each to be supplied with a can and bucket for water. One of these to be appropriated exclusively to the women and children.

16. A platform to be erected over the long boat for the special use of the emigrants.

17. Boats to be clear and ready for use with oars, rowlocks, and boat-hooks.

18. Charts to be supplied necessary for the voyage, as well as a copy of Piddington's Law of Storms, or, in French vessels, any other analogous work in the French language.

XVIII. On the day previous to examination the Commander shall forward to the Protector a list of his officers and crew, including two topasses or scavengers to be engaged expressly for attendance on the emigrants, together with a statement of the provisions and water laid in exclusively for their use.

XIX. At the same time shall be forwarded a list of the cabin passengers proceeding by the vessel, and the servants each takes.

XX. The final examination proving satisfactory the Protector will authorize the embarkation of the emigrants, provided the Government Emigration Surgeon is satisfied that there is nothing in the state of their health, or in that of the general population of Madras, to render it unadvisable.

XXI. The Protector shall have the power to delay the embarkation if in his opinion the weather is likely to be boisterous.

XXII. The emigrants having been embarked, the Commander will be required to lodge with the Protector a duplicate list, setting forth their names, ages and occupations. After examination one of these will be returned with the Protector's countersignature, accompanied, when the vessel is proceeding to a French Colony, by two copies of Sections 10 to 20 of the Act XLVI of 1860, with translation in Tamil and Canarese.

XXIII. No native passengers not embarked under the Act shall proceed in the vessel.

XXIV. Clothing and utensils shall be supplied to each emigrant according to the scales annexed, and shall be shipped immediately after the emigrants have been embarked.

Tables C and F.

XXV. The vessel having complied with the regulations, the Protector will deliver the licence to the Agent or Commander on receiving the fee of one rupee on each emigrant embarked.

(Published by order of his Excellency the Governor in Council.)

CALCUTTA.

REVISED RULES for the guidance of all persons concerned in the emigration of native labourers from Calcutta to the West Indies.

1. Every vessel for which a licence is required must be surveyed under the instructions of the Protector of Emigrants, to whom applications for survey should be addressed.

2. After a vessel has been surveyed and passed as fit for emigration service, the commander must send, for the inspection of the Protector, samples of each description of provisions enumerated in the accompanying scale No. 1, and the provisions must be kept between-decks till examined and passed by the Protector and Medical Inspector of Emigrants. Commanders are desired to be particularly careful in inspecting the provisions, to satisfy themselves that all are of the best quality, as the examination of the samples by the Protector, and of the provisions on board, does not in any way lessen their responsibility. They are further required to sign the certificate affixed to the accompanying form No. 2. After the provisions have been passed a sample of each sort must be sent to the emigration agent. River water, drawn from a point above the city by government water-tank boats provided for the purpose, is to be laid in for the use of the coolies and crews of ships; the prescribed quantity of drinking water, equal to sixty days' consumption, required for the voyage,* is to be carrried in iron tanks. Each vessel is to have a Normandy's apparatus for distilling sea-water for the use of the emigrants, with thirty tons of English coal, and a sufficiency of stores and tools for the same, according to the list in the Protector's office.

3. The vessel must have one storm-hatch and a wind-sail for every hatchway, and be otherwise ventilated according to the regulations of Government. Commanders are required to understand and to be provided with a copy of Piddington's work on the Law of Storms, and of Colonel Reid's work, if procurable. They are further to be provided with provisions and stores prescribed in pages 6 and 7, according to the number of emigrants embarked. No vicious dogs or wild animals are allowed on board a vessel intended for emigrants, nor should any lumber be kept on the upper deck, except ship's fitting, long boat, together with provisions, ghee, oil, &c., and water sufficient for three days' consumption. This supply is to be kept up at starting, ready to be served out daily without opening the hatches.

4. Water-closets must be fitted abreast of the forechains inside the vessel, one for the use of the women, and one for the sick in bad weather; the latter on no account to be used at any other time or for any other purpose. The space to be occupied by the emigrants between-decks must be white-washed, and entirely cleared, nothing being stowed away in any part or between the beams; platforms, twenty-four feet long, are to be erected in the between-decks, abreast of each hatchway, on both sides of the ship, and one must be fitted over the long boat. Cabooses are to be constructed, so as to afford ample shelter to the cooks from the weather. When this has all been done, and all requisites, including cooking pots, cabooses, &c., have been put on board, and the vessel is ready for sea, the commander must apply to the Protector to have her surveyed again, and will then obtain a certificate in the annexed form No. 3.

5. The emigration agents will engage the services of a medical officer (to be approved, if without a diploma, by the Director General of the Medical Department,) and an apothecary, or qualified native doctor, to attend on the emigrants during the voyage, also to provide medicines and instruments according to the accompanying scale No. 4. These are to be passed by the depôt surgeon, whose certificate, as to quantity and quality, is to be obtained, and forwarded to the Protector's office.

6. The medical officer must be sent to the Protector's office, to have his testimonials examined, and the latter, if he thinks fit, will take the opinion of the Director General of the Medical Department as to their efficiency.

7. Printed instructions for the medical treatment and management of emigrants will be given, on application, by the emigration agent.

8. Government having directed that a second medical officer shall accompany each ship to the Sandheads when disease is prevalent in Calcutta, any commander not taking such an assistant will be required to obtain from the examining surgeon, on the day of the embarkation of the emigrants, a certificate to the effect that they have been generally healthy in the depôt, and that no epidemic is prevalent among the coolies there.

9. Fire buckets, to the number required by the port regulations, viz., five per 100 tons, are to be provided, and arranged on the poop, so as to be readily accessible in case of need.

10. Government having directed the appointment of a third European officer to every emigrant ship, for the purpose of guarding her against fire, and also to have charge of and issue the provisions and water to the emigrants, commanders must be careful to comply with this requisition, otherwise permission to embark the emigrants will be withheld.

11. Prior to taking in cargo or stores, the vessel's limbers and bilges are to be thoroughly cleared, and the latter to be purified by means of Burnett's disinfecting fluid.

12. No gunpowder to be taken on board on freight.

13. Every commander is required to procure a certificate from the owners or managing agents, that a competent steam tug is engaged, and that she will be ready to take the vessel in tow at daylight on the morning on which the emigrants are embarked. He must also provide himself with an interpreter, if neither himself nor the surgeon nor any of his officers or crew can understand and speak the native language.

14. Commanders are required to have prepared crew lists, as per form No. 5. No other description of native passengers, excepting emigrants and cabin passengers' servants, will be received on board.

15. Three days before the embarkation of emigrants, commanders are required to lodge the documents Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 5 in the Protector's office, to produce the registers of their ships, if required, and to execute the bond required by the Emigration Act. Two copies of this Act will be furnished to them by the emigration agent, and must be retained in their possession during the voyage.

16. All requisite forms will be supplied free of cost, but one rupee will be charged for each duplicate, if any be required, to replace lost or spoilt forms.

17. When all the arrangements required by the above rules have been completed, and the vessel is clear and in all respects ready for sea, and in a fit state to receive the emigrants on board, the Protector will obtain a licence from Government, and deliver it to the commander, after the final examination of the ship and of the emigrants on board.

18. Moorings are expressly laid down abreast of the Cooley Embarkation Wharf at Garden Reach, where commanders are required to moor their vessels before the emigrants embark.

19. Commanders are required to muster their crew in the presence of the pilot previous to the embarkation of the emigrants, in order that their efficiency may be ascertained.

20. Commanders are required to afford to the preventive officers and pilots every assistance in their power in carrying out the separate instructions with which they are charged.

21. In addition to the emigration certificate granted to each cooley, a general register of all the emigrants embarked on each ship must be prepared in duplicate. In this document must be entered the name of the ship, number, name, father's name, sex, caste, and age of every emigrant, man, woman, or child on board, with the name of the village, pergunnah, and district to which the emigrant belongs. One copy of this register will be kept at the depôt in Calcutta, and the other given to the commander of the ship, to enable him to identify each emigrant at all times.

22. For every 100 adults four sirdars must be appointed, one of them (who, whenever practicable, should be a man who has made a voyage before,) to act as head man. The emigrants, previous to embarkation, must be divided into lots, and each sirdar should take charge of a company and also of a division of the lower deck, for the cleanliness of which he is to be held responsible; one mehter or topas is to be shipped for every 100 souls; and two professional cooks (bandarees) are to be sent in each vessel.

23. The ship's surgeon shall receive charge of the medicines, medical stores, &c., previously ascertaining that they are of good quality, and not short of the quantity stated in the list furnished to him. He shall also give a receipt for such articles of clothing for the use of the sick as may be supplied to him by the emigration agent, and on arriving at the port of debarkation he shall deliver the same, or what remains thereof, to the emigration agent there, with a statement of issues during the voyage.

24. Surgeons should see that one-half of the men and women remain constantly on the upper deck during the vessel's progress down the river, and that the greatest care is taken to prevent their drawing up and drinking the river water from alongside. The platform over the long boat and the poop deck being for their express accommodation, good awnings must be spread over the poop and main deck all day and night until the vessel is outside Saugor. In vessels without a poop the space behind the mizen mast is to be given up to the emigrants during the voyage, and specially while in the river. Surgeons should also see that every emigrant, male and female, including the children, is sent on deck daily in moderate weather, provided there are no urgent sanitary reasons to the contrary.

25. During the voyage commanders should see that the 'tween-decks are cleared three times every day, fumigated and dry-holy-stoned at least twice a week, and white-washed throughout every alternate Saturday, weather permitting; that none of the crew interfere with the comforts or accommodation of the emigrants; that the space given up for their use is in no way encroached upon; and that the provisions and water are regularly served out twice every day at fixed hours, according to the accompanying scale No. 1., so as to allow the emigrants to be provided with two cooked meals daily at 9 A.M. and 4 P.M. Commanders should retain in their possession the certificate and effects of those emigrants who die during the vessel's progress down the river, and at sea, and deliver them to the Protector of Emigrants at the colony to which they are bound, with the counterpart list given to them by the emigration agent. Great care must be taken not to deface the certificate or list.

26. Ships that do not make water so as to require to be pumped out once a week must twice a week have a sufficient quantity of water poured into their hold, and pumped out again, for the purpose of keeping the bilges sweet.

27. As the health of the emigrants and the welfare of all persons on board a ship materially depend on due care and attention to ventilation, cleanliness, and dry decks, the commander is required to fit booby hatches to each hatchway, and to take care that in bad weather ports, scuttles, and the ordinary hatchways are kept closed. During fine weather the emigrants should be allowed and encouraged to be as much on deck as possible.

28. The emigrants are to be allowed the means of bathing daily, and of washing their clothes twice a week. They should also be allowed to have such exercise and recreation as the surgeon may recommend. The commander of the vessel should provide them with tubs and buckets, and with the means of drawing up water either for bathing or washing purposes, as well as with lines whereon to hang their clothes. The commander should also

41. On arrival at the port of debarkation, in the column of remarks of the general register in the hands of the commander should be entered the state in which each of the emigrants is landed, whether in perfect health, sickly, &c.; opposite the names of those who died on the passage should be entered "died," and the date of deccase. This register must be signed by the commander, and forwarded, immediately on arrival, to the Emigration Agent General in the West Indies, for transmission to the Protector of Emigrants at Calcutta.

42. To ensure regularity and correctness in those returns, no payment of any description is to be made until the general mortality registers have been examined, and their correctness ascertained by the Immigration Agent General and health officer of the port of debarkation. They will then be countersigned by those officers, with a declaration of their correctness, and transmitted by the earliest opportunity to the Protector of Emigrants at Calcutta.

43. The proportion of females is to be 25 per cent. to male emigrants embarked. Pregnant females should not be embarked, and, as a general rule, young children also, who are unable to take ordinary food.

44. The Medical Inspector and Protector of Emigrants are to be jointly responsible for the eligibility of vessels engaged to carry coolies.

45. Ships may be allowed to carry their full measurement of emigrants, but the officers concerned are to prevent overcrowding. Every child reckoned in the computation of statute adults is to be allowed the space prescribed by law for an adult. The entire between-decks is to be given up in every instance for the use of the emigrants, without reference to the number shipped.

46. Surgeons proceeding in emigrant vessels are required to attend frequently at the depôts, in order to their becoming acquainted with the health and physical condition of the people they are to receive charge of.

47. The forms of registers referred to are those appended in and marked Nos. 7, 8, and 9. They will be supplied by the emigration agent at Calcutta.

Appendix No. 46.

Labuan.

This Indenture, made the sixteenth day of August 1862, between Her most gracious Majesty Queen Victoria of the first part, and Sir James Dalrymple Horn Elphinstone of Logie Elphinstone, North Britain, and of Onslow Square in the County of Middlesex, Baronet, M.P., and James Thompson Mackenzie of 41 Threadneedle Street in the city of London, esquire, (who, and their executors, administrators, and assigns, are herein-after called "the said licensees,") of the second part, and the Labuan Coal Company Limited of the third part:

Whereas by an indenture made the 12th day of June 1860, between Her most gracious Majesty of the one part, and the said licensees of the other part, Her said Majesty agreed to grant, free of charge, unto the said licensees, for the term of two years, to be computed from the 25th day of December 1860, free and exclusive liberty and licence to dig, work, mine, and search for all the coal mines and seam and seams of coal within and under the island of Labuan, or any part or parts thereof, (save as hereinafter mentioned,) and to appropriate the coal so gotten to their own use; and further, that if during the last 12 months of the said term of two years not less than 15,000 tons of coal should be raised or gotten, then Her said Majesty would, on the production of a certificate to that effect from the Governor of the said island, and on application by the said licensees to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, on or before the 1st day of June 1863, grant a lease to the said licensees of all coal mines and coal in the said island, for the term of 21 years, to be computed from the 25th day of December 1862, at such royalties and subject to such covenants and conditions as in the said agreement mentioned:

And whereas the said licensees have satisfied Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies that in consequence of unavoidable accident it will not be in their power to raise the minimum quantity of 15,000 tons of coals within the stipulated period of two years, notwithstanding due diligence and exertion has been made by them for that purpose, and have applied for an extension of the said period, to which application Her said Majesty has been graciously pleased to accede, subject to the stipulations and conditions herein-after contained:

And whereas there have been heretofore granted by the Crown to private individuals certain parcels or lots of public land in the said island, amounting in the whole to about 1,100 acres, including about 587 acres in the island of Doat (which island is not comprised or intended to be comprised in the said licence and lease), and in the absence of any reservation of coal and minerals in such grants the coal and minerals under the aforesaid parcels or lots of land passed to and became the property of the grantees:

And whereas the said Sir James Dalrymple Horn Elphinstone and James Thompson Mackenzie have, for valuable consideration, sold [and assigned] to the said Labuan Coal Company Limited all the benefit of the said indenture of the 12th June 1860, and of the licence and agreement for a lease thereby granted and agreed to be granted as aforesaid: And whereas the said Sir James Dalrymple Horn Elphinstone is chairman and the said James Thompson Mackenzie is one of the directors of the said company.

And whereas the said licensees, with the approbation and by the direction of the said company, have agreed, in consideration of Her Majesty's acceding to the said application, to forego any claim they might have under their said agreement to or in respect of any coal or minerals lying under the lands so granted as last aforesaid, or to search for, dig, or remove the same:

Now these presents witness, that in consideration of the premises, and with the privity and approbation of the said company, testified by the said company being a party to and executing these presents, it is hereby mutually agreed between Her said Majesty Queen Victoria, Her heirs and successors, and the said licensees, as follows; that is to say, that the exclusive licence granted to the said licensees by the herein-before recited indenture of the 12th day of June 1860, to search for, dig, and remove coal for their own use in the said island of Labuan, shall, subject to all the conditions, provisoes, and stipulations in the said licence contained, be extended from two to three years, such period of three years to be computed from the 25th day of December 1860; but that such licence shall not extend to lands in the said island of Labuan granted by the Crown previously to the 25th of December 1860 to any private individuals, nor shall it authorize the said licensees to enter upon such lands, or to search for, dig, or remove coal or minerals lying thereunder. And further, that if during the last 12 months of the said term of three years to which the said licence is hereby extended not less than 15,000 tons of coal, Newcastle measure, shall be raised or gotten by the said licensees or the said company, then and in such case Her Majesty or Her successors shall, on production of a certificate under the hand of the Governor or chief officer of the government in the said island that such minimum quantity of coal has been raised within the last 12 months of the said term of three years, and on application made for such purpose by the said licensees or the said company to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, on or before the 1st day of June 1864, grant a lease to the said company or to their nominees of all coal mines and coal in the said island of Labuan (save and except any coal mine or coal under any lands previously to the 25th day of December 1860 granted to any private individuals as aforesaid), for a term of 21 years from the 25th day of December 1863, at such royalties per ton, and subject to such covenants, provisoes, and conditions, as are in the said recited indenture of licence contained or referred to. And it is hereby lastly mutually agreed that in all other respects the said indenture of the 12th day of June 1860, and the stipulations and conditions therein contained, shall remain unaltered and in full force.

In witness whereof we, Thomas William Clinton Murdoch and Stephen Walcott, Her Majesty's Emigration Commissioners, have hereunto set our hands and seals, for and on behalf of Her Majesty, and the said Sir James Dalrymple Horn Elphinstone and James Thompson Mackenzie have respectively hereto set our hands and seals, and the said Labuan Coal Company Limited have hereunto caused to be affixed their common seal, the day and year first above written.

Signed, sealed, and delivered by the within - named Thomas William Clinton Murdoch and Stephen Walcott, in the presence of (signed) W. R. Pownall, Clerk to the Emigration Commissioners, 8, Park Street, Westminster. (Signed) T. W. C. MURDOCH. (L.S.) S. WALCOTT. (L.S.)

APPENDIX No. 47.

Government Emigration Board,
8, Park Street, Westminster, S.W.
March 1863.

INFORMATION respecting Free and Assisted Passages to the Colonies.

The only colonies which at present promote immigration from the United Kingdom by means of their public funds, and through the instrumentality of the Emigration Commissioners, are Victoria, New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia, the Cape of Good Hope, and Natal.

The system on which assistance is afforded varies in each colony, as more fully explained below.

VICTORIA.

Immigration into the colony at the expense of the colonial funds is governed by regulations issued by the local government, dated Melbourne, 24th June 1862.

Free Passages.—Under these regulations the Emigration Commissioners are authorized to select as well as to provide with free passages, in vessels to be chartered by them, unmarried female domestic servants of good character.

Assisted Passages.—Persons resident in the colony may, by making the subjoined payments to the colonial government, obtain what are called "Passage Warrants," for the introduction of their relatives and friends. By these warrants the colonial government engages to pay to certain shipowners (who have contracted to provide passages for the warrant holders) at the rate of 13*l.* 19*s.* for each person of 12 years of age or upwards, and half of that sum for each child between 1 and 12 years of age, if the service be properly performed. Unprotected single females, however, may proceed in the vessels of the Emigration Commissioners, but the other nominees are to proceed in vessels despatched by the agents in this country of the contractors, namely, Messrs. James Baines & Co. and Messrs. Gibbs, Bright, & Co. of Liverpool, and Messrs. Mackay & Co. of 1, Leadenhall Street, and Mr. Thomas Irving, 17, Gracechurch Street, London.

The passage warrants are valid for nine months only, after the date of their issue in the colony, and are transferable with the previous sanction of the Emigration Commissioners.

The commissioners cannot extend the duration of the warrants, nor sanction the transfer to males of warrants issued for females.

Scale of payments to be made in Victoria, for obtaining "Passage Warrants:"—

NEW SOUTH WALES.

Emigration at the expense of this colony is carried on by means of "Passage Certificates," issued under colonial regulations, dated 21st June 1861. The "Certificates" can be obtained only from the colonial government by residents in the colony, on payment of the following sums:—

Sex.	Under 12 Years.	12 and under 40 Years.	40 and under 50 Years.	All above 50 Years.

The nominees must be either mechanics, domestic servants, or persons of the labouring class, in good health, and of good moral character.

"Passage Certificates" are not transferable. They are available for 12 months from their date, and for passages only in the ships of the Emigration Commissioners to whom they should be forwarded by the nominees as soon as they receive them. The commissioners cannot extend the duration of the certificates.

QUEENSLAND.

Free Passages.—The Emigration Commissioners, when funds are remitted them for the purpose by the local government, grant free passages to this colony (which was lately a portion of New South Wales and called Moreton Bay) to female domestic servants of good character and to agricultural labourers. At present the commissioners have no funds for providing free passages.

Assisted Passages.—Persons resident in the colony may, on payment to the colonial authorities of the following sums, obtain "Passage Certificates" for the introduction of their relatives or friends, viz. :—

For children between 1 and 12 years of age, 2*l.*

These certificates, like those issued in New South Wales, are available for 12 months from their date, and for passages only in the ships of the Emigration Commissioners, to whom they should be forwarded by the nominees as soon as received. They are not transferable, nor can their duration be extended.

Under a recent colonial Act persons comprised within the Colonial Immigration Regulations for the time being who proceed direct from Europe to the colony at their own expense will be entitled to land orders to the value of 30*l.* for each adult emigrant of 14 years and upwards, and 15*l.* for children between 4 and 14 years of age. The orders are granted in the proportion of 18*l.* immediately on arrival, and 12*l.* more at the end of a 2 years continuous residence in the colony. They are available for the purchase of any lands offered for sale by the Government, without restriction as to quality or locality.

Mr. Jordan, the agent for emigration in this country of the Queensland Government, has, under the colonial regulations above alluded to, made arrangements by which persons approved by him can proceed to the colony in private vessels on payment of 8*l.* for males under 40, and 4*l.* for females under 35, provided they are respectable domestic servants. No land orders are granted in these cases. Mr. Jordan's office is at No. 17, Gracechurch Street, London.

South Australia.

The emigrants who go out at the expense of the colonial funds are selected, not by the Emigration Commissioners, but by an agent (Mr. Walters) specially appointed for the purpose by the colonial government. The emigrants are sent out in ships chartered and fitted up by the Emigration Commissioners.

1. Free Passages.—The only class of persons who can at present be provided with free passages, are single female domestic servants of good character, and not over 35 years of age.

2. Assisted Passages.—The classes eligible for assisted passages are chiefly single female domestic servants, farm labourers, shepherds, and herdsmen. Occasionally a few blacksmiths, gardeners, shoemakers, and male domestic servants can be taken. The candidates must be in good health, and of good moral character. They will be required to contribute towards the expense of their passages in the following proportions :—

Males :—Married men under 45 and single men under 40, 4*l.*
Females :—Married women under 45 and single women under 35, 3*l.*

Children between 1 and 12 years of age pay half the above rates.

Persons who apply for assisted passages have a preference over those who apply for free passages.

3. Deposit Certificates.—Persons resident in the colony can avail themselves of the Assisted Passage Regulations for the introduction of their relatives and friends. On application to the colonial authorities and on payment of the sums mentioned below, a "Passage Certificate" may be obtained which will entitle the holder to a passage in one of the commissioners ships.

Males.—Married men under 45 and single men under 40, 4*l.* each.

Children under 14, half the above rates.

N.B.—It is required that the emigrants proceeding to the colony, under either of these systems, should, previous to embarkation, be personally inspected by the colonial agent, and sign an undertaking not to leave South Australia within two years after their arrival in the colony.

Applications for passages can be made either to the commissioners in Park Street, Westminster, or to Mr. Walters, 5, Copthall Court, City.

New Zealand.

As a general rule free passages are not granted to any of the nine Provinces into which New Zealand is now divided. The Commissioners have, however, recently received from the provincial government of Canterbury 5,000*l.*, part of a sum of 10,000*l.* appropriated by the local legislature towards the emigration to that settlement of persons from the distressed districts of Lancashire. The Commissioners therefore do not feel at liberty to apply any part of this remittance to the relief of distress in other districts.

Assisted Passages.—With the above limited exception the Commissioners do not grant assistance to persons proceeding to any part of New Zealand. So far as they are aware assisted passages are only provided to the Canterbury settlement. Information as to the persons eligible and the terms on which they can be taken, &c. can be obtained of Mr. Marshman, the agent in this country of the Canterbury government. His office is at 16, Charing Cross.

The provincial government of Auckland promote immigration by means of land orders instead of by means of free or assisted passages. They have authorized Messrs. Ridgway and Drake, their agents in this country, to grant to persons paying their own passages land orders according to the following scale, viz., for persons 18 years old or upwards, 40 acres; and for persons between 5 and 18, 20 acres. The land orders of children under 18 accompanying their parents, and of servants proceeding at the expense of their masters, are to be granted to the parents and masters respectively, and not to the children or servants. Emigrants who desire to avail themselves of this privilege must, before leaving England, obtain the necessary papers from Messrs. Ridgway and Drake, 40, Leicester Square.

Tasmania.

There is no free emigration to this colony. The assisted emigration is carried on by means of "Bounty Tickets," which are procurable only in the colony, where also they are made payable. The holders of these tickets are left to make their own arrangements for passages with any private shipowner who will take the tickets in part payment.

The following Government notice, issued in Hobart Town under date 22d November 1861, contains the scale of payments, and the conditions under which the "Bounty Tickets" are granted.

Payments required from Applicants.

For a family ticket, including a man and his wife, with all their children under 12 years of age at the time of embarkation - - - - -	15
For a ticket for a single female - - -	5
For a ticket for a single male - - -	10

All children of 12 years of age or upwards at embarkation are to be considered as adults, and must each have a separate single ticket.

Regulations.

1. Forms for signature by applicants to be obtained from the immigration agent at Hobart Town or Launceston, and at the several police offices in the interior.

2. The "engagement" set out in the bounty ticket must be signed by the emigrant (for himself and family), agreeing not to leave Tasmania within four years after arrival without having previously paid to the immigration agent at Hobart Town or Launceston one fourth of the whole cost of the passage money for every year wanting to complete four years residence in the colony, and a proportionate sum for every part of a year.

3. Persons who introduce immigrants under these regulations must provide for their reception on arrival.

Should any such immigrants be received into a government establishment, a charge of 2*s.* a day, or part of a day, for each individual will be made against the introducer.

Cape of Good Hope.

There are at present no free passages granted to this colony. Mr. Saunders, the colonial agent is, in certain cases, authorized to provide in private vessels assisted passages, on conditions which can be ascertained on application at his office, 3, Bridge Street, Westminster.

NATAL.

No free passages are now granted to this colony. Persons resident in Natal can, however, nominate their relations or friends for passages in the Commissioners ships, on giving to the colonial government a guarantee for the repayment of the passages, at the rate of 10*l.* per statute adult, within 12 months after the landing of the emigrants. Married persons, with the members of their families under 12 years of age, are required to repay the advance at the rate of 10*l.* per annum. Any excess of passage money beyond the 10*l.* is paid out of colonial funds.

When the Emigration Commissioners have colonial funds in their hands for the purpose (which is not the case at present), they can also grant assisted passages to eligible candidates, provided such candidates can pay to the Commissioners, before embarkation, towards their passage, for each adult person of the age of 12 years and upwards (two children between the ages of 1 and 12 counting as an adult), 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*, with 1*l.* for bedding and mess utensils on the voyage. The emigrants, however, must enter into a bond to repay to the colonial government 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* for each such adult, at the rate of 10*l.* per annum in the case of a family. In the case of a single individual the amount is to be repaid within 12 months after arrival.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

There are no colonial funds appropriated for emigration to this colony. It is only occasionally, when authorized by the Secretary of State, that the Commissioners can select emigrants for passages to this colony at the expense of imperial funds. On these occasions the emigrants are required to be for the most part unmarried females of good character, and a few married agricultural labourers, having, if any, not more than two young children.

TO NORTH AMERICA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, and the other British Colonies there is no free or assisted emigration.

INFORMATION for Emigrants proceeding in Ships despatched by the Emigration Commissioners.

1. New South Wales, Victoria, South Australia, Western Australia, and Queensland are five separate colonies in Australia, the capitals of which are several hundred miles apart. Sydney is the capital of New South Wales. Melbourne is the capital of Victoria. Geelong, near to Melbourne, is the next principal town, and Portland and Belfast are also thriving towns, about 300 miles to the west of Melbourne. As Melbourne and Geelong are situated in the same land-locked bay, and are only about 45 miles apart, with steam communication daily between them, at the cost of a few shillings, the Commissioners treat them as practically the same port. Adelaide is the capital of South Australia; and Perth of Western Australia. Brisbane, Moreton Bay, is the capital of Queensland. Port Curtis is a fine harbour in the same colony, about 300 miles north of Moreton Bay. Keppel Bay and Wide Bay are also ports in the same colony.

2. The Commissioners engage none but first-class vessels, which are despatched from Southampton, Plymouth, and Birkenhead. At these ports the Commissioners have depôts fitted expressly for the reception of emigrants, who are lodged and fed, free of charge, from the day named in their embarkation order until they are embarked. They can travel to the depôt by any of the ordinary trains on the London and North-western, the Great Western, and the South-western, or the lines of railway connected therewith, for 1*d.* per mile. Emigrants should look carefully after their luggage both in travelling and in the depôt, as the Commissioners or their officers cannot be responsible for it in any way.

3. The ships are fitted with a proper regard to the health and comfort of the emigrants, as well as for the preservation of good order amongst them. The single men occupy the fore part of the ship; next to them are placed the married couples and their young children in the middle of the vessel, and the single women have a distinct compartment set apart for them in the after-part of the ship.

4. The Commissioners appoint a surgeon superintendent for the protection and medical charge of the emigrants. The single women are placed under the care of a matron, and when practicable a schoolmaster is appointed, for the benefit of adults as well as of children.

Diet Scale.

5. The emigrants are victualled on board, in messes of six or eight each. Each person over 12 years of age receives weekly: 3½ lbs. of meat, 8 oz. of suet, 4 oz. of butter, 2½ lbs. of biscuit, 3½ lbs. of flour, 1 lb. of oatmeal, 1 lb. of rice, 2 lbs. of potatoes or ½ lb. of preserved ditto, peas and other vegetables, 6 oz. of raisins, 1 oz. of tea and 2 oz. of coffee, ¾ lb. of sugar and ½ lb. of West India molasses, with salt, pepper, and pickles, and 3 quarts of water daily. Children between 1 and 12 years of age receive half rations, and for those under 1 year old there is a special dietary scale. There is also an abundant supply of medical comforts, such as arrowroot, wine, preserved milk, &c. for use in case of sickness. Every ship carries a baker, and a large oven for baking bread, pies, &c., and the emigrants, besides their other allowances, receive an issue of fresh bread three times a week, made from a portion of their flour.

Outfit, &c.

6. The emigrants must find their own clothing, which will be inspected at the port by an officer of the Commissioners. The smallest quantity which will be passed is: For each male over 12, six shirts, six pairs of stockings, two warm flannel shirts, two pairs of new shoes or boots, two complete suits of strong exterior clothing, four towels, and 4 lbs. marine soap; and for each female over 12, six shifts, two warm and strong flannel petticoats, six pairs stockings, two pairs strong shoes, two strong gowns, one of which must be warm, three sheets, four towels, one comb and one hair brush, and 4 lbs. of marine soap. If any difficulty is experienced in procuring good marine soap where the applicants reside, there will be ample opportunity for purchasing it after their arrival at the depôt. The larger the stock of clothing the better for health and comfort during the voyage, which usually lasts about four months; and as the emigrants have always to pass through very hot and very cold weather, they should be prepared for both. An extra supply of flannel is strongly recommended.

7. The whole quantity of baggage for each adult must not measure more than 20 cubic or solid feet, nor exceed half a ton in weight. It must be closely packed in one or more strong boxes or cases, but no box must exceed in size 15 cubic feet. Large packages and extra baggage, if taken at all, must be paid for. Mattresses and feather beds will in no case be taken. Neither the Commissioners nor the colonial government will be responsible in any way for loss or damage at sea of emigrants' baggage.

8. The Commissioners supply, free of charge, provisions, medical attendance, and cooking utensils at their depôts and on board the ship. They also provide new mattresses, bolsters, blankets, and counterpanes, canvas bags to contain linen, &c., knives and forks, spoons, metal plates, and drinking mugs, which articles are given, at the end of the voyage, to the emigrants who have behaved well.

9. The Commissioners also supply bags containing stuffs, and sewing and knitting materials, which are placed in charge of the matron, to be given out for the benefit and recreative employment of the single women during the voyage.

10. On reaching the colony, emigrants by the Commissioners' ships are received into the government depôts, and lodged and maintained there free of expense, for a few days, till they can obtain employment. They are not bound in any way to the government, or required to make any payment in the colony for their passages, but are at perfect liberty to choose their own employers, and to make their own bargains for wages. No employer is admitted into the depôt to hire servants who is not known to be of good character, or who does not bring a certificate of respectability from a clergyman or magistrate.

APPENDIX No. 48.

DISTILLING APPARATUS.

At the COURT at OSBORNE HOUSE, ISLE OF WIGHT, the 9th day of January 1863.

PRESENT:

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by "The Passengers Act, 1855," it is amongst other things enacted, that before any passenger ship shall be cleared out, the emigration officer at the port of clearance shall satisfy himself that there is on board a sufficient quantity of pure water, carried in tanks or casks, to secure throughout the intended voyage the issue of three quarts daily to each statute adult, for the use of the passengers, exclusive of the quantity required for cooking:

And whereas it is also enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit, for permitting the use on board passenger ships of an apparatus for distilling water, and for defining, in such case, the quantity of fresh water to be carried in tanks or casks for the passengers, and such Order in Council from time to time to alter, amend, and revoke, as occasion may require:

And whereas Her Majesty, by Orders in Council, dated respectively the sixth day of May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the thirteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, prescribed certain rules for permitting the use on board passenger ships propelled by steam engines of a certain power and on board passenger ships propelled by sails of a certain apparatus for distilling fresh water from salt water:

And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Order in Council that relates to passenger ships propelled by sails, and to issue in lieu thereof the Order herein-after contained:

Now therefore Her Majesty doth, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and in exercise of the authority vested in Her by the said "Passengers Act, 1855," hereby repeal the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and order as follows:—

Any passenger ship propelled by sails only, or by steam engines of less power than is sufficient, without the aid of sails, to propel the ship at the rate of five statute miles an hour, may be cleared out and proceed on her voyage, having on board, in tanks or casks, only half the quantity of pure water required by the said Act to be carried for the use of the passengers, provided the following conditions be observed; that is to say:

1. That there be on board such ship an efficient apparatus for distilling fresh water from salt water, of the description commonly known either as Normandy's patent or Winchester or Graveley's patent.

2. That the owners, charterers, or master of such ship, before clearance, lodge with such emigration officer a certificate from the engineer or surveyor of the Board of Trade, or from some other competent person to be named by such emigration officer, declaring that, within seven days immediately preceding the date of such certificate, the apparatus has been examined by him and is then in good working condition, and stating the number of imperial gallons of pure fresh water which it is capable of producing in every twenty-four hours, and further, declaring that the apparatus on board is either Normandy's or Winchester and Graveley's patent, as the case may be.

3. That in every case such emigration officer shall be satisfied that the number of gallons of pure water which the apparatus is so certified to be capable of producing is not less than the whole number of persons about to proceed on the intended voyage of such ship; that is to say, the whole number of cabin passengers, passengers, and crew.

4. That there is rated on the ship's articles, and that there is on board the ship, some person or persons who, to the satisfaction of the said emigration officer, shall be competent for the proper management and repair of such distilling apparatus.

And, to prevent all doubts on the construction of this Order in Council, it is hereby further ordered that the terms "passenger ship," "emigration officer," "statute adult," and "master," shall herein have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said "Passengers Act, 1855."
